Caledonia Wins Round

Defeat Harvesters in the Final Game 10 to 6

After winning their first game so handily from the Harvesters of Hamilton 11-1, Caledonia was defeated on their own grounds by the same team last Thursday by a score of 6 to 5, necessitating a third game to decide the winners. The deciding game was played at Mount Hope yesterday, when the Haldimand League champions showed their superiority by handing the city chaps another trouncing, the score being 10 to 6. This brings Caledonia near the end of the semi-finals, having only the Simcoe team to tackle before entering the finals for the Ontario intermediate championship. The first of the home and home games will be played at Caledonia on Thursday of this week, and the second at Simcoe next Wednesday.

The Caledonia fans are justly proud of the remarkable showing their team has made this season, having been defeated but twice. Although Caledonia won both games from Jarvis in the league series, they claim that Jarvis gave them two of the hardest and best games they have had this season, the scores being 3-2 and 4-2.

Death of Miss Derby

A promising life was cut short on Tuesday, Sept. 6th, when Miss Doris Derby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Derby, of Selkirk, succumbed to the ravages of consumption, at the age of 21 years. After receiving her education she studied music at the Conservatory, Hamilton, and had become an accomplished pianist. This summer her health was not good, and a little over two months ago, underwent an operation for appendicitis, but did not regain her strength. She was taken to the Sanitarium at Gravenhurst, and everything possible done for her, but the insidious disease pulled her down rapidly. The family has the deep sympathy of many friends in their sad affliction.

Ginn-Howard

A pretty wedding took place in Wesley Methodist Church, Brantford, on Saturday, Sept. 3rd, at 12 o'clock noon, of Pauline Mary, only daughter of Mr. E. Howard, to Frederick C. Ginn, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ginn, Dufferin Ave., Brantford. The bride who was given away by her mother, looked sweet in her wedding dress of ivory satin and wearing an embroidered veil caught with orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of orchids and sweet roses. Mrs. Leonard Blayney, a recent young bride, wore becomingly pale green taffeta and large black hat, and carried opelia roses, while the bridesmaid, Miss Edna Howley, was prettily gowned in mauve taffeta and large black hat and carried sunburst roses. James Porter, druggist, of London, and cousin of the bride, was best man. The ushers, Mr. Roy Schuyler of Paris, and Mr. Percy Mason of Toronto, also cousins of the bride, looked after the guests. Rev. G. King of Wesley Church performed the ceremony. During the signing of the register the organist, Mr. Timms, played appropriately. Dinner was served at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ginn left by motor for Toronto where they took the boat down the St. Lawrence for Montreal, the bride wearing a navy turtleneck suit with Ermine neck piece and French model hat. On their return to the city they will reside in their new home, 172 Morrell St., Lansdowne Park. Among the out-of-city guests from London, Toronto, Paris and Hagersville were Irvine Osterby and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Schuyler of Jarvis.
