The Blue Sky Legislature

On Friday of last week Attorney-General Raney introduced his long promised blue sky legislation. It was intimated by him that it, with the Anti-Combine bill, will go to a special committee to meet during the recess in order to pro. ceed slowly along these lines

Mr. Raney said that the general scheme was the appointment of a commissioner whose duty it would be to examine all flotations of stocks, all prospectuses would be filed with him, and the intention would be to establish the honesty of the issue. It was not intended to curb all speculation. The Attorney-General held that certain speculative propositions were legitimate and this bill was not intended to interfere unduly therewith. Mr. Lang, of Cochrane, hoped that due care would be taken not to frighten capital away from the mining ventures of New Ontario which were more or less speculative at all times, yet capital was needed to do the development work. In drafting the bill, the Attorney-General said that it was sought to avoid the objections that where a certificate was was given by the commissioner it would have the appearance of a certificate of character to companies starting in bus-
