The hosts of the severe cold a nice little congregation gathered at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Rev. A. W. Hare, B.A., gave a very earnest address, the keynote of which was "Faith." The speaker scored those who are ever seeking after, and being carried away by some new fad or fancy. A deeper faith was required to make us more staple in all our ways. "Faith in a doctor," said the speaker, was to have confidence that he knew his business, and a willingness to put your case in his hands."

Womans' Institute
 Successful Meeting Held At The Home of Mrs. Holmes

The meeting of the Woman's Institute at the home of Mrs. I. W. Holmes on Wednesday, Feb. 8th, proved most interesting and instructive. The subject for the meeting was one of special interest to us all, and the papers by Mrs. Carter on how the Woman's Institute can be a help to our schools, and Mrs. McNeil on the home and school, the basis of social, civic and moral uplift are worthy of repetition. The Adolescent Act was taken by Mrs. Holmes. The Misses Johnson and Stallwood favored us with an instrumental selection and Miss Strilwood a vocal solo. The community singing from the leaflet adds spice to the meeting. The meetings are increasing in interest and membership. Will not all the ladies join in the work of Home and Country.

Kindly accept the thanks of the members of the Woman's Institute for all who assisted in any way to make the social at Mrs. Holmes the success it was.

AESOP'S ADVERTISING FABLE

Once upon a Time there lived a Merchant Prince who inserted a small ADVERTISING Card in his local paper. The World and His Wives rushed to the Store and the Great Battle of Push and Tuck occurred. The Merchant Prince did such a Tremendous Business as a Result of this one Small Advertisement that he was able to Retire and Spend the rest of his Life playing at Golf.

That is a Fable!

But it still represents some folks ideas of advertising.

ADVERTISING won't make any man or firm rich over night, but, if intelligently used with persistence, it will multiply customers, increase turnover, swell profits and build such goodwill for the advertiser as nothing else will.

Get the facts from "The Jarvis Record."
