LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Tenders are being called for the finishing of the various Provincial Highways.
Among them we note the one running east and west through Jarvis.

Hagersville is contemplating the purchase of an electric fire alarm system, which is being tried out. If the tests are satisfactory the same will be purchased.

A number of our local Oddfellows paid a visit to Hagersville Lodge last evening. The interest in the meeting was the presence of the Chief Patriarch and all the District Deputies.

In order to stamp out and exterminate the corn borer the following counties have been placed under quarantine: Haldimand, Waterloo, Welland and Norfolk. All the following townships:
Clinton, Gainsboro, Grantham, Louth, Niagara and Ancaster.

As the "Record" goes to press our hockey team and Cayuga are clashing in a championship match. A win for Jarvis means much, as it will put them in the running for the trophy. They defeated Cayuga last week on the latter's own arena by a score of 5 goals to 4, and here's to hoping that they repeat to-night.

Carl Ahrens, of Kitchener, who was on trial accused of the murder of his wife, was acquitted by the jury who sat upon the case, as there were no witnesses to contradict the story told by the accused. The defendant is the son of a prominent Kitchener, and the case had attracted a provincial-wide prominence.

Last Tuesday week the Executive of the County of Haldimand Religious Educational Council held their semi-annual meeting at Hagersville. There are now about 6000 enrolled in the Sabbath Schools of this association in this county.
The different districts were well represented and arrangements were made for the Annual District Convention from May 22 to 29 inclusive at Jarvis, Hagersville, Haldimand, Cayuga, Caledonia and Dunnville.

The Dunnville Chronicle of the 17th makes its appearance as an all home print. It is an 8-page, 3-column paper, and to enable it to accomplish this has added to its mechanical equipment a Model 14 Linotype. We beg to extend to our esteemed cotem our hearty congratulations on the enterprise shown, and to wish it continued and constantly increasing prosperity.

Mr. A. F. Carter, who formerly conducted a jewelry business in Cayuga, has decided to locate in Port Dover. He has already purchased a fine stock of jewelry and a complete set of fixtures, and will have the same installed in his new location at Port Dover. We have been informed that it will be about six weeks before he obtains possession of the building.

The Ontario Legislature is now in session, and it promises to be one of the liveliest assemblies that have ever met in Queen's Park in recent years. The Hydro controversy in particular will be thoroughly fought out on the floor of the house and we hope that the Drury Government will see its way clear to give Sir Adam Beck and his hydro-electric policies every support.

While it is yet winter and hockey is all the rage, we should not forget baseball. We notice from our exchanges that the baseball enthusiasts are already on the warpath, and planning for the 1923 season. Jarvis as a sporting centre is second to none, and no doubt before the next baseball season closes next Fall, some of the other towns will know that Jarvis has a real winning baseball team.

"There may be better ways of advertising than through the columns of your local newspaper, but they are as yet undiscovered. We may make signs to the moon with the idea that people inhabit that planet, but they don't know anything about it. You may have goods on the shelves of your shop, and real bargains, but without letting people know about it through your local newspaper, it is like making signs to the moon."—Ex.
"The leaders of the people in small towns and rural communities have a grave responsibility with regard to the churches. These institutions uphold the standards of morality in business, social and private life. Law can do nothing without a body of public opinion behind it, and this body of opinion is the standard which the churches create and maintain. Indeed this is the most important work which civilization has to do, and in it lies the greatest responsibility of the leaders of the people. They must see that the churches are properly manned and equipped for performing this great task."—Port Dover Maple Leaf.

We desire to draw our readers' attention to the advertisement of Mr. E. Wagner on the front page of this issue.
House cleaning is now near at hand and Mr. Wagner is the sole agent in this district for Rawleigh's Kreo.

Mr. J. J. Parsons, who recently sold his butter factory on the new Highway west of Jarvis, for the purpose of widening the road at that point, was awarded the contract for demolishing of the building and work on the same are nearing completion. When the new Highway is finished it will be one of the finest roads in the province.

At the recent meeting of the Ontario Plowman's Association, held at Toronto, invitations for the holding of the 1922 plowing matches were received from London, Peterborough, Oshawa and Lindsay. After considerable discussion the meet was awarded to Lindsay. The election of officers resulted as follows—A. B. Rose, Echo Place, President; J.
Lockie Wilson, Toronto, Secretary; F.
P. Johnson, Toronto, Treasurer.

The incoming editor of the "Record" would esteem it a favor if the subscribers know of any news items, whether it be of a personal or a local nature, if they would let us have particulars of the same before Wednesday of each week. By so doing you will help the new management in the publication of a real, live local paper. If you are too busy to drop in and give it to us personally, use the phone.

We draw the attention of our readers to the advertisement elsewhere in this issue of Mr. W. H. Fradley, who is now running a high-class cafeteria and ice cream parlor in Jarvis. Nothing but the best in the various lines will be kept in stock, and courteous and prompt attention will be given your orders. Mr.
Fradley's new store fills up a gap that was very observant to all, and we extend to him our best wishes for a properous and growing trade.

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. S. Burwash entertained a large number of her friends last Friday evening at her home, and a very pleasant time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Allen were in Hagersville on Friday last, attending the funeral of their cousin, the late Edward Dougherty.

Mr. Potter, who for the past two weeks has been assisting in the publishing of the "Record," left for Toronto on Friday evening last.

Miss Pauline Harris has returned home after a pleasant visit at Buffalo, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs.
Robert Beck.

Mrs. Jane Hoover, who has been visiting with relatives in Hagersville for a number of weeks, has returned to her home in Jarvis.

Mr. Robert Dougherty, of Jarvis, attended the funeral of his brother Edward, which took place last Friday afternoon at Hagersville. His brother was only sick a short time.

Mr. Wm. Duxbury and family, of Walpole Township, have moved into Jarvis, and are now settled in their new home, which Mr. Duxbury purchased from Mr.
Frank Ross.

Rev. G. B. Wreford was called to the Queen City this week, owing to the illness of his niece, Miss Margaret Balshaw, who is attending Haverhill College. Mrs.
Wreford accompanied her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Butcher and Master Butcher, accompanied by Mrs. Hogan, of Hamilton, were some of the guests at a birthday party held last Saturday at the home of Mr. Fred. Andrews, of Simcoe.

Bible Class Gathering

Last evening over fifty members and friends of the Bible Class of the Methodist Church, met at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wadham, for to enjoy a social evening. Light refreshments were there in abundance, and games, music, speeches, etc., took up the evening. Taken altogether a thoroughly enjoyable evening was the result. Events such as these help to make this old world a better place to live in.

Under or Over Paid—"Which?"

Under the above caption a subscriber of this paper handed us in the following enquiry and asked us to insert it in our columns:

"The auditing of the Walpole Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company for the year 1921 (receipts and expenditures $17,266.64) cost the company $8.00; while that of the Villages of Jarvis, on a turnover of $10,730.68 last year, cost the village $20.00."

The Hagersville Soap Company

Toronto Saturday Night in its Financial Section has the following comment on the projected soap factory at Hagersville:

"Hagersville is reported to be all agog about the money to be made in soap.
The Duffee Soap Powder as made by the Ontario Soap Company, or to be made in the open sesame to fortune. One puts in $250, and presto! in a jiffy Duffee makes the two fifty into a thousand simply. A year at most would elapse, or so the confiding are told. Now we would like to be shown, and so would a score of Canadian Companies putting industry, brains and good money into the manufacture of soap, just how a way of affluence can be washed so quickly.
It is a pity to scatter the secret broadcast here because some of those approached have been told to keep their good fortune secret as it was the object of Duffee to keep the whole business a family matter. Those who sold have represented him as an American millionaire, who has great works back in the United States. The wealthy put their money into his American enterprises, especially into his great works in Maryland, but now in starting in Canada he wants to give the poor man a chance. The big billionaire have had the good things too long. Let the small fish have a fry—I mean try. Some thousands have been gathered already in the neighborhood, and it is reported that even some Torontonians are contributing in like measure to the great venture."

Personally the editor of the "Record" is not in a position to comment personally on the above stock flotation, and merely gives the foregoing extract as it appeared in our Toronto cotem. We will endeavor to learn more at first hand shortly.

Sunday Alliance Meetings

On Sabbath next Rev. D. W. Snider, of Toronto, will give two sermons in Jarvis churches in the interest of the Lord's Day Alliance Movement. In the morning he will speak in Knox Church and in the evening in Wesley Methodist Church. The Lord's Day Alliance is doing a good work in Canada and we hope that all our people will at all times give the movement every assistance. We believe that the "Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath," and that one day in seven is required to help us carry through the other six. A movement is on foot in the United States to place their Sabbath on a more substantial footing. From an exchange we take the following comment re U.S. Sabbath legislature:—A new drive is being made by reformers in the U.S. congress in the shape of a bill for compulsory Sunday observance.
Its provisions would close all theatres and other places of amusement, prohibit spots, and even make it unlawful for any person to labor on Sunday except upon "works of necessity and charity." It will probably meet the usual fate of similar legislation though acceptance of other infringements on the alleged "liberty of the subject" does not make the prediction conclusive. The aphorism concerning the inability of twenty men to make a horse take water, although one may lead him there, still holds good as to humane.

The Late Charles H. Ivey

The funeral of the late Charles H.
Ivey, senior member of the law firm of Ivey, Elliott & Ivey, took place at the latter place on Thursday of last week.
Mr. Ivey left early in January for Italy, for the benefit of his health, and was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Isobel.
Shortly after his arrival at Italy, he suffered a paralytic stroke to which he soon succumbed. He was in his 67th year, and in November of last year he suffered the loss of his wife. Deceased was born on a farm near Jarvis, and a son of the late Richard Ivey, and had practised law in London for many years.
He was one of a family of nine children, two of whom survive, namely, Thomas, of Carman, Manitoba, and Mrs. Eliza Allen, of Jarvis. Four children are left to mourn the loss of a kind and indulgent father.

Death of Mrs. Wm. J. Start

There occurred at her late home in Walpole Township, the death of Ethel May Mitchell, beloved wife of Mr. William J. Start in her 34th year of her age.
Mrs. Start was well and favorably known known in Jarvis and vicinity and her demise is deeply regretted by her many friends. The funeral will take place tomorrow (Thursday) morning, Feb 23rd, at 10 a.m. from the family residence to St. Ann's Church, Walpole, for service and interment. The sincere sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved husband and the heart-broken parents in this their sad affliction.

Town Pulpits

Sunday at St. Paul's

Both services were taken by the Rector, Rev. G. B. Wreford. His subject for the morning "The Unseen Vision" which was alone shown to Daniel, while his companions who were with him could see nothing. In the evening evening his subject was "The Destruction of Tyre," described so vividly in Ezekiel. Good sized congregations were present at both services.

With The Presbyterians

The services at Knox church, Jarvis, last Lord's Day, were all very bright and interesting and were exceptionally well attended. The minister, Rev. A. W.
Hare, preached at both services to appreciative congregations. At 11 a.m. the text was "Man Shall not Live by Bread Alone," being the Master's reply to the devil. At the 7 p.m. service the subject was, "A Strange Character, John Mark."

Mission Sunday at Wesley Sabbath last was mission day at the local Methodist churches and in the morning service at Jarvis the pulpit was occupied by Mr. J. O. McCarthy, of Toronto, who gave an interesting and instructive discourse on what was being done in the mission fields both home and foreign. The gospel has been sent to every nation now and nearly all people can now get the Bible printed in their language. As the world grows old the wonder book of all time, continues to grow in popularity and it is claimed that more bibles are printed and distributed than all the other books of the world. In the evening Rev. G. Smitherman, the pastor occupied the pulpit and the subject of his discourse was "An Unknown Grave," referring to the death and burial of that great leader of God's people, Moses, although the weather in the evening was not as pleasant a fair congregation was present.

Knox Church Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of Knox Church, Jarvis, was held on Tuesday, February 21, with the Moderator in the chair. There was a splendid attendance and keen interest manifested in the meeting. The Board of Managers felt that there were too many on the Board, and so all resigned and a smaller Board elected. An innovation was the election of four ladies to the Board, namely:—Mrs. Galbut Steel, Mrs. C. S. McCarter, Mrs. G. L. Miller and Mrs. R. Shaver. The other new members were: Messrs R. Shaver, D.
Steel, W. Simpson, R. Wilson, Neil Brown, J. Slater, A. Meehan. The contributions were the largest in the history of the church, being some $278.00 over that of last year. With the unanimous approval of the meeting and the Board of Managers of Chalmers Church, the minister's stipend was increased by a bonus of $150.00. Mrs. Garbut Steel was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the congregation.
A vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. A.
Meehan, Mr. W. Simpson and Mr. R.
Wilson. At the inaugural meeting of the managers a unanimous vote of thanks and appreciation was tendered to Mr. James Haslett for his long and faithful service to the Board. The total balance in all departments was $445.54.

A Social Evening

The Y.P.S.C.E. of Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis, held a very successful social evening in the School Room on Friday evening of last week. Refreshments were served and a choice program was given. A very large sum was realized. It is to be hoped that more gatherings like the above will be held by this society, as it a means of making the winter evenings pass very pleasantly, and besides it develops the get-together spirit which so helps to build up a community. Mr. C. S. McCarter was a very capable chairman.

An Enjoyable Social

The At-Home held at the residence of Mr. Ivan W. Holmes, Main Street, last week was a very successful affair from every point of view. The attendance was good, a bountiful repast was served by the ladies from 6 to 8, and a first-class programme rendered, the net result being a very enjoyable evening.
The receipts, which amounted to nearly $60.00, will be applied on the purchase of a piano for use at the Arena. It is expected that another of the pleasant gatherings will be held shortly, of which due notice will be given in our local columns.

He Likes The "Record"

One of our subscribers in renewing his

"The 'Record' affords me much interesting reading." Thanks. We hope
