One of the most important events in the history of Christ Church (Anglican) was consummated last Sunday. His Lordship, Bishop Clark, to Niagara, was present and confirmed a class of six new communicants. He also dedicated a handsome, new baptismal font constructed by Isaac Truckle, sexton of the church. Beside the present incumbent, Rev. Edward Mannsell, there was present, Rev. H. W. A. Brand, of York, former local clergyman.

Despite the chilly weather and the failure of the speakers to appear, about forty people thoroughly enjoyed the annual picnic of Nanticoke Woman's Institute at Hickory Beach Park, on Thursday afternoon, June the 13th. An excellent programme of music was provided by Mrs. Frank Saunders, Miss Edna Saunders and Miss Jean Oakes. The president, Mrs. Aaron Oakes, presided. A sumptuous repast of delectable dainties was served on the grounds. Among those present as guests were some of the members of Varency Institute.

A mail courier promised a lady a letter on Monday and she got this. I promised on Monday to bring you a letter,
To trust an old poet you ought to know better;
For poets you know are all licensed to lie,
So give me a kind word when I go by,
A poet is called a crank and a bard,
So I send you a love letter on a post-card;
I hope this won't bring you sorrow, but bliss,
For I can't dry your tears with a sweet little kiss.

St. Paul's Church Notes
