WEDDING BELLS

Hare. After a wedding tour to eastern points Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell will reside on the 5th Concession of Walpole.

SMITH-KITCHEN
A very pretty lawn wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. John Kitchen, 1st Concession of Walpole, on Wednesday, June 29th, 1922, when his daughter, Leota, was united in marriage to Mr. James Ivan Smith, a prosperous young farmer of Walpole. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Hare, B. A., of Knox Church, Jarvis. About seventy-five guests were entertained at a delightful wedding supper. The many splendid presents testified to the high esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside on the Nanticoke sideroad, Mr. Smith having purchased a fine farm there.

CHERPESIDE
The members of Chesapeake Methodist church and friends in the village met at the parsonage Tuesday evening, June 20, just one week previous to Rev. and Mrs. Mercer's departure for their new field at Drew. A short program of music and speeches was given during which Dr. Sher acted as chairman after which Mr. and Mrs. Mercer were called together and presented with an address and an envelope containing about $32.00.

Miss Justin read the following address:
To Mr. and Mrs. Mercer:—
Our relation as shepherd and flock of Chesapeake Methodist church, being about to terminate for the present, we take this opportunity of expressing our feeling of regret and sorrow at parting with you. We appreciate and thank you for the efforts you have put forth to make Chesapeake and the surrounding community truly Christian and we trust we are living a little nearer to God because of your work among us.

We ask you to accept this purse as a token of our love and esteem for you both as friend and pastor. Our coming together here to-night is not only to bid farewell but to further give expression to the high esteem in which you are held, not only by the members of Chesapeake Methodist church but the friends and members of the other churches of Chesapeake. We assure you it will always give us pleasure to think of the many happy associations of the past. We will know that new friends and the work on your new field will have a tendency to crowd out old memories, but are we asking too much when we ask that you reserve for us a little corner in your hearts in loving memory of your Chesapeake friends and an interest in your prayers that we might ever be true to the God you have so faithfully held up to us.

We hope, pray and trust that you may be equally successful in winning the love and respect of your co-workers on your new field and should there be any there who know not their Saviour, may God enable you to tenderly and safely gather them into the fold of eternal love.

We further hope and pray that your lives may be long, happy, and useful and that we may have the unspeakable happiness of meeting where parting is untrue. Signed in behalf of Chesapeake Methodist Church.

Mrs. John Pond presented the gift and little Wilber Werner presented a beautiful bouquet of Syringas to Mrs. Mercer. In reply both Mr. and Mrs. Mercer not only thanked the people for their gift but spoke very highly of their kindness to them during their four years stay among them. Lunch was then served after which they all sang "God Save the King."

Land for Homesteads
The total number of quarter-sections of Crown land still available in each township is shown on the 1921 edition of a Land map of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta recently issued by the Department of the Interior, likewise the number of quarter-sections of unoccupied and unutilized lands held in private ownership that are purchasable from the non-resident owner. This latter feature, showing at a glance what lands are for sale, should prove of great service to the land seeker. Supplementary to the map, the Department has had compiled for each district, lists containing information as to the price asked for the land, terms of sale, nature of soil, acreage fit for cultivation, value of buildings and other matters helpful to the prospective purchaser. With such information in his possession the intending settler may then negotiate with the owner of the land.

Another important feature of the map is the Railway Belt information which has been shown in three different shades of colour on each side of all railway lines, to signify land within 5, 10 or 15 miles of a railway. Among other details shown are the Dominion Parks, the forest reserves, land districts and agencies, surveyed townships, and railway information to date. A copy of the map, also a list of the unoccupied lands for sale in any particular district may be obtained free of charge, upon application to the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.

The net proceeds will be devoted to the purchasing of tile in connection with the provincial highway improvements now being made in the front of the church property. Churches
A large crowd assembled in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning and listened with rapt attention to the address given by Miss Hind, of Holokreika, Alberta. She gave a very interesting account of the work being done among the Ruthenians in that part of Canada. The Woman's Missionary Society and the Mission Band of Wesley Church were fortunate in having Miss Hind in connection with their anniversary services. The amount placed on the plate exceeded that of a year ago.

In the evening the Pastor occupied the pulpit. His theme—a practical one—dealt with a man's duty to himself by caring for the body; also the aesthetic nature and religious. To be on the square with his neighbor; guard his neighbor's reputation, nor spoil his good name. Be not too exacting, love money and thus meet the higher obligation with the beautiful quality of mercy. In the wider sphere of life, "Walk humbly before thy God" by repentance towards God, faith in Jesus Christ and obedience to the Divine will.

St. Paul's Anglican
The services Sunday morning included the administration of Holy Baptism to two infants. The Archdeacon in his address at the close of the service called attention to two of the rubrics preceding the baptismal services in the new prayer book. These rubrics direct:

1. That the minister of the parish shall often admonish the people that they bring their children to baptism as soon as possible after birth, not later than the fourth, or at furthest the fifth Sunday, unless upon a great and reasonable cause.

2. The people are also to be admonished, that it is most fitting that baptism should be administered upon Sundays and other holy days, when the most number of people come together.

At Evensong the sermon dealt with the message of John the Baptist. "Repent for the kingdom of Heaven is at hand." Repentance is the first great step towards clearing the way for the coming King. He can only establish His dominion in the heart which is prepared for His reception. To pray "Thy Kingdom Come," yet never to prepare for its coming is but to invite condemnation; on the other hand, "whatsoever ye shall ask in faith, believing ye shall receive."

Long Manuscript
If you've got a thought that's happy.
Boil it down;
Make it short, and crisp, and snappy,
Boil it down.
When your brain its coin has minted,
Down the page your pen has sprinted,
If you want your effort printed,
Boil it down.

Take out all every surplus letter,
Boil it down;
Fewer syllables the better,
Boil it down.
Make your meaning plain—express it,
So we'll know, not merely guess it,
Then my friend, see you address it,
Boil it down.

Boil out all the extra trimmings,
Boil it down;
Shim it well, then skim the trimmings,
Boil it down.
When your sure 'twould be a sin to Cut another sentence into
Send it on and we'll begin to
Boil it down.
