Recently the Toronto Globe had a front page write up of a visit paid the Queen City by a certain Juniper Berry of Jarvis. The particulars however were not complete, as they failed to state that said Juniper Berry went up particularly to see his cousin, Silky Cornsalks, who edits the farm page of the Globe.

There at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Geo. W. Wedrick, of Toronto, on Sunday, March 5th, 1922, the demise of Mrs. Mary Jane Forrest, relict of the late James Forrest, of Walpole township, in the 78th year of her age. The remains were brought to Hagersville by train on Tuesday and interment was made in the Cheapside Cemetery. The late Mrs. Forrest was well and favorably known here. Mrs. Bagley and Mrs. Forsyth, of Walpole Township are daughters, to whom sincere sympathy is extended.

Hon. D. Carmichael, Minister without portfolio in the Drury Government, has resigned from the Hydro Electric Commission, as a protest against the cost of the Chippewa Power Scheme, which cost he stated about $20,000,000 more than estimated. The Minister, according to press despatches, said he had come to the conclusion that there was either dishonesty or inefficiency displayed in estimating on the cost of the project. It is generally noted that when public works are undertaken that the projectors generally underestimate.

If you have gone over your fishing tackle and have everything in readiness for the opening day, turn to the March issue of 'Rod and Gun in Canada' and heap fuel on the fire kindled by the Red Gods by reading 'Nagomani Beauties' by L. F. Steenman; 'A Speckled Trout Puzzle' by Bonnycastle Dale; and 'Fishing the Cowichan River from a Canoe,' by John P. Babcock. If you are not a fisherman, read any one of the hunting and trapping stories and articles contained in the March issue of Canada's great national sportman's monthly. This number has several especially good nature photographs that are extremely interesting to worshippers at Nature's shrine. 'Rod and Gun in Canada' is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Mr. Telford, of Princeton, spent Sunday visiting old acquaintances in Jarvis. Mr. Telford was formerly associated with the Bank of Hamilton staff here.

The Late George E. Smitherman

All Jarvis was deeply and painfully shocked on Friday morning last when they learned that George Smitherman had passed away, in his seventeenth year, after an illness of only a few days. In less than a week one of the brightest and best boys Jarvis has ever had answered the summons to come up higher. George was the youngest son of Mr. Geo. Smitherman, Pastor of Wesley Methodist Church here, and was a universal favorite with all he came in contact with. Of a bright sunny disposition, always ready to greet you with a smile, it is hard to realize he has gone. Truly the inspired poet wrote: "God moves in a mysterious way." As George had complained of not feeling as well as usual, and a couple of days before he died the family physician, Dr. I. J. Leatherdale, had been called in. He immediately pronounced it a case of appendicitis and decided that an immediate operation was the only hope. Dr. Perry, specialist, of Hamilton, was sent for, and the operation performed. Dr. Perry was assisted by Drs. I. J. Leatherdale and Wm. Jacques, and although they did their utmost, it was of no avail, and early on Friday morning George passed away. The funeral, which took place on Monday afternoon at 2:30, was the most representative one ever witnessed in our town, and was attended by practically everyone. The service was held in the church and conducted by Rev. S. Holden, of Bartonville, a life-long friend of the family, assisted by Rev. A. W. Hare, of Knox Presbyterian, and Rev. G. R. Wreford, of St. Paul's Anglican. After the service interment was made in the cemetery of Wesley Church. The floral offerings were beautiful and numerous, being about twenty-five in number. Among the donor of these remembrances were: The Young People's Guild and the Minister and Session of Knox Presbyterian Church; the Senior and Junior Hockey Clubs; the Continuation Class of Jarvis School; Miss Clara Walters; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newman; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Machell; Dr. J. C. Bell, of Simcoe; Mr. R. C. Gibson, of Hamilton; the Garnet Methodist Congregation; six wreaths and sprays from Mount Pleasant, where Rev. Mr. Smitherman had been pastor; the Congregation of Wesley; the 'Eureka' Class; the Adult Bible Class; the True Blue Class, of which deceased had been a member. Mount Pleasant, which was Rev. Mr. Smitherman's appointment previous to coming to Jarvis, was represented by John Harris, Gordon Longsheet, H. Perring and Jeffrey Gould, chums of the deceased at Mount Pleasant Methodist Church; Hugh McLaughlin and Russell Viggear, of the Presbyterian boys of the same place; while the Anglicans were represented by Mr. A. T. Briggs. George will be greatly missed by bereaved father and devoted sister and brother. We commend them to the tender care of Him who is the Friend of all, and through faith in Him they be able to bow to His will accept the load which bears so very heavily upon them now, for "He was a Man of Sorrows and Acquainted with Grief."

he being the oldest member, forty years on the 3rd of February in the Patriarchal family. Patriarch J. A. Burwash being the next oldest member, made a few remarks on the pleasure it gave him to see the degree work done in such an efficient manner. Several members from Brant Encampment, No. 4, Brantford, Past D. D. G. P. Dawson and several others made short speeches, principally referring to Ridley Encampment standing a good chance of winning the cup for increased membership for the year. Patriarch J. S. Burwash replied to the speeches of the evening by thanking the degree staff for the interest they had taken in Ridley Encampment, Hagersville Subordinate Lodge sent eight members as their quota to the Encampment. There are other lodges in the district that should send members to this Encampment. We were disappointed that the Grand Patriarch W. H. Cross and E. G. M. Mann not putting in an appearance. The "Fourth Degree" came next, and I think it was appreciated by the visitors and new members.

The Community Club staged a mock trial on Feb. 22nd. Johnny Manzie was charged with the theft of Clarence Weidrick's motor car from the Nanticoke church shed on the evening of Feb. 14, 1922. Chester Weidrick acted as judge, Harvey McKenzic was crown prosecutor and Wm. Smith looked after the interests of the accused. The prisoner was able to present sufficient evidence to acquit him of the charge. The debate scheduled for March 1st was postponed and a mixed program presented instead. It consisted of community singing, recitations, the reading of the club paper and a dialogue entitled "Taking the train to Morrow." As our meeting night comes on the same evening that the 'Record' is published our sports are necessarily a week late.

Town Pulpits

Wesley Methodist
On account of the sad and sudden bereavement that came to the Parsonage there were no preaching services held on the Sabbath. Sunday School was held as usual.

Knox Presbyterian
The Minister, Rev. A. W. Hare occupied the pulpit at both services. The title of the sermon in the morning was "The Man Who Fills the Gap," and the speaker gave many examples that should prove very helpful to those who heard him. The evening subject was "The Man Who Acts Like a Grasshopper." Good congregations attended both services.

St. Paul's Anglican
At 11 a. m. the Rev. G. R. Wreford took for his subject, "The Tragedy of the Universe." Those present greatly appreciated the service. In the evening the Rector started his series of sermons on "Men Who Missed The Trail." The first subject handled was "Saul, the King." This series of sermons should prove very interesting and beneficial to all.

Preferment for the Rector of St. Paul's

We are authorized that the Rev. Godfrey Wreford for the past three years Rector of St. Paul's, Jarvis, has been offered by Bishop Stevens of Southern California, and with the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese has accepted the charge of a church on the outskirts of San Diego. It is a city of close upon 80,000 inhabitants and enjoys perhaps the most perfect climate in the world. Its famous harbour is the headquarters of the Pacific Squadron of the U. S. Navy and the city is a great industrial centre as well as a popular tourist resort. The Coronado Beach Hotel with its adjoining 'Tent' city is well known throughout America. San Diego has no less than 63 churches, 30 large Hotels, and possesses a Normal school, High school, and other Educational advantages. We understand that Mr. Wreford has been offered an initial salary of eighteen hundred, dollars.

Good Roads Convention

Owing to lack of space this week an excellent report on the Good Roads Convention held last week in Toronto is held over. It will appear on the editorial page of the next issue. Watch for it.

Varency Women's Institute

The regular meeting of the Varency Women's Institute was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Charles Buck, on Thursday, March 2nd. Attendance 15.

Meeting opened in the usual way, after which a splendid program followed: Instrumental music, "Love by Moonlight," Miss A. Miller.

A paper by Mrs. H. K. Saunders, "The Child—Development of Responsibility by Special Duties Assigned."

Player, Piano Music, "Moonlight on the Hudson," by Mrs. Buck.

A discussion on "House Plants," led by Mrs. T. Brown.

Community Singing, "Roaming in the Gloaming."

Piano Solo, "Moonrise," Miss Helen Miller.

Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

The hostess then served a very dainty lunch.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. R. Hodges, on Thursday, April 6th.

A Successful Meeting

The International Day of Prayer for Missions Union Service was held in the Methodist Church Schoolroom on Friday afternoon, March 3rd. Members of Knox, Garnet and Anglican Auxiliaries joining in the service. There were about seventy-five present. The president of the societies conducted the meeting.

Prayers were offered by several members of each society.

Good thoughts were brought out in the three interesting papers read:

- 1.—Mrs. Hare, on "God's Authority." We consider sin in a light and trivial matter; if we would realize that God is Sovereign, we would find it easier to reverence and serve Him.
- 2.—Mrs. Wreford, "The Greatest Duty Prayer." The Spirit teaches us to pray; it is impossible for us to reach the whole missionary field personally, but in can be reached by our prayers.
- 3.—Mrs. Law, "A Call to Intercession." There is a great need of preachers and teachers, not only in the foreign lands but in our own country among the foreign population.

Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Guiler sang a duet, and solos were rendered by Mrs. Blight and Mrs. Miell; all of which were greatly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Biggers, of Mount Hope, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Walter, Little Margaret Biggers who had been spending the past two weeks with her grandmother returned with her.
