A. G. SMITH THE STAR

Boston Westminster Hockey Win U. S. Championship.

In the first game at Boston on Friday evening last St. Paul held Boston to a tie for the Amateur Hockey Championship of the United States. The full sixty minutes regular time and thirty minutes overtime was played and when the contestants quit for the night no goals had been scored. The same teams met again for the 4th game of the series on Saturday evening. The Star of the evening was Mr. A. G. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Smith of Jarvis. Not only did he play the position at left defence perfectly but scored the first goal of the evening by as brilliant a display of stickhandling as was ever witnessed in the outdoor city. Mr. Smith had one shoulder in bandage, but nevertheless put up one of the best games of his life. But one who so ably displayed the prowess on the battlefield of fame, can be counted upon to give the best that is in him at all times.

We congratulate our former young townsman on the honor that has come to him in the line of sporting supremacy.
It is expected that if the Toronto Granits defeat Regina for the Canadian Championship that a series of games for Amateur championship of the world will be played at Toronto Arena.

An Enjoyable Affair

On Friday evening last a St. Patrick's supper and entertainment was given in the school room of Knox Presbyterian church under the auspices of the choir and it proved to be entirely satisfactory from every point of view. A bonafide supper was spread and ample justice to the good things provided was done by the large number present. After supper a very interesting program was presented and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. The first number on the program was a vocal duet by the Misses Davidson which was exceedingly well rendered and evoked well-merited applause. Mrs. A.
Miller's vocal solo was enthusiastically received; which was followed by a soli-stion by Miss Dorothy Meehan, which number was very much provoking. Mr. and Mrs. Marr next appeared and their playing was much appreciated. Mr. Invin's selections on the accordion were excellent and were repeatedly encored. Mr.
Chas. Davidson made a scatted hit with his reading selection, and the solo by Miss Mary Johnston drew forth well-merited applause. At this point of the proceedings the chairman called upon the editor for a few remarks as he did not want the audience to become too hilarious.
Needless to say the chairman's strategy had the desired result. Mr. Emerson Miller gave a couple of readings and it is needless to state that the masterpieces he presented brought the house down. In this particular line Mr. Miller is a past master. Community singing was indulged in and helped very much to add to the evening's enjoyment. The gathering dispersed shortly after 10 o'clock and all present were unanimous that it had proved a very successful evening's entertainment.

Mr. R. A. McCarter made an excellent speech. We understand that the reason he was given the job was because it would be a slight on the patron saint of the day if there was not one Irishman to the fore.

About $50 was realized by the choir, who contemplate the purchase of surplus for the members. We believe that the surplus choir aids to the dignity and solicitousness of the religious exercises and it is noted that churches of all denominations are adopting this custom.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

J. K. Pond on Friday were Mr. and Mrs.
K. S. Pond, Mrs. J. W. Westbery and Mrs. Thos. Westbery.

The Community Club met on March 15 and there was a large attendance of members and their friends. After the business was transacted an excellent program was rendered. Miss Hedge occupied the chair. Mrs. Fleming gave lecture on "You Can't Get Something for Nothing." A dialogue, "Going to the Dentist," was the next number, followed by G. Wedrich's talk on "Chicago," and L. Secord talked "Electricity." Mrs. Butler contributed a vocal solo.

Selkirk Creamery

The third annual meeting of the patrons of Selkirk Creamery was held in the Town Hall on the afternoon of March 18, with an excellent attendance.

The auditors' report showed that over 292,175 lbs. of butter fat had been handled at the factory. The total value of the butter handled was $138,212.95. The patrons received an average price of 44 cents per pound, which was an exceptional price for the past year.

Prizes to the amount of over $125.00 was distributed by the management to patrons of the egg department.

Mr. J. J. Hoover emphasized the importance of the dairy business, in connection with the raising of hogs and poultry; he also showed the necessity of cleanliness, lots of fresh air for the best results.

Mr. Wm. Aikinson and F. Laidlaw certified to the fair dealing of the management and urged to patrons to make an effort to produce the best and thus assist in placing Ontario in the forefront of dairy industry, and efforts should be made by the country to capture the British market.

Mr. H. A. Schweyer made comparison of prices paid at Selkirk with other reports available showing that the home factory was equal to any.

Mr. Samuel Daley, our enthusiastic Jersey Breeder, gave a short talk advancing the testing of the cows for best results.

E. Nye extolled the merits of the Dual Purpose Short-horns, and Mr. J. O. Hoover, boosted for the Jerseys.

C. S. Gendstead of Hamilton, reported that he had no trouble in selling the produce of the Selkirk factory to the city trade, as the quality was always uniform.

R. F. Miller gave a short talk on the necessity of farmers reading other matter besides articles in farming, as this would cultivate a taste for the works of our best writers and they would thus widen out their capacity to get the best out of life.

Mr. J. S. Botwright, the butter maker and R. H. Green, Govt. Inspector gave interesting talks on the handling of cream to get the best results, laying stress on the necessity of having milk at the right temperature and separator run at correct speed to get cream of the proper consistency, and avoid the trouble arising through the variation of tests.

Mr. S. Galver entertained the audience with an appropriate recitation.

Mr. Armstrong thanked the patrons for the support given in past years and asked a continuance of same, promising to do his part in giving universal satisfaction.
He reported that the patronage had increased by 68 over they ear 1920.

The Novelty Orchestra rendered several selections to the satisfaction of the audience.

A Cheerful Aspect

A Walpole resident of mature years was noticed recently by one of his neighbors to be wearing a bland smile and was asked the reason of his apparent hilarity:
"I am going to be married, John, and I am happy to say that it is with the full consent of all the children of both sides."

A Coming Event

The Jarvis Baseball Club will hold their Annual Dance on Tuesday, April 18th, 1922. Be sure and keep this date clear.

25th, there will be given (D.V.) in Knox church, a historical form, a series of story sermons on the "Great Texts of the World's Great Men." This series will

Oliver Cromwell, Martin Luther, John Knox, William Wilberforce, etc. The series will open with the texts of David Livingstone, Joshua 1:5—"I will not fail thee nor forsake thee." Matthew 28: 19:20—"Go, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

With Our Churches

Wesley Methodist

Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Geo. Smitherman, the services morning and evening were taken by Mr. Siple, who preached two able, interesting and instructive sermons. There was a good attendance at both morning and evening service and those who attended could not help but be benefitted by the words of the speaker. Mr. Siple is one of those preachers that it is a pleasure to hear and one who always has a message to his congregations. He gives his audiences the gospel truth and that only.

St. Paul's Anglican

The Rector, Rev. G. B. Wreford, occupied the pulpit at both morning and evening services. His morning theme was "The Greatest Thing in the World," and was presented to those present in an able and attractive manner. In the evening the subject was "Wanted—Fighting Christian!" being based on the words of the apostle Paul: "Fight the good fight of Faith." He showed that a Christian's life was a prolonged fight against the forces of evil, and deplored the fact that too many Christians of to-day are careless and indifferent and do not put forth effort enough to help the church to empower sin. The speaker showed that the adversaries of a Christian are: 1st The Devil; 2nd, The World; 3rd, The Flesh; 4th, Sin and 5th, False Doctrine. The last of these adversaries was the most dangerous one to the Christian church today and it was shown that much of the difficulty that our churches were in at present was caused by it. But he proved that if we place ourselves in the hands of God our loving Father, we shall come up more than conquerors, through Christ who died for us.

Knox Presbyterian

Excellent congregations attended the services on Sunday last and listened to two able sermons by the minister, Rev.
A. W. Hare. His morning subject was,
"The Sources of True Happiness." The speaker showed that true happiness could not be obtained by following earthly pleasures and that it was only by living a true Christian life that this boon could not be obtained. The Christian path through this life was not strewn with roses and that if we trusted in things that pertain to the world and its many pleasures we would be absolute failures. But when we put our faith and trust in God and follow in the footsteps of our Divine Saviour who went about doing good, that it was then that we came to know what true happiness meant. Christianity was not a gloomy, solemn way of living, and that by placing ourselves and our talents in the hands of a kind God and a loving tender Saviour we would get the very best out of this life and be assured of life everlasting.

In the evening the subject was "Unstable as Water" or "The Man He Might Have Been," from which the Reverend speaker drew many useful lessons for his hearers.

Don't Worry the Editor

Say, friend, when you feel called to unburden your grief, kindly hold it within for a while; I have troubled myself that surpass all belief, yet I always wear a smile. Who wants to hear your discourse on woe? What good will it do if we hark?
Now friend all your sadness I know, is not worth a single remark. It takes all our time to look for the news, and happy words fill both our ears; so seat to your troubles, away with the blues, put in storage your sobs and your tears. When you feel that your sorrows you no longer can hold, when the briny tears water your map; go hunt a policeman, your story unfold—I know that he'll not pare a rap. But do not I pray you, come and fall on my neck, and spill all your tears on my vest; I own all the trouble I want, and by heck, the doctor says I'll soon need a rest.
