Business in all lines is showing decided improvement and we believe that from now on considerable improvement will be made.

An exhibition game of baseball between Hagersville and Jarvis will take place this afternoon on the local diamond. Turn out ye fans and others and cheer the boys to victory.

MacConnell & Hicklin the contractors are now busily engaged on their contract in this vicinity. Motor trucks are busily engaged drawing stone from the Hagersville quarries at this end, while work is being steadily pushed from the Nelles Corners section towards Jarvis. The road when finished will be one of the best in Ontario and will result in bringing more people to Jarvis, both for pleasure and business.

PERSONALS

Mr. J. S. Burwash was a Simcoe visitor yesterday.

Mr. E. A. Todd, of Todd Bros., Hagersville, was a visitor on Friday last.

Mack Steele, Port Dover, spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Helen Steele.

Mrs. Hewson Sharp, of London, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jean W. Sharp.

Mr. J. H. Brown, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Hamilton, paid a visit to Norfolk's county seat yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. King motored from Port Dover Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. King's sister Mrs. H.
H. Steele.

Mrs. Watson, of Port Dover, who had been visiting friends and relatives in Jarvis for some days, returned home on Monday.

Mr. Homer Smithson and two daughters of Brantford, were in town Tuesday. They were the guests of the Oddfellows at their social evening.

Mrs. Roy Steel and son Hilton, spent from Friday until Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Steele.
Mr. Roy Steele of Buffalo joined them on Sunday morning and left for Buffalo Monday morning.

We regret to learn that our esteemed citizen, Mr. Jas Miller, who recently underwent a serious operation, is not recuperating as rapidly as his many friends would like to see. As Mr. Miller is in his 90th year, the chances of a permanent recovery are not as bright as we would desire.

THE NEWS OF 35 YEARS AGO

The following items are taken from "The Jarvis Record" of May 19, 1887:

Ice Cream will soon be ripe.
Waterford will celebrate on the 24th.

Dr. Colman has his flagstaff ready for the 24th.

In the Sun, Aylmer can boast of "a paper what am a paper."

W. D. Derby, jeweller, Dunville, has made an assignment.

C. N. Vars, the dentist, this village, will open an office in Cayuga shortly.

Say, girls, oil the gate hinges, then the old man won't know anything about it.

The Jarvis literary society held their closing meeting for the season last evening.

Mr. Montague, M.P., has been elected an honorary member of the Caledonia baseball club.

The Hagersville football club wants to give our boys a brush. They're kickers in the rural village.

A weary printer struck our office on Tuesday. We healed him, and he left town happy for Simcoe.

A gentleman from Lynedoch drove in town with a load of potatoes on Tuesday. They are only a dollar a bushel now.

Stuart, the photographer, found that his gallery was on the municipal real estate, and had it moved back about 6 inches.

The minutes of the Walpole council were unavailably crowded out this week. They will appear next week, or "bust an entrail."

"A man may chin
And a man may work
For the temperance cause all day;
But he can't go a-fishing And observe prohibition, Because he ain't built that way."

We are pleased to see that our young friend, Ross Howell, has been successful in passing the recent examinations of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. He also passed the primary examination with honors at the Victoria University.

Married—Crawford—Abraham—
At the residence of the bride's father, Jarvis, on Thursday, May 12, 1887, by Rev. John Abraham, Whittby, assisted by Rev. John Wells, Jarvis, Thomas Crawford, to Miss Elizabeth Abraham daughter of Joseph Abraham, Esq.

A number of the residents in the north end of our fair village have taken an important step toward modern civilization, viz., tearing down the fences in front of their residences.
The change has made a decided improvement in the appearance of their dwellings, and we sincerely hope others will follow suit.

What about Arbor Day this year?
The planting of trees by the citizens and a general holiday or doing so will be one of the best investments the town can make.—Hagersville Times, May 14th. The editor of that enterprising journal is rather late in stirring up the citizens of the city of Hagersville to the necessity of an Arbor Day. We always had an idea that Arbor Day was set for the first Friday in May, but then they never do things like ordinary mortals in the Indian village.

An Enjoyable Evening

Highly Entertainment, No. 52 and Jarvis Lodge, I.O.O.F. No. 191 Entertain Their Friends.

On Tuesday evening of this week members of the Oddfellows and friends to the number of about one hundred and twenty-five met to spend a social evening in their beautiful lodge room in the Music Hall block, Jarvis. Chief among the Oddfellows present were G.C.P. Bro. Cross, D.D.
G.P. Bro. Ayers, P.D.D. Bro. Luke and P.D.D. Bro. Ekins, of Hamilton, who motored down to assist the local membership.

At 8 o'clock members and friends commenced to assemble and at 9 o'clock, P.G. Bro. Ivan W. Holmes the chairman, called the gathering to order. The meeting was opened by the singing of The Maple Leaf. G.C.P.
Bro. Cross was the first speaker of the evening and he gave an interesting discourse on the aims and objects of Oddfellowship. Miss Lily Henning assisted in the evening's entertainment by a vocal solo which was ably rendered and heartily applauded. Mr.
Chas. Martin followed with a piano solo.

D.D.G.F. Bro. Ayers was then called upon by the chairman to address the assembly. His address was both instructive and interesting and he showed his hearers what Oddfellow fraternalism was doing for the benefit of humanity.

A piano solo by Miss McMurchy was the next number on the programme, the execution of which was meritously applauded.

The main address of the evening was next. The speaker, P.D.D. Bro.
Luke, spoke for upwards of an hour.
He reviewed the birth, expansion and growth of Oddfellowship on this continent. In February of 'his year the order celebrated the 103rd anniversary of its existence. The first lodge was organized in Baltimore, U.S.A., in February 1819 by five members of a British lodge who had come to America.

The total membership of the Order on the North American continent is now nearly 2,000,000, and there are over 65,000 members in Ontario alone.
In this province the Oddfellows are doing a grand work. In 1920 considerably over $200,000.00 was paid out for the relief of members. The Odd-fellows' Home in Toronto is doing a noble work in looking after members who find themselves unfitted to further continue in their various occupations; for the mother, wives and sisters of deceased members; and last but by no means least, the care of orphan children of members who have passed on, where every care is given these children until they are able to go out in the world to look after themselves. The speaker's address was pregnant with facts and showed these present who were not fully aware of the work being done of what the country to-day owes to Oddfellowism.

We should like to have given a longer treatise of Mr. Luke's address but space will not permit.

A piano duet by the Misses Gladys Stallwood and Johnson followed and they showed their musical talent in a marked degree.

P.D.D. Bro. Ekins was the next speaker, and complimenting that the previous speakers had used up all his ammunition he made a very humorous address which fairly tickled the gathering. Mr. Chas. Martin contributed another instrumental solo at this juncture. The "Record" Editor was at this point called upon and feeling it not only a privilege but a duty responded briefly.

A vocal solo by Miss Norma Stall-wood received well merited applause.
P.D.D.G.F. Bro. J. S. Burwash was called upon for a few remarks and spoke in a very able manner. He on behalf of the members of the Encampment and lodge, thanked the visiting brethren and those who had contributed to the evening's programme.
"God Save the King" was sung and this part of the evening's entertainment was brought to a close. The refreshments were now brought on and a pleasant and profitable half-hour was employed in indulging in the dainties provided. The gathering broke up shortly after twelve and those present departed to their various homes well pleased and satisfied that they had enjoyed one of the best evenings of their lives.

We hope that our Oddfellow friends will in the not too distant future, again decide to entertain their friends in a like manner, as we believe that much good is the result of gatherings of these kinds.

Churches

St. Paul's Anglican
Rev. Arch-Deacon Irving conducted the usual services morning and evening at St. Paul's Church on Sunday last and preached to two representative congregations. Interest in the service is growing and all will be extended a hearty welcome.

Wesley Methodist Mother's Day is always remembered in a practical way. Congregations at the services in Wesley church on Sunday were large, morning and evening in honor of Mothers.

The mothers in the choir were at their best and did their part well adding much to the interest of the services.

Knox Presbyterian
An exceptionally fine congregation greeted minister and choir on the occasion of Mother's Day last Sunday.
The Mother's choir under the capable leadership of Miss MacMurchy rendered two splendid anthems at both the morning and evening service, the closing response giving a most appropriate touch to the services. The minister took his morning subject from that beautiful chapter in the closing of Proverbs which so aptly describes the true mother. The text was, "Her children arise up and call her blessed." The speaker quoted many examples from the Old and New Testaments of faithful mothers, who so lived in such beauty of character before their children that they could not help but impress them with the joy and peace of the Christ life. He showed that a mother may train up her children for a successful life in this world, but that she woefully failed if she did not impress upon the mind of the child the great importance of the life hereafter. The true mother is the one whose children can rise up and call her blessed.

Continuing his series in the evening on the great texts of the world's great men, the speaker showed that the text which impressed itself indelibly upon the mind of John Wesley was that in Mark's gospel, where Christ was conversing with a certain scribe and said to him "Thou art not far from the kingdom of God." John Wesley opened his Bible haphazardly one morning and the above text seemed to leap upon him. John Wesley was blessed with one of the most remarkable mothers England ever produced and also she had nineteen children she found time to train each child for Christ. One strong influence in the life of John Wesley was his conversation in America with a Monavian minister, August Spangenberg.
He made Wesley see the necessity of a personal Christ for a personal salvation. Wesley labored for over fifty-three years preaching often a thousand times a year. Perhaps no other man ever did such work for the regeneration of England as did Wesley.
His closing words were: "I the chief of sinners am, but Jesus died for me."

Varency
The annual meeting of the Varency Women's Institute was held at the

She sat upon the sofa, he sat upon a chair,
They were chatting merrily, I thought them a jolly pair.

I like to hear the young folks laugh and have a merry joke, For we are a jolly lot in the town of Nanticoke.

She said the roads are good, I had a good car ride,
And she named a lady friend sitting by her side, I saw him give a smile, I saw that he was game,
You was not alone, I had one just the same.

I saw she would hit back, she was getting bolder, There's a difference in the car, for yours is a sport halter.
