Mr. Geo. L. Miller, our popular reeve, was a visitor to Toronto on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vail, of Smithville, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Parsons, of St. Thomas, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parsons.

Mr. H. Edwards, of Fisherville, was a week-end visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards, of Kenton.

Mrs. Letitia Downey, of Lindsay, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. D. Hulif. She expects to remain for some considerable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belbeck returned home on Monday after a two weeks' visit with relatives in Brantford, Stratford, London and St. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Downey and three children, of Toronto, motored to Jarvis on Sunday, and spent a couple of days with the former's nieces, the Misses Hulif.

Mr. Andrew Rodgers, who some weeks ago had the misfortune to sustain a broken leg through a fall, is able to get around again and look after his shoe repairing business.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Mary Smitherman, who is in the general hospital at Hamilton, is recovering rapidly, and expects to return to Jarvis the latter part of this week.

GOES TO ELORA

The Rev. H. W. A. Brand, of York, has been chosen to succeed the Rev. Canon Nafel as Rector at Elora. He will conduct farewell services at York on Sunday, and expects to take charge of his new parish on Dec. 1st.

Have your suits dry cleaned and pressed at the Aylmer Steam Laundry. W. H. Fradley, agent, Jarvis.

Wesley Church Notes

Wesley Church services on Sunday last were in the interests of the Department of Evangelism and Social Service. Rev. Mr. Hiscok and Rev. Mr. Moyer were the preachers for the day. Liberal contributions were given at each service.

Howard's Drug Store, Hagersville, has on display full lines of Xmas novelties. It will be to your advantage to inspect these goods and note prices before making your holiday purchases.

Errata

In the write-up of the presentation made to Rev. A. J. Mrs. A. W. Hare last week the inevitable error crept in. In the names of those signing the address the name Wm. Thompson was used. This should have read Wm. Simpson. We regret the transmission.

Correspondents, Attention!

Every week we receive news from our local representatives too late for publication in the current issue. All copy of this description should be in our office not later than Tuesday p.m. We appreciate your valued assistance but try and get your budget in on time please.

A very complete stock of Xmas goods is now on display in Howard's Drug Store, Hagersville. The latest novelties are carried in stock and the prices are lower than in years. Shop early and shop in comfort.

Friday Night's Entertainment

To-morrow evening the Choir of Knox Church will present for the approval of our people one of the best balanced programs ever assembled. Jessie Alexander will recite, Victoria Stares and The Jarvis Male Quartette will sing, and other talent will assist. Turn out and encourage the choir.

Family washing twelve cents a pound. All flat pieces ironed and wearing apparel rough dry at the Aylmer Steam Laundry. W. H. Fradley, agent, Jarvis.

Bazaar and Supper

The Ladies' Aid of Wesley Methodist Church will hold a bazaar and supper in the Schoolroom of the Church on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, Dec. 7th. An excellent supper will be provided and the articles purchasable will be both useful and valuable. Turn out and help to make this event successful.

Nanticoke Bazaar and Supper

The Ladies of Christ Church Nanticoke are holding their Bazaar and Supper in the Town Hall, Nanticoke, on the afternoon and evening of Friday, Dec. 8th. They invite all their friends in this district to come out and help them. There will be lots to buy and plenty to eat. Lunch will be served from 3 to 5 for which a charge of 15c is made and they are giving one of their famous suppers for the small sum of 25c. Everybody is invited.

Remember that on Saturday of this week the Great Annual 1-Cent Sale at Howard's Drug Store, Hagersville, will close. Now is the chance for the people of Jarvis and district to benefit by this great yearly event.

EXTRAORDINARY EXHIBIT

The public are invited to inspect a fibrous tumor on display at Mrs. Jane Hoover's. This tumor was removed from John Butler, of Simcoe, without drugs or knife, but by chiropractic adjustments only given by Dr. Lily Jackson, after two unsuccessful surgical operations. This is one of the many such proofs of Dr. Jackson's superior results on tumors, cancers, goitres, adenoids, tonsils, etc. Dr. Jackson is at Mrs. Jane Hoover's every Monday and Thursday from 8 to 10.30 a.m.

St. Paul's Bazaar and Supper

The Annual Bazaar and Supper of St. Paul's Anglican Church will be held under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary on the afternoon and evening of Friday, December 1st, commencing at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Jarvis Music Hall, Talbot Street. Free admission. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 p.m., for which the charge will be 35c a plate. The usual booths will be fitted up and among the many useful articles presented for sale will be those that would make appropriate Christmas presents. Keep this date clear and be sure and turn out and help the ladies to make this year's effort the best ever held.

No matter how badly your suit is soiled we can clean it to look like new. Aylmer Steam Laundry. W. H. Fradley, agent, Jarvis.

The Bell Ringers Are Coming

The Musical Eckardts, bell ringers and variety entertainers, who are billed to play in the Jarvis Music Hall, on Monday evening, November 27th, have been before the public for over a quarter of a century. In that time they have visited nearly every town and village in Canada and the Northern States. T. Eckardt, daddy of the organization, is still personally in charge of the company, and takes an active part in the performance.

Since their last appearance in Jarvis, two years ago, the Eckardts have engaged some new performers, who will be seen with the company here in an entire change of program.

No order to our cleaning of suits at the Aylmer Steam Laundry. W. H. Fradley, agent, Jarvis.

St. Paul's Church Notes

Next Sunday a pastoral letter from the Primate of Canada, Archbishop Mathison of Rupert's Land, is to be read from all Anglican pulpits. It advocates hearty adherence to the principles and objects of the League and commends it to the loyal and energetic support of all members of the church. The Pastoral is accompanied by a copy of the address delivered by Sir Herbert Ames, at the first annual meeting of the League of Nations Society in Canada at Ottawa, on June 12th, 1922.

The sermons on Sunday last were on the subjects previously announced; and those on Sunday next will be chiefly concerned with the Primate's letter. Appropriately enough the following Sunday will be Advent Sunday. The great theme of that season is "Thy Kingdom Come."

The Annual 1-Cent Sale at Howard's Drug Store, Hagersville, is on now and will close on Saturday of this week. This is a wonderful opportunity given once a year to the people of this district.
