Besides the usual exhibits, etc., adjacent to an event of this description horse racing is added. $150.00 is offered in prizes for the different events. The fair will be held on Oct. 12 and 13, and there will be two races on the first day and three on the last day of the fair.

DISASTROUS BUSH FIRES
North Bay, Oct. 5.—The fear that upwards of 30 lives have been lost in the fire which is sweeping Northern Ontario is expressed in the latest reports available from the affected area early this morning. Soon after midnight George W. Lee, chairman of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway, issued the following statement concerning the fire now raging in the North Country:
"Over 5,000 people have been rendered homeless. The loss of life is considerable and is mounting. Further than that we are unprepared to say. The towns of Haileybury, 3500; North Cobalt, 1,000; Charlton, 1,500, and Heald, 250, are totally destroyed and the town of Englehart has been partially destroyed. That part of New Liskeard, west of the T. N. O. tracks, has been totally destroyed.

The situation at Cobalt is clear. There is a small fire burning one mile away, with a mild southwest wind blowing. Everything seems safe for the night.
Three trains with 24 cars, containing 1,400 refugees, have left Cobalt for North Bay. Other trains are being prepared as rapidly as possible. "The property loss will obviously run into millions of dollars. The fire is still burning briskly, fanned by a subsiding wind.
"There is no prospect of rain and the fire will have to burn itself out. "The T. N. O. tracks fronting the stations at Haileybury, North Cobalt and Heald were destroyed, the ties burned and the rails wrapped. It is impossible to maintain traffic.
"This is the hardest blow the North Country has ever received."

An Unsolicited Compliment
The Editor is constantly receiving letters of commendation from subscribers of the "Record," and more especially from those who have removed from the scenes of their childhood, but who keep in touch with the old home town through the personal of the columns of the local paper. The present management has endeavored to improve the "Record," and has been successful to a certain degree, but has not yet been enabled to present to the readers as good a paper as he would wish. The other week we received the following letter from an old Walpole boy, who has gone out into the world and made a name for himself, and which we append to this article. Ex-Controller J. O. McCarthy, of Toronto, needs no introduction to our readers. The following is his letter:
Toronto, Ont., Sept. 21, '22.
The Editor,
"The Jarvis Record,"
Jarvis, Ontario.

Dear Sir:—
"The Jarvis Record" is a credit to you and to the Village of Jarvis, and you are to be congratulated on your effort to publish a high-class and useful paper. I am fairly well acquainted with weekly local papers throughout Canada, and "The Record" in the last few months has not been second to the best of them. As an old Walpole and Jarvis boy I look for "The Record" each week, and find that although thirty years have passed, I still have as keen an interest as ever in the old localities, and in the many families whose names appear from time to time in your paper.
With best wishes for your continued success, I am,
Faithfully yours,
J. O. MCCARTHY.

Fire Untrammelled

Surge after surge, the fire roared onward red as blood,
Till half the city lay engulfed beneath the eddy flood;
For miles away, the fiery spray poured down its deadly rain,
And back and forth the billows passed and broke again.
From square to square, with leaps, still on and on it came;
The air to leeward trembled with the panting of the flame,
And church and palace, which even now stood whelmed but to the knee,
Lift their black roofs like breakers lone amid the rushing sea.

Churches

Knox Church Notes

Special Young People's Rally Sunday at 7 p.m. A men's choir.
Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, Sunday, Oct. 15th, at 11 a.m.
Preparatory Service, Friday, October 13th at 8 p.m., conducted by Rev. Geo. Smitherman.

St. Paul's Church Notes

The Harvest Services were well attended on Friday, Sept. 29th. Rev. C. E. Riley preached an excellent sermon from the text:—"Whosoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." He illustrated his point by telling a story of a heathen slave whose master ordered him to sow wheat. The slave substituted oats for the seed given him to sow. When the master took him to task, the slave referred him to his own life and asked him what sort of crop he expected to reap from the kind of life he was living, which was anything but what is ought to be.

The Ladies Aid

We've put a fine addition to the good old church at home,
It's just the latest fitter, with a gallery and dome,
It seats a thousand people, finest church in the town.
And when 'twas dedicated, why we planked ten thousand down;
That is, we paid five thousand, every deacon did his best,
And the Ladies' Aid Society, it promised all the rest.
We've got an organ in the church, the finest in the land,
It's got a thousand pipes or more, it's melody is grand,
And when we sit on cushioned pews, and hear the master play,
It carries to realms of bliss, unnumbered miles away.
It cost a cool three thousand, and it's stood the hardest test;
We'll pay a thousand on it, the Ladies Aid the rest.
Of course, we're proud of our big church from pinhead to spire,
It's the darling of our eyes, the crown of our desire;
But when I see the sisters work to raise the cash that lacks,
Somehow I feel the church is built on sweat, for seven years or more,
And then they'll start all o'er again, for a carpet for the floor.
So it isn't just like digging out the money from your vest
When the Ladies' Aid gets busy and says: "We'll pay the rest."
They'll give a hundred sociables, cantatas, too, and teas;
They'll bake a thousand angel cakes, and tons of cream they'll freeze.
They'll beg and scarp, and toil and women's tired backs,
And sometimes I can't help thinking when we reach the regions blest,
The men will get the toll and sweat, and the Ladies' Aid the rest.

A Successful Exhibition

This Year's Fair was a Fairly Successful One—Exhibits Increased 100 Per Cent—Attendance Falls Short of Official Expectations
The 1922 Jarvis Fair is past and is now a matter of history. Taken as a whole this year's effort was very successful. The entries showed an increase of over 100 per cent, and the exhibits in all branches were never before equalled in the history of the local fair. The showing made in the ground floor of the local arena was magnificent and brought forth words of commendation and exclamations of delight from all. It is to be regretted that the attendance records did not keep pace with the other departments. The concert in the evening was listened to by a large and appreciative audience.
One of the most interesting and entertaining features of the day was the parade of the different schools in this district, for the prizes offered. The following is the placing by the judges:—1st, S. S. No. 21, 2nd, S. S. No. 17, 3rd, S. S. No. 6, 4th, S. S. No. 11, 5th, S. S. No. 10, Room 2, 6th, S. S. No. 10, Room 1, 7th, S. S. No. 5. The parade was led by the 1st Rifles Regimental Band of Simcoe, whose music during the afternoon was greatly appreciated.
An interesting feature of the day's proceedings was the Girls' Soft Ball Tournament and resulted in the Town Line "Blazers" winning 1st place, with Varenay "Hustlers" and Black Creek "Braves" coming 2nd and 3rd.
The Secretary, Mr. G. L. Miller, to whom great credit is due for the success attained this year, is desirous that all having accounts against the "Fair" will place them in his hands at once, so that the year's business can be wound up.
The complete list of prize winners for both the main show and the school children's section are in our hands and will appear in our next issue.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear friend, Ernest Rupert Lethgou, who departed life October 6th, 1921.
A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Gone, dear Ernest, how we miss thee,
Lonely are our hearts to-day;
For the one who loved and cheered us,
Has forever passed away.
We gladly would have kept thee here,
Our hearts a little while to cheer;
But Jesus thought it would be best,
To call thee suddenly home to rest.
Sadly missed by loving friends.

THE MISSES SIMON.

Knox Bazaar and Supper

Tea will be served from 5 to 6. Admission to bazaar free. Supper 25c.

BOBBED HAIR—GOOD-BYE

A year ago our Mable chose
To amputate her tresses,
And to the dressmaker she goes
To shorten up her dresses
For fashion's laws must be obeyed
By every enterprising maid!

At first our Mable walked abroad
In fear and trepidation,
Her parents felt unkindly toward
This double mutilation,
But still she went her own sweet way
And grew more brazen every day.

And soon she shook her pretty head
With boldness and defiance,
"A woman might as well be dead
As fall in self-reliance,
I don't care whether people stare
My dress is my own affair."

Now Mable's sad and filled with woe
For fashion's now demanding
That hair and skirts be long to show
A dignity commanding,
She cries, "I haven't got the power
To grow long hair in half an hour."

But Mable soon will dry her tears:
With puffs and curls and twists
She'll cover head and neck and care
With beauty that bewitches,
For fashion's laws must be obeyed
By every self-respecting maid!

No order to our cleaning of suits at the Aylmer Steam Laundry. W. H. Fradley, agent, Jarvis.
