The West Haldimand "agricultural and arts" association held its fall show in Hagersville on Thursday and Friday last. The attendance (of Indians, squaws, and bad whiskey) was very large, and the "arts" part of the show was fully and freely participated in. Many of the redskins, as well as the fairer race, indulged freely in the art of banging each other on the nose, besmearing one another with gore, and otherwise disfiguring themselves; which rendered the afternoon of the second day a very interesting one. The people in this section are well rid of such a brawling lawless gang as congregated in this village just north of us. "Haldimand's young and conquering hero."

St. Paul's Church Notes

Confirmation Class on Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., in the Sunday School Room.
Sunday, 15th. Children's Day. Sermons at morning and evening services appropriate to the occasion. Offerings go to the annual appeal on behalf of the G. B. R. E.

It was King David's ambition to build a magnificent place of worship. He was not allowed to do so because of his continuous engagement in warfare. Disappointed in this, he turned his energies in the direction of making preparations for the building of the Temple by son and successor, Solomon, a man of peace. This is not always our way of getting over our disappointments. But it is nevertheless a very wise plan for all of us. If we happen to be tarred down in any one particular direction, we need not permit our energies to flag. Let us turn to the next best thing to do and go to it with all our might. That is one prescription for always feeling good. This was the main thought expressed in the morning sermon, based on Chronicles xxix: 1-5.

The evening sermon was on the new birth, as a qualification for citizenship in the Kingdom of God. Whatever divergent views Christians may hold with regard to the efficacy of baptism or the doctrine of baptismal regeneration, all will probably agree that Christianity in its completeness involves our participation in newness of conviction, of principles, of feelings, of life itself. We "put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness." (Ephesians iv; 22-24).

NANTICOKE

Our local mail carrier, Mr. T. Butcher, still continues to give us an excellent delivery service. Between carrying the mails, making delivery collections and writing poetry he is kept pretty busy, but he evidently enjoys it all and finds life worth living.

Mr. Wilfid Evans, of Hickory Beach had a very successful sale on Saturday of last week. Although the weather was unpleasant and rain fell intermittently during the afternoon there was a good crowd present and first-class prices were realized.

A rare treat is in store for the people of this district. On Thanksgiving night, November 6th, Ben Hokea with his company of five will give one of their famous Hawaiian concerts in Nanticoke. There will be violin, saxophone and ukelele solos, as well as "Hawaiian" songs and dances. Keep this date open. Further particulars given next week.

If the United Lines, Ltd., could only be induced to have one of their bus lines run through our village it would prove to be a great convenience to our people.

Mrs. Williams and children have arrived here from Haileybury, Northern Ontario. Mr. Williams has remained behind to try and get some trace of their missing son. We hope and trust that the missing one may be safely returned to his anxious parents who lost home and all their belongings in the recent conflagration which sweep over the Northern part of our province, and and took as its toll over forty lives and destroyed upwards of about ten Million dollars' worth of property.

Mrs. Williams passed through many difficulties and dangers and has many heart touching experiences to relate.

The 34th annual convention of the Women's Missionary Society of Simcoe District, will be held in the Hagersville Methodist Church on Friday of this week.

The Late Mrs. Robt. Miller.

One by one the old landmarks are being removed. This week it is our sad duty to chronicle the passing of Elmira Wood, beloved wife of Mr. Robt. Miller, of this village, who departed this life on Saturday of last week after an illness of just one week. Mrs. Miller suffered a paralytic stroke just for seven days previous to her demise, and although she received every possible attention and best of medical treatment she failed to rally and passed away early Saturday morning. She was born in Walpole township, not five miles from this place over seventy years ago and resided there continuously until about fifteen years ago when the family retired from the farm and moved to Jarvis. A sorrowing and bereaved husband is left alone to mourn the loss of his life's partner. There were three children they being Nancy, who predeceased her Mother some twenty-five years ago; Mrs. Wm. Lee, of Malton; and Mr. Robt. A. Miller, of Nanticoke. One sister, Mrs. M. J. Henning and one brother, Mr. Wesley Wood, of Brantford, survive. The funeral took place at 3.30 o'clock sharp on Monday afternoon. After a very impressive service at the house interment was made in Knox Church Cemetery.

Some Runner

The motorist enroute from Hagersville to Jarvis stopped his car to pick up a citizen of the former town. "Well, well," he exclaimed, "So you were going to walk to Jarvis in your bare feet? you are a pretty big fellow to be going barefoot."
"Yep, I'm 20 yrs. old," replied the pedestrian. "I wore shoes off and on for a year or so, but the devils made me so clumsy that I couldn't run down a Jackrabbit to save my life and I quit wearing them."
