NANTICOKE

The Nanticoke Women's Institute met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold Evans.

The meeting was opened in the usual manner. It was decided to donate $10 to the Muskoka Tuberculosis hospital, also to hold the January meeting in the hall and have a ten-cent tea.

Reports of the convention held at Toronto were given by delegates, Miss Mabel Thompson and Mrs. Mars. A splendid hale was also packed and sent to the needy. After a dainty luncheon, served by the hostess, the meeting was brought to a close.

Christ Church Sunday school intend holding their annual Christmas entertainment on Christmas Eve. A splendid program is being prepared.

ROCKFORD

The young people are busy practicing for our Christmas tree which will be held on Christmas eve.

While little Lillian Kenney was leading a horse out to water it suddenly jumped and kicked her in the forehead. She was knocked down and was unconscious for several hours, but medical aid was summoned and the little patient is recovering nicely.

Born, on Monday, December 10, to Mr. and Mrs. David Phillips, a daughter.

In Memorium

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER
MRS. RICHARD ROBERTS

There's a beautiful home, by the side of His road,

Where Angels in glory pass by.
It's more of a refuge than a place of abode,

It shelters so many on high.

'Tis a wonderful place, that never can fall,

No matter the workings of Fate,
It's a beautiful home, you see after all

And belongs to our Master's estate.

Just imagine a moment, how grand it will be,

To meet our dear one gone before,
Who are waiting up there, for you and for me,

On the brink of Eternity's Shore.

Every day of the week, every month in the year,

There are thousands answering
His call

And He waits at the door, with a smile and a cheer,
Extending a welcome to all.

And mother was one, who bowed to
His call

And left her dear ones behind,
And went to her Saviour, who freed her from all

The troubles that worried her mind.

She went to explore, the treasures
above,

Which He has reserved for us all,
In that beautiful home that's built of
His love,

On the Rock that never can fall.

Our Saviour is ready, our freedom to pay

From Satan our bondage to free,
Then give up your "bubbles" and traverse
His way,
And see how contented you'll be.

On behalf of the Family,
