Rev. R. T. Cockburn, of Hamilton, will preach in Knox Church next Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tiel, Miss Bertha Tiel and Mr. O. Tiel, of Springvale, were visitors to Jarvis on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McCarter entertained a number of friends to a very pleasant evening during the latter part of last week.

Dr. Colman, V. S., enjoyed an afternoon's hunting on Tuesday of this week. He was successful in bagging a number of "cotton tails."

Professor Sissons of Victoria College, Toronto, will preach in Wesley Methodist Church on Sunday morning. The Pastor will preach in the evening.

We draw our readers attention to the grocery bargains being offered the public by Allen & Leatherdale. It will pay you to read their advert on this page.

Mr. John Ivey was in Toronto recently where he visited with his relatives and friends. While there he had the pleasure of hearing the Mendelssohn Choir.

On Monday evening the local juniors and the Stage Road, team will clash in a game at the local Arena. Come out and see the boys play. Game to start at 7:30 sharp.

The Knox Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. R. A. McCarter on Wednesday afternoon February the 28th at 2:30 o'clock.

As a rule man's a fool,
When it's hot he wants it cool;
When it's cool he wants it hot,
Always wanting what it's not;
As a rule man's a fool.

The old reliable firm of Miller Bros. are offering some special bargains in Dry Goods. Read their advert on page 8 of this issue, then call and see their offerings for yourself.

The Boston Dramatic Club presented 'The Old New Hampshire Home' to a representative house in Jarvis Music Hall on Tuesday evening. To specify any particular players would be doing an injustice to others, as all acquitted themselves very creditably.

The Mission Band of the Wesley Methodist Church held a social evening on Tuesday of this week in the school room of the church. There was a good attendance present to enjoy the excellent program that was presented, at the close of which refreshments were served.

The Young People of the Wesley Methodist Church contemplate presenting for the approval of our people, in the near future, a play. The members who are to take part are now busily engaged in learning their parts and preparing for the inevitable rehearsals. We understand that the play will be staged in the local music hall in about four weeks' time.

An interesting hockey match was played between Dunnville and Jarvis in the local Arena, on Monday evening last which resulted in a tie score of 12-12. In the ten minutes overtime Jarvis managed to win out by a score of 14-13. Return game will be played in Dunnville on Monday next. The Jarvis team will present their strongest line up and expect to win again.

It is to be regretted that owing to the illness of several of the performers, the play entitled, 'The Village Lawyer,' being staged by the Young People of Port Dover Methodist Church, has had to be withdrawn for Friday evening of this week. It is expected that this talented aggregation of artists will be with us in the near future. Watch your columns for date and full particulars.

Mr. Newton L. Somers, of Toronto, started last week on a trip around the world, representing twenty-one Canadian manufacturers, his mission being to introduce goods in export to foreign countries. He sailed from Vancouver February 21st on the Empress of Asia for Japan and his schedule includes China, India, New Zealand, Australia, South Africa and the British Isles. Mr. Somers is a nephew of Messrs. R. A. and C. S. McCarter.

The Jarvis Brass Band furnished the music for the skaters at the local Arena last night (Wednesday). While the "boys" had no practice together for months about 10 of the old members were present. The attendance of skaters was good and the music much appreciated. The Arena management have engaged the musicians for Wednesday evening, Feb. 28th. Admission for the band evenings is adults 25c; children 10c.

Jarvis W. I. Meets
The regular Monthly meeting of the Jarvis Branch of the Women's Institute was held on Wednesday, February 14th, at the home of Mrs. A. S. Blight. Meeting opened with singing the ode after which all present repeated the Lord's Prayer in unison. Owing to the absence of the Secretary through sickness it moved by Mrs. McCarter, seconded by Mrs. McNeil, that Mrs. Owen be appointed secretary pro tem. The minutes of previous meeting were read and declared approved. After this followed the reading of business letters. It was decided to write to Mr. Putnam, of the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, with regard to getting a lady to conduct a sewing class in Jarvis. It was moved by Mrs. Owen, seconded by Mrs. McCarter, that we ask for a speaker to be sent for the summer meeting. The roll was then called to order.

The viceregent staid of the weather all enjoyed a splendid time and the program presented was much appreciated. A paper by Mrs. Simpson, entitled "House and Home," was followed by one entitled "Courtesies" by Miss McNeil. Mrs. Fred Newman also gave a paper on "St. Valentine's Day," which proved very interesting. The community song sheet was here brought into use, and "Way Down upon the Swance River" and "The Maple Leaf Forever" given. Miss Mabel Blight gave an instrumental entitled "Cradle Time" very acceptable, and Mrs. McNeil contributed a solo entitled "Somebody's Waiting for me." Meeting was brought to a close by singing the "National Anthem." A dainty lunch was then partaken off. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Newman.
