This staff arranged the Saar miners strike which has been carried on for the last fortnight by 65,000 workers. It also arranged the Lorraine coal strike, which involves 12,-000 miners. Now it is agitating for a general strike of Ruhr miners against Germany and France alike Edo Fimmen, secretary of the Amsterdam International crowds in unoccupied Germany to ear him talk of international soli darity. The more moderate Socialists have been forced to reply to Finmen's recent speech in Berlin in their official organ, Vorwaerts. This paper declares it is no time to talk of international solidarity of workers when an enemy is in the land.

As a result, the Independent Socialists, who joined the Moderate Socialists last year now accuse Vorwaerts of taking the same fatal tone the Socialists took before the war. The Independents say a united stand of all Socialists could have prevented the war.

As a result, a new Socialist split threatens, and if it comes, it will break the national unity which the Guno Government and the Industrialists have been doing their best to maintain. It is equally difficult to keep the Nationalists calm while the French try to break passive resistance in the Ruhr by arrests and court-martial. The Imperial Land Alliance, which represents the usually silent country folk, opened its convention at Frankfurt Saturday with the biggest attendance it ever mustered. It was at once turned into a violently monarchistic motion at which there was a loud call for another Bismarck. This strengthening of monarchist feeling and the dispute between So-

MYSTERY HAS BEEN SOLVED

Notorious Jewel Robbery Was Committed In New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.-Matthew Biddolph, the man of many aliases who was arrested at Albany Friday, has confessed that he participated in the robbery of $500,000 worth of jewels from the person of Mrs. frene Schoellkopf, of Buffalo, last New Year's Eve, John D. Coughlin, acting inspector in command of the detective division, declared Saturday, Chiefs of the detective divison declared that two more arrests may be expected at any time.

Frank Barrett Carman, the actorwho was host at the party just off Flith avenue, after which Mrs. Schoellkopf was waylaid and robbed, identified Biddolph Sunday as the man Marshall, who had insinuated himself into the party as the welcomed donor of a bottle of

The police believe the arrest of Biddolph may lead to a solution of the their of $767,000 in jewels and furs from Mrs. Charlotte King Palmer, in November, 1920, and other robberies of wealthy women by a band of social pirates, who linked blackmail with their thefts to enforce secrecy on their victims.

Taken to New York. ALBANY, Feb. 19 .- John F. Derwas taken to New York Saturday by detectives of that city, who allege he was the leader of the band of robbers who stole $500,000 worth of jewels from Mrs. Irene Schoellkopf, of Buffalo, on New Year's eve,
