CONSERVATIVES SCORE DRURY'S GOVERNMENT

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson Fails to Attend Dunnville Meeting; Toronto Men Take His Place.

The record of the U. F. O. government during the four years it has been in power in the province was scored by speakers at the Conservative meeting held Monday afternoon in Dunnville.

There was much disappointment because Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Conservative leader, did not appear as advertised to do. It was explained there had been a mix up in the dates arranged for Mr. Ferguson, that he had been scheduled to go to both Georgetown and Dunnville. He went to Georgetown because it is in the premier's riding.

Mr. Ferguson's place was taken by Hon. George Henry, Minister of Agriculture in the Hearst government, and Capt. Joseph Thompson provincial member for Northeast Toronto.

Dr. W. Jaques, of Jarvis, was chairman of the meeting and other speakers were F. R. Lalor, ex-M. P., Mark C. Senn, M. P., and Dr. P. N. Berry, the candidate.

"It was difficult during the first session or two for the new government to do credit to itself because of the inexperience of the members. The other parties gave it every assistance but afterwards we felt free to turn ourselves into constructive critics.

"The new administeration did a great deal of talking, when it first seated itself in the saddle, about the failure of the old parties and about the end of the party system of government. Three weeks from to-day we are going to the people to find out what they think of the new system.

Many Commissions

During the last three years 25 odd commissions have been appointed, some of minor importance and others of much importance. The government departments failed to take the responsibility. It was reported that an engineer in an eastern county was intoxicated while on duty. A King's council was appointed to find out if the report was correct and the man exonerated. Surely that is a commission that should have been carried out by officials of the department concerned. The Gregory Hydro commission cost the province $230,000 up to a month or two ago. The Radial commission with the Hydro commission spent more than half a million dollars. The Timber commission cost $170,000 and not one item of its recommendations have been acted on. The government evidently was not satisfied with its findings because it employed a forestry student, Canadian born, but who studied in the United States, and he said the commission's recommendations were all wrong. His recommendations have been pidgeonholed and we are going on administering the affairs of the forests as has been done for the last several years.

"In1919 we had in the department of lands and forests a deputy minister Elmer Grigg, a man of the north country who understood the problems of Northern Ontario,' Mr. Henry said in explaining the Chevlin-Clark deal. He suggested an expert in brush burning. An area of 18 or 20 square miles without tender. The price was $9 per thousand for sound timber and $2 or $2.50 for brush burning. The present government contended the amount was not sufficient for the timber and refused to grant the annual permits which had been granted as a matter of course for years. Finally an arbitration was agreed upon and an award for $10 more was brought in but $9 was the basis at which previous tenders had been sold and warrants have since been sold by tender for $9 and $10 showing conclusively that the award was not well based.

The Backus Deal

Before the war E. H. Backus, a United States millioniare timber operator, obtained a timber limit under an agreement to ereet a pulp mill at Kenora.

"Then the war came on and he was not urged to carry out his bargain When the war was ended he was notified that he must construct the mill or the warrant would be cancelled. Then the present administeration came into power. Backus told it that the amount of timber was not sufficient to supply all the mill required and fresh negotiations were proposed. He also negotiated for all the water power and an agreement was entered into by which he gained control of the White Dog rapids and the government afterwards put up for tender 3,000 square miles with the stipulation that it must be worked into pulp and paper in Ontario. But it had previously granted control of all the water power to Backus and the tenders were made returnable in five weeks. Four tenders were received and not one of them fixing a price per cord for pulp wood and per thousand for lumber. They were lump sum bids given a government that did not know how much timber there was on the land. Backus bid $50,100 and it has since been proven in the Toronto Telegram libel suit that the other three tenders were put in by associates of Mr. Backus as camouflage to give it the appearance of competition. All the bids were made out in one room in a New York hotel.

"The present prime minister has utterly failed. In fact he has retarded our development, holding us

LIBERAL IN FIELD NOW

R. S. Colter, Cayuga Lawyer Enters List Against Berry and Stringer In Haldimand Election; Executive Announces Choice this Week.

Owing to the strong sentiment among the Liberals throughout Haldimand County in favor of placing a candidate in the field, R. S. Colter, Barrister, of Cayuga, has decided to contest this constituency in the interests of the Liberal party. Mr. Colter is the son of Judge C. W. Colter, of St. Thomas, who is well known through his several contests in Haldimand, as the Liberal candidate opposing the late Dr. Montague. This makes a three-cornered fight in this being Dr. Berry, of Caledonia, and the U. F. O. candidate, Mr. Warren Stringer, who represented the riding in the last Legislature.

JARVIS WINS FIRST GAME

Piles up Big Score Against Black Creek; Smitherman in Box Makes Going Difficult for Visitors in Initial Event.

Jarvis, playing Black Creek, Saturday night, won its intial game of the Union baseball league.

Smitherman, pitching for the locals, deserves much of the credit, although all the boys were on their toes. They were able to hammer two pitchers out of the box and gave the third twirler an interesting demonstration of clouting. Two and three baggers were mixed in though the Jarvis boys didn t really need them

The water system demonstration truck was on view in Jarvis on Wednesday of this week. One of the demonstrators declared that one big drawback to farm life was the lack of a modern bathroom, and pointed out that a shower bath would add considerably to the efficiency of the farmer, his sons and daughters.

"Coming in from a hot day's work can be made a profitable pleasure when one can have a nice cool shower bath. Such a method of bathing was and is benificial to one's health," he said.

ARRANGE TO TALK HYDRO

Rereesentative of Commission is Expected Here Next Week to Discuss Details of Transmission of Power To Village.

A representative of the Provincial Hydro Electric Commission is expected to come here next week to discuss the details of supplying Jarvis with Hydro current.

A week ago the members of the council learned it was possible to obtain Hydro here, Reeve Miller wrote the commission asking that a representative be sent at once. He received a reply that it would be impossible for a man to come here before next week and that the exact date would be fixed later. Nothing ahs been heard since that time.

The Caledonia Creamery is especially anxious that the work be rushed for it does not want to install another system for power only to discard it when Hydro is finally brought here. Since power has been promised here Cayuga is again trying to obtain power there.
