U. F. O. RECORD ATTACKED BY COLTER, SUPPORTERS

Father of Liberal Candidate Aids Son at First Meeting Of Campaign in Jarvis.

The record of the U. F. O. government and the policy of the Conservative party were criticised Saturday night when a meeting was held in the Jarvis Music Hall in the interests of R. S. Colter, Liberal candidate for Haldimand.

Andrew Rodgers as chairman and the speakers were Judge Colter, of St. Thomas, J. A. Tookey, D. Z. Gibson and the candidate.

R. S. Colter, the candidate, explained that he had supported the U. F. O. in 1919 because there was a feeling that the farmers were not getting their due but he had found it was impossible for any one class to govern the country. Drury granted that when in his own country, he said it was impossible for the U. F. O. to carry on unless it broadened out and took in all classes and when Drury said that he was perfectly honest but within a few days he received a note from J. J. Morrision, one of the bigest tories in Ontario, and Drury went to his office and made a promise that he would do nothing unless he consulted the U. F. O. executive and that is J. J. Morrision. That is the time that my politics and the U. F. O. parted.

Object to Ferguson.

Many of the U. F. O. supporters feel that the government has not been successful and it is felt by a great many of the leading Conservatives that they cannot be led by Hon. G. Howard Ferguson. What has he done as leader fo the opposition? All during the first session he was defending himself against the timber commission. The second session he was busy making people beleive he had done nothing wrong. The third session his attention was directed towards the O. T. A. and the fourth session was spent in undoing what he did in the third session.

Mr. Colter referred to Ferguson's lieutenants as Col. Currie, who flinches other people's letters and reads them in public, Dr. Godfrey who has been kept busy writing prescriptions, and T. Herbert Lennox, who has been keeping gaurd on the brink to prevent them from falling into the clutches of the law.

He referred to the U. F. O. promises of economy and aid for thte farmers and declared that the government had not passed an act that has helped the farmers of Haldimand or any other county and did not do one act that showed they were economical, but rather the opposite. They had not done one act to show they were competant to govern.

"Hon. Peter Smith is a good farmer and honest," the speaker said, "but he knew nothing of finance. He needed $6,000,000 and he went to Toronto brokers and obtainde it at 98 cents on the dollar then he was offered $10,000,000 more at the same rate and he took it. Within three months it sold at par and the province lost $1,200,000 on that deal. Shortly afterwards the provincial treasure needed $5,000,000 more. He was afriad of the Toronto brokers and inquired about it in several places. His best offer was 99 cents but he forgot the first issue was at 5 per cent and the second at 5½ per cent. The people lost another $236,000 on that deal. Then he would have nothing more to do with Toronto financial men. He went to New York and obtained a little lower rae but when he went to cash his bonds he found he had forgotten that he would have to pay exchange and that if he had kept the business in Toronto he would have saved $200,000.

Tells of Gas Bill.

The Hon. Mr. Mills, minster of mines, was told by the gas copanies that the farmers were getting the advantage of them. The companies told of the cost of iron in the gas wells, the cost of pipe and the cost of lobor but they didn't think to tell the minister that the iron was put down and the pipes laid when material and labor were much cheaper. They were able to show that they were receiving a small return on their money so he put through a measure that made all the gas leases on the farms illegal. Your county council protested and the U. F. O. member for Haldimand was asked to assist in opposing the measure. Then the Haldimand couneil went to Toronto and the Chatham member took the matter up and had an amendment put through. Mr. Stringer was asked why he did not oppose the measure when it was first considered. He said he did oppose it in committee. When asked why he d id not oppose it on the floor of the house he said he would loose his standing with his party. He thought more of his standing with his party than he did for the electors who sent him to Toronto.

"Good roads are a necessity, but within reason. I am told that the province, to widen the roads, paid $50. an acre for land on one side of Jarvisand $100 an acre for land on the other side."

The speaker scored the expense of building the roads, constesting they were to wide.

Judge Colter Speaks.

Judge Colter, father of the cadidate, declared the Liberals had always chosen the best men for leaders of the party. He predicted that the U. F. O. would never again appear as a seperate party. He contended the Conservative leader had failed and that every vote for Dr. Berry was a vote in support of Ferguson.

"Ferguson tells us that the U. F. O.
