great grand children, Mrs. Margaret Anguish, 92 years old, died Sunday morning after an illness of several months.

There was no disease evident, just the wearing out of a body that had already housed a soul much longe than the alloted span.

Mrs. Anguish was born at York near Calidonia and spent her entire life not far from her birth place. She and her husband hewed a farm from the virgin forest at Nelles" Corners will be appropriate to the day. when their only neighbors were bears and wolves and the wild things of the woods. Clearing a little space in the WALPOLE MAN then extended the clearing until they made one of the most modern farms in that part of the country.
