

OUR OWN BEDTIME STORIES

Little Red Riding Hood
ONCE UPON A TIME there was a 16-year-old FLAPPER who was such a KNOCKOUT that all the MARRIED MEN in town had to wear BLINDERS and MUZZLES. This Flapper sported a CRIMSON ROLL-TLE RED RIDING HOOD by all the CONFECTIONERY STEVEDORES.

One MORNING about 11 A.M., as L. R. R. H. was gargling her regular BROMO - SELTZER, her GRAND-MOTHER phoned her. "Say, kid," said GRANNY, "I just smoked my last PLAYER and MOTHER won't let me go to the DRUG STORE to get any more. Rush over and bring me a PACK, will you, DEARIE?"

Now, RED RIDING HOOD was a dutiful child, and she made haste to hop into the ROLLS-ROYCE, breeze by the DRUG STORE, purchase the FAGS and head the CAR towards GRANDMA'S house.

Slipping in the SIDE ENTRANCE, L. R. R. H. went immediately to GRANNY'S BEDROOM. There lay Granny, in her GOLD and IVORY BED, with the SHEETS pulled up so high and her BOUDOIR CAP pulled down so low that RED RIDING HOOD immediately suspected an ETHIOPIAN in the WOODPILE.

"Say, GRAN," said Red Riding Hood, "What's the matter with your gimmers? They're big as sausages."

"The better to see you with, my DEAR."

"—and your NOSE, old dear; it's as RED as a BEET."

"The better to SMELL you with, my dear."

"—and your MOUTH, —"

"The better to KISS you—"

"Hot PUPPY!" shrieked Red Riding Hood, clapping her HANDS, "I got it now; your BREATH smells like GIN! Come on, split it with me, or you don't get no CIGARETTES, and I'll tell GREAT-GRAN on you."

"Oh DARN," grumbled grandmother, as she crawled out of bed. "You got MOST of my last case; but you don't get but ONE DRINK outta this. And no ORANGE in it, either, you little GIN-HOUND."

THE NEWS WE WANT

An exchange gives some permanent hints as to news suitable for local newspapers, which we reproduce. This paper will always be pleased to receive accounts of the following:

1. marriages, given as fully as possible;
2. births; 3. deaths, always give a sketch of life;
4. removals; 5. loss, by fire or otherwise;
6. land transfers; 7. robberies; 8. unusual freaks or accidents;
9. new or important accidents; 10. visitors to or from a distance; 11. all township news, and, in fact, any kind of news that is of interest;
12. progress of agricultural operations. Don't forget to sign your name, which is not for publication. What not to give: jibes, hints or insinuations which only a few can make sense of and which are unkind in their nature; the mere calling of one's neighbor on another except for public purpose, Sunday visiting, and, although "every lassie has her laddie," she doesn't like the public to know every time he calls on her, and the public does not care for it either.

NEW $2 BILL PLACED IN CIRCULATION

A new $2 Dominion of Canada note has just been placed in circulation by the Department of Finance. On the face or front of the bill is a new steel engraved portrait of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and the date of issue is June 23rd, 1923—the last birthday of the Prince. The Department has taken advantage of the presence in Ottawa of His Royal Highness to introduce this bill.

The new note is of striking design and is altogether one of the most artistic that has been issued by the Department in recent years. The back carries an excellent engraving of the new coat-of-arms of the Dominion. The color printing on front and back is in a pleasing shade of olive green.

The new Prince of Wales issue will be gradually placed in circulation and will in time supplant the old Connaught $2 note which has been in circulation since 1914.

Mr. Fielding has submitted to His Royal Highness for his acceptance the first issue—No. 1—of the new note.

WHAT TWO DOLLARS WILL BUY

In each of its many departments, catering to all classes and all ages, the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, has continued to improve each year over the last until now it would seem perfection were reached. Yet for the coming season that remarkable farm and family journal again promises — and the promise will surely be fulfilled—still further improvements in all departments. It is a profound mystery to publishers the world over how the Family Herald and Weekly Star can continue to publish a 72-page weekly paper containing such a wealth and variety of reading matter for a subscription price of only $2.00 per year.

If this were not enough, we hear that, added to the amazing value of the paper itself, each subscriber this season who remits in time will receive free a most beautiful picture in colors of a lovely and heroic woman, whose remarkable life story has been published in booklet form and can be obtained without charge from the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal.

A GREAT STORY YEAR

A golden sheaf of stories is in preparation for 1924 readers of The Youth's Companion. There will be stories of Western ranch life and thrilling adventure; stories of gumption in getting a job and making a success at it; stories of lively scrambles on the athletic field—football, baseball; stories of girls in school and college and working their way in the world of business; stories of the old farm folks down in Maine, told inimitably by C. A. Stephens; stories of Caleb Peaslee's shrewdness and horse sense; stories of resourcefulness and pluck in situations of danger and extremity; stories of the sea and of the mountains—stories to please every fancy of old readers and young, for readers who love the story of character and for those who like best the story of swift action. It will be a great year in the history of The Youth's Companion.

The 52 issues of 1924 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1924.
 2. All the remaining issues of 1923.
 3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1924.
 4. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $3.00.

CO-OPERATION
It's not the guns or armament Or the money they can pay, It's the close co-operation That makes 'em win the day. It is not the individual Or the army as a whole, But the ever lasting teamwork Of every bloomin' soul. —Kipling.
