GYPSIES TRIM YANKEE TEAM AT CALEDONIA

The "All-Star" baseball team from Stockton, N.Y., who were touring through parts of Ontario landed in Caledonia on Thursday morning last and a game was arranged with the Gypsies for three o'clock in the afternoon.
 The two teams were very evenly matched, the Gypsies coming out ahead in the count 6 to 5.
 Stewart and Morrison performed on the mound. Stewart, the new addition on the pitching staff, held the Yankees to five well scattered hits in six innings, his chances as a twirler look very promising.

 The locals tallied twice in the first frame with Wright on first, Shaw punched the horsehide for a three-bagger scoring Wright, Shaw scoring on J. Morrison's sacrifice fly to centre field. The Yankees tied the score in the fifth by three well placed hits. Shaw scored again in the last of the sixth, reached first on a safe hit, stole second and came home on W. Morrison's two-bagger. In the sixth the Yankees pulled one ahead, Buckman reached first on a safe hit, second on Robinson's sacrifice bunt, stole third and scored on Smith's hit who went to second on a fielder's choice, stole third, went home on Wright's hit. In the 7th Brown tied the score again. 1st on a hit, stole second, 3rd on a passed ball and scored on a hit by Main. In the 8th the Gypsies crawled ahead tallying two more, Keefe and Todd finding home plate. In the 9th the Yankees added their last counter, Galbraith scoring. Todd made an unassisted double in the 4th, pulling down Brosky's fly ball and getting Smith at second.

Brings the greatest sale since we kept shop. That means in nearly a generation. Thousands and thousands of dollars' worth—the greater portion of it specially bought from the largest makers of fine Linens in the world, who met with a little misfortune. We are including our own entire stock of beautiful linen things in this sale. Not within memory has there been offered to the housewives of this district such a varied and comprehensive collection of HOUSEHOLD LINEN at such extraordinary price reductions. Pure Flax Linens of every desirable household grade are included.

Table Fine Linen Things Exactly 1/2 Price

Some of them slightly soiled. Lace Doilies, Guest Towels, Scarfs, Madeira Doilies, Napkins, Centres, etc.

Extra Salespeople

Falls' Department Store, Simcoe.

There are hundreds of beautiful Damask Cloths, thousands of Napkins, thousands of Towels, thousands of yards of Towelling and Table Damask—besides Sheetings and Pillow Cases in wonderful variety, and a great collection of decorative Linens from a simple Scarf or Doily to Table Cloths and Napkins of rare beauty.

It is one of those occasions of which people take advantage to put in large supplies.

For that reason it is very important to be here early so as to get your share of the greatest Linen Sale since we kept shop. There are such quantities and varieties involved that the groups, sizes and prices can be presented only in summarized forms.
