Here and There

Rex Beach, the eminent American author, was recently in New Brunswick as a guest of W. G. McIntyre. On leaving for his home in the United States at the conclusion of his visit, Mr. Beach expressed himself as a strong booster for the hunting and fishing possibilities of the province, charmed with its scenic beauties, delighted with its people and solemnly proposing to return with his gang next year.

The largest and one of the most valuable shipments of foxes ever to pass through Montreal, Que., by Dominion Express Company, was handled by that organization recently. There were 35 animals in the shipment, valued at $17,000, 30 being silverblack foxes and the rest black foxes. The former were destined for exhibition at Minneapolis, while the latter went to different points in the Canadian West.

The Eastern International Dog-Sled Derby, which was so successful last year, will again be held at Quebec in 1925, the dates set being February 19th, 20th and 21st. As on former occasions, the distance to be covered will be 120 miles, at an average rate of 20 miles a day. Earl Bridgman, Le Pas, Manitoba, now holds the lead in the trophy awarded for the race and is expected to defend his honors. Many teams are already working out.

A decided acquisition to the Riviera, Que., is the new Canadian Pacific Railway station, which was opened there on November 8th. The building is Italian in design, Rosa and Madeleine, of Montreal, were the architects. Remarkable speed was made in the construction, as the contract for the work was only signed on June 2nd last. The opening ceremony was performed by Grant Hall, vice-president of the company, in the presence of many notables.

Three moose and one deer was the total bag of W. B. Leeds, jr., young American multi-millionaire, and his friends, Nils Florman, Albert Hopkins, Paul Smith and Mortimer Davis, jr., as the result of their recent hunting trip into the Kipawa district. The leader of the party expressed himself as delighted with the results, as he had not hoped for such luck. Great quantities of game of all kinds were seen.

"Sickness Stalked Into This Happy Little Home"

When Jim Harrow moved into his pretty white-washed cottage, he thought he had reached the height of happiness. His wife and his baby boy loudly voiced their pleasure, too. Everything seemed to be "smoking right" for Jim.

But the happy days didn't last long. Sickness fell upon Mrs. Harrow. "It's just a pain in my back, maybe rheumatism," she said. But Jim knew how a previous attack of pleurisy had weakened her, so he called in a doctor. The doctor hinted at "lung trouble" and advised a complete sanatorium. Jim took his wife to a sanatorium, who quickly confirmed the first verdict, "Consumption," he said. His hand and wife stared at each other in hopeless misery, but cheer was forthcoming. "Don't worry," said the doctor, "a year's treatment at the doctor's hospital for Consumption will put Mrs. Harrow on her feet again; but she must go now—no delay."

A kindly neighbor is taking care of the baby boy while Jim is "gone" from home by himself. Every few days the postman leaves a letter which tells how kind nurses, and careful doctors all do their utmost to bring back the health of a letter to Mrs. Harrow. Shortly the letters will cease for she is almost ready to come back to the little white cottage.

Should you wish to have a child in such worthwhile work as this, please send your contributions to Hon. W. A. Charlton, President, 223 College Street, Toronto, Ontario.

Here's Good News To the Young People of Haldimand

A Letter From Santa Claus to the Boys and Girls

AS YOU ALL KNOW I will arrive in Simcoe at 9 o'clock on Saturday Morning, Dec. 13th. I will come from the North down Colborne St. to Robinson St., down Robinson St. to Norfolk St., Norfolk to Peel St., up Peel St. to Colborne St., down Colborne to south Gore and up Norfolk St.

I hope you will all be out to see me, and tell me what you would like for Xmas. There will be so many of you and I will have to hurry on my way so quickly that I will not have time to talk to every little boy or girl, so I'm bringing a big load of Toys, Dolls, Books, Candles and other things to leave at the Stores in Simcoe where you will be able to see them and decide what you want me to bring you. Now I want you to look around all the stores and see what you would like to have. When you have made up your mind, write me a letter telling me what you would like. You can post it to me at any store in Simcoe where you see my gifts and I'll do my best to please you. My hope is that every little boy and girl will get something nice for Xmas. I will be accompanied by a Herald, Boy Scouts and Band, Little Boy Blue, Little Bo-Peep, Uncle Wiggley, John Bull, Old King Cole and Fiddlers Three, Funny People dressed up like Big Bears, Lemons and Bananas, Old Woman in a Shoe with eight small children dressed as Black Birds, and other little people that you have not seen before, several Clowns, 10-piece Band, Real Live Fairies, Snow White Ponies, Out Riders Trumpeting, Last and Best of All—Santa Claus with his Coachman and Helpers.

THINK OF IT!
 The Jolly Old Fellow himself! Oh! say, don't you wish it were Saturday tomorrow? Won't it be great to see Santa again?

YOU MUSTN'T MISS THE PARADE ON ANY ACCOUNT. MORE FUN THAN A CIRCUS.

A little Highland Lassie and a Real Live Fairy will dance right before your very eyes—on an elevated platform, so all can see.
