CALEDONIA MAN SPEAKS AT ENK

The Community club, Watpola, held their usual 24-monthly meeting on Tuesday evening last. In spite of the severe weather there was a large attendance. The speaker of the evening was Harrison Arrell, Esq., K. C., of Caledonia, who delivered a very interesting address on "Canada." A short program, consisting of a duet by Messrs. F. Laidlaw and C. Easton, recitations by Misses Vera Davis and Vera Sochet, instrumental duet by Mrs. Harvey Keen and Mrs. Caldwell Easton, violin solo by Harold Porter and piano selection by Lorne Porter.

Mr. Arrell, in an interesting address, traced first of all the growth of the idea of Confederation, picturing vividly the difficulties that the leaders of Confederation had to contend with and how they were overcome. He then explained the working of several clauses in the British North America Act, and after giving figures to show the marvellous growth of the Dominion since Confederation, he closed by outlining some of the problems confronting the Dominion.

He asserted that Canadians did not advertise their country enough. Mr. Lloyd George made that fact clear on his return to England after visiting this country.

Of the problems facing this country the most outstanding were, the National Debt and how to reduce it, and the problem of immigration, both of which were receiving the consideration of our best experts and which would have to be successfully solved if we were to progress.

At the conclusion of his speech, a hearty vote of thanks was passed on the motion of Rev. W. T. Brown, seconded by James Falls.

The next meeting is on January 31, when Knox Young Peoples Guild entertain the club in Jarvis.

DON'T CARRY DEAD RATS

To "knock" another is evidence of jealousy or common dishonesty. To speak ill of an individual shows a want of charity. To peddle gossip is proof that you are a dangerous person.

The unreliable, the unprincipled folks in any community are pretty well known. Those who exaggerate, lie and bear false witness are tagged with the lack of good breeding.

You would not bring into a friend's house a dead and stinking rat; neither does your friend want you to drag in any dirty gossip.
