Regah Theatre

"GRUMPY"

A melodramatic picture that holds one's attention from start to finish, is William de Mille's Paramount production of "Grumpy," featuring Theodore Roberts, May McAvoy and Conrad Nagel, which will be on view at the Regah Theatre, Hagersville, for two days beginning Tuesday next.

Mr. de Mille has injected a great deal of mystery into "Grumpy." This mystery is wrapped around two tiny flowers, both gardenias. The story is laid around a young man, Conrad Nagel has this role, with whom has been trusted a diamond valued at half a million dollars. A gentleman crook (played by Casson Ferguson) steals the diamond. But he is a cleverly concealed his part in the robbery that he is not suspected.

Two flowers change places during the robbery. One of the flowers has a strand of a woman's hair around the stem. The other has not. These two tiny bits of evidence go back and forth with dazzling speed. Just when you think Roberts, or "Grumpy," will get the flower with the strand of hair and thus fasten the guilt of the robbery on Ferguson, something happens to the evidence. Of course, everything ends happily.
