County Weeklies vs. City Dailies

An observant and philosophical writer contrasts the respective characters of the city and country papers in this significant manner:

"Turning from the city newspapers to the rural weekly which comes to our home is like stepping from the slums of vile odors into an old-fashioned garden sweet with honey-suckle and the seent of perennial flowers. The pages of the big dailies are so full of murder, thievery, immorality, the breaking up of homes by infidelity and selfishness that the better news is obscured. One puts the paper and heartache that the world is so overloading. full of such terrible and urhappy Morden Neilson, Chairman of the that make up simple annals of the Even this meagre comfort was disare given a kindly touch that is wide- Mr. Squire. ly different from the unfeeling pblicity of the city press.
