Figured in Historic Sod Turning

This antique looking wheelbarrow and spade do not appear capable of very thefy service now, but nearly half a century ago they carried the weight of a very important event—the ceremony marking the commencement of the construction of the Canada Central Railway through Pembroke, Ontario.
Following the ceremony, the spade with which the first sod was turned and the wheelbarrow into which it was shovelled in the presence of a very enthusiastic crowd, were presented to Miss M. P. Moffat, daughter of the Reeve of the village, the lady who performed the ceremony of the naming of the road and christening it with a bottle of champagne. They recently passed into the hands of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which company took over the Canada Central in 1881, and will be added to a museum of relics connected with the early days of the railroad which is being formed in Montreal.

So much for the actual ceremony. The Pembroke "Observer" for September 3rd 1875 says: "The assembly then adjourned to a spacious booth that had been specially erected for the occasion, where champagne and beer had been provided for the purpose of drinking several toasts which had been previously agreed upon by the committee, but a number of individuals, apparently more intent on drinking champagne than doing honor to any toasts, took possession of the tables, and the regular order of the programme had to be abandoned. The Pembroke Brass Band was present and performed some popular airs."

A BARGAIN IN NEWSPAPERS!

A Beautiful Art Calendar Free

The Jarvis Record has concluded arrangements with The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal by which we can offer the greatest bargain ever given to newspaper readers.

The offer includes a full year's subscription to both papers, an art calendar with a most beautiful picture subject ready for

THE JARVIS RECORD

Three Rivers, Quebec, Has New Station

Citizens of Three Rivers, Quebec, regard the recent inauguration of the new Canadian Pacific Railway Station as marking a new epoch in the life of their city inasmuch as it affords proof of the status already attained by Trois-Rivieres as an industrial centre and of the greater prominence it is expected to occupy in the future. The new station building is the most up-to-date and magnificent of its kind in eastern Canada. Of its construction cost, not less than $200,000 represents the amount of money spent in Three Rivers.
Some idea as to the way Three Rivers has developed may be gathered from a few remarks made by E. J. Hebert, first assistant general passenger agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, in proposing a toast at the banquet that marked the official opening. "Until 1875 navigation was the only transportation facility," he said. "Then the Northern Railway was built between Quebec, Three Rivers and Montreal, but it was not until 1905 that industries began to appear.
With the opening of the St. Maurice Valley Railway trade developed rapidly. The towns of Shawinigan Falls, Grand Mere, Cap-de-la-Madeleine, La Gabelle, small hamlets in 1905, have become important industrial centres, with populations respectively of 12,000, 7,500 and 3,000 people, while Three Rivers itself has over 30,000 population now and is still growing."

"I'll Be Home Soon, Mother," Writes Sammy

Sammy is a keen little lad. He looks much younger than he is—only sixteen—and he has much more wisdom than is usual at his age. For two years he worked in a foundry doing a man's work. His father worked beside him and helped him master the art of pouring molten metal. One day Sammy complained of a sore side but his people didn't worry much. "I'll be all right in the morning," mother said, "go and take a rest." But it wasn't all right in the morning, nor the morning after, nor a week after. It was then time for a doctor to examine Sammy. The doctor looked him over several times, then took him to a hospital. Not a medical man agreed that Sammy was consumptive and both held out some hope if he "took the cure" at once.
Sammy is quite a favorite up in the hospital. He looks for patients in good humor with his pleasant smile and his quaint stories of French Quebec where he spent his boyhood days.
"Tell the folks I'll be home soon," he wrote in his last letter; and he probably will be, for he is making pleased progress.
The Montreal Hospital for Consumptive, the Haven of the poor afflicted with tuberculosis, is in a large measure reliant upon public generosity for its funds to carry on its work.
