THE JARVIS FALL FAIR A SUCCESSFUL EVENT

In spite of the unfavorable weather the Jarvis Fall Fair, which was held on Tuesday of this week, proved to be bigger and better than ever.

Although the morning dawn was ushered in with an overcast sky, and which looked threatening at times it seemed but a streak of luck that the rain was kept away. This did not have the effect, however, of keeping the people from taking in the fair.

The gate receipts were $100 less than last year, but taking into consideration that the entrance fee had been cut in half, the actual attendance this year was much greater than last year. The quality of exhibits and number of entries also were better and greater and the baby show was as much a drawing card as before. The concert held at night was well patronized.

The school parade, headed by the Hagersville band, opened the afternoon's entertainment. Although this year there were only six schools represented in the parade, the costumes were more unique and the drilling and exercises brought forth much applause. S. S. No. 18, Miss Vera Forrest, teacher, was awarded the first prize. The school entries were large and showed improvement over last year.

A list of the Fair and School prize winners will appear in our next issue.

CHURCH NOTES

The anniversary services of the Garnet Methodist church were held on Sunday last and were a pronounced success throughout. Rev. H. B. Christie, of Brantford, preached two excellent sermons to very large congregations.

On Monday evening Mr. Christie delivered a splendid lecture on the life and achievements of Mr. David Lloyd George, ex-premier of Great Britain. The financial offerings of these services were beyond our expectations and which reached the sum of $160.00. The anniversary services of Wesley Methodist church here will be held on next Sunday, Oct. 12th. Rev. A. C. Eddy, of Brantford, will preach both morning and evening. Special singing by the choir, and a liberal thank-offering will be received.

On Wednesday evening a free Congregational Social will be held, when every member of the church and congregation is invited to attend and enjoy the evening. The ladies will provide refreshments.

W. A. MEETING

The W. A. met at the home of Mrs. Jas. Carpenter on Tuesday, Sept. 30. The meeting opened with the usual hymn and prayers, followed by an address given by Archdeacon Irvin. The roll was called, minutes read and dues paid. A social half hour was spent, during which Mrs. Burwash (president) presented Mrs. W. H. Fradley with an ebony brush, comb and mirror, a gift from the W. A. members, showing the esteem in which she was held.

A dainty luncheon was then served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Doris Fradley. During the luncheon a solo was rendered by Miss Fradley. Archdeacon Irvin and members then wished Mrs. Fradley bon voyage and a safe return on her trip to England.

THORNE-FRADLEY

St. Paul's Church, decked with flowers, was the scene on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 1st, at 1:30 p.m., of one of the prettiest autumn weddings, when Doris Constant, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fradley, of Jarvis, became the bride of Mr. Ernest Thorne, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thorne, Sussex, England.

The sun shone brightly. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, presented a charming picture in her lovely bridal robes of white Canton crepe trimmed with radium lace. She wore a veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a spray of Columbia roses and maidenhair ferns.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. H. Carpenter, as matron of honor, who was becomingly frocked in sand, hat crepe with orange trimming, and wearing a corsage of Ophelia roses.

The little Misses Pearl and Phyllis Carpenter made dainty little flower girls, attired in white muslin with crowns of pink rosebuds, each carrying a basket of white chrysanthemums and Columbia roses.

Little nephew, Stanley Carpenter, was trainbearer, attired in white pique suit.

Mr. J. H. Carpenter acted as best man.

Mrs. W. H. Fradley, mother of the bride, was charmingly attired in silver grey Canton crepe trimmed with silver cloth, wearing a corsage of Ophelia roses.

The ceremony was conducted by the Ven. Archdeacon E. A. Irving.

After the signing of the register, the smiling bride and groom left to the strains of the Wedding March and proceeded to the home of the bride's sister, which was gaily decorated with garden flowers.

The many guests were received by Mrs. W. H. Fradley and Mrs. J. H. Carpenter, who all partook of the wedding breakfast. The table was lovely with flowers centered with the bride's cake. Two appropriate speeches were rendered by the bride's father and Ven. Archdeacon Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorne left later by motor enroute to the Thousand Islands.

The groom's gift to the bride was a rope of pearls.

Mr. A. G. Marshall, organist, Church of England, Simcoe, played the wedding music.

The bride's going-away dress was of poiret flannel with hat to match. The guests included many relatives of the couple, who were the recipients of many lovely presents.

COUNTY LIVE STOCK JUDGING COMPETITION

The Haldimand Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture has arranged for a Live Stock Judging Competition to be held at Cayuga on Wednesday, October 22nd, 1924.

RULES

Young men under 26 years of age are eligible to take part in the competition.

Entries close Saturday, October 18. Entry cards may be obtained from members of the Township Councils in the County of Haldimand. If you do not secure a regular entry card and wish to take part in the competition, send your name, age, address and township to the Agricultural Office, Cayuga.

Contestants will be required to judge Heavy Horses, Beef Cattle, Dairy Cattle, Sheep and Swine. An expert will be in charge of each class of stock and, before the contestants do any judging, fifteen minutes will be allotted for the judge to explain how to judge the class of stock.

PRIZES

1st, 2nd and 3rd—Free trip to Royal Winter Fair, Toronto.

4th, 5th and 6th—Free trip to Guelph Winter Fair.

The above prizes are donated by the Haldimand County Council.

First prize also wins the Lalor Cup donated by Mr. F. R. Lalor, Dunnville.

Second prize also wins the Jaques Cup donated by Dr. Jaques of Jarvis.

Young men who are eligible to enter the contest should plan to attend as it is a splendid opportunity of securing information on better live stock and practice in learning to become proficient in judging stock. The Agricultural Office at Cayuga is planning on receiving at least one hundred entries. Make your entry at once and encourage as many of your neighbor boys to do the same.

CALVES AND PIGS DRINK OF PAINT AND DIE

In preparation for painting his buildings at Hickory Park, Nanticoke, R. J. Evans, a farmer of that village, a few days ago mixed up 25 gallons of paint. During the night some calves drank some of it and upset the rest. Three of them died. So Mr. Evans mixed 25 more gallons of paint and left it in the barn. The following morning calves up to the stuff, drank some and spilled the rest. Two of them died. Next time the farmer will put the paint on the house.
