REGAH THEATRE

"SHADOWS OF PARIS"
The Pola Negri of "Passion" has returned.

In the Herbert Brenon Paramount production of "Shadows of Paris," which opens at the Regah Theatre, Hagersville, on Friday night, the star once more comes into her own. She is quite her old self as Claire, leader of the Apache bands of the Parisian underworld. Then there is Charles de Roche as her Apache lover, who is called away to war and falsely reported killed; Huntly Gordon as Raoul widow, married; and Adolphe Menjou as Raoul's secretary and friend—all are featured and all give excellent accounts of themselves.

The story is one of the upper and lower worlds of Paris, the playground of the entire world. It is a colorful and appealing tale, an adaptation of the French play, "Mon Homme," by the author of "Kiki."

"TO THE LADIES"

The Paramount picture, "To the Ladies" coming to the Regah Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday, is very unique in that it is the only production, adapted from a highly successful stage play that outdistanced the stage version of the story in the matter of popularity. "To the Ladies" has been handsomely received everywhere and its presentation here will be no exception. If you like pure, wholesome comedy, you'll revel in this one.

PERSONAL NOTES

His Hon. the Lieutenant Governor, Mrs. N. Rider and daughter, Miss Margaret, returned home last week from a few months' visit with relatives and friends in the Northwest.

Knox Presbyterian Church withdrew their evening service last Sunday on account of the anniversary services being held at the Wesley Methodist church.

R. Robertson, Hagersville's enterprising jeweller, is offering excellent values and designs in diamond rings, very suitable for engagement rings. Young man, if interested, give him a call.

We regret to report that Harold Edwards, who is suffering from pneumonia, is not recovering as favorably as expected. He is confined to his bed at the home of his parents near Boston.

Died, at Niagara Falls, Ont., on Friday, Oct. 10th, Maria Priscilla, widow of the late Dr. S. E. Boulter, in her 66th year. Deceased was well known in Jarvis as Miss Maria Biggar.

Rev. H. G. Roberts and daughters, Margaret and Eleanor, visited relatives here during this week-end. Rev. Roberts preached the anniversary sermons at Port Elgin on Sunday last and attended the tea meeting there on Monday.

Miss Estella Hewson, of Toronto, secretary for Ontario of the social hygiene council, has returned from a three months' tour of Europe and the British Isles. Miss Hewson, a recent visitor in the city, attended the imperial social hygiene conference at Wembley, at which all the countries of the world were represented. She was also a guest at an entertainment given by Lady Nancy Astor.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

HELD IN KNOX PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, JARVIS, ONT. DAY, OCTOBER 23

The annual convention of Knox County Sunday school was held in Knox church on Tuesday Oct. 22. There were two sessions, after m. and evening at 7:30 p. Sessions were splendidly worked being present from the county.

At the afternoon session the Rev. W. T. Brown, of chairman, Mr. D. W. Kirk, addressed the delegates stressed the increasing the Sunday School in and community life, and Sunday School workers influence tell in the coming on the O.T.A., Oct. 23rd.

Following his address given by the departments they were all very satisfied on Missions showing increase in givings over

Dr. P. K. Dayfoot, of borne, then addressed the subject being "Religion." Pointing out the wo religious education has today, interest in it all the time. Education is putting into somebody who not got, but is a drawing plifying of faculties they sess. Religious education the same process, it us principles and strives to spiritual side of life to its largest extent. It was the fact that man was faculty for worship. Religious education was of the weak points of our system today is that we seized with the need along religious lines. We educate his spirit; we hand and neglect and no education is does not do that. More clearly it was being religious education without the ment is a menace to the world. It simply incapabilities for evil. This does not cultivate its will fail. Religious education nationally. Canada of falling down in the religious education. Three this education are the school, the church, and th up their task if the wo saved.

Following a very ear on "Service," by Rev. J. of Hagersville, who said tion men and women to under two great banners Love and Service, the unanimously passed a res posed by Mr. Whitlaw.

Mr. McKinnon, heartily work of the O.T.A., and S. workers of the provin all their weight on the hibition in the coming.

The following resolution unanimously by a st when the large asse heartily in singing "Prai
