TWO LARGE SUNDAY SCHOOL CATHEDRALS

The enthusiasm of the annual conventions of the Ontario Religious Education Council has grown to such an extent that now two conventions are held to accommodate the denomination activities of this province. Section A will convene at Kitchener, Ont., Oct. 27-29, and Section B at Ottawa, Oct. 29-31. Extensive programs include:

Dr. Hugh S. Magill, General Sec. International S. S. Council of Religious Education; Dr. Sherwood Eddy, Foreign Dept. International Committee Y.M.C.A. New York; Rev. J. B. McLaurin, Canadian Baptist Mission, India; Dr. Donald MacGillivray, of Shanghai, China; Rev. C. W. Bishop, M.A., Sherbourne Street Methodist Church, Toronto; Dr. T. A. Halpenny, Principal Stanstead College, Stanstead, Que.; Rev. Frank Langford, Rev. C. A. Myers, Dr. Geo. T. Webb, Rev. Manson Doyle, Theron Gibson, Rev. E. H. Bean and Rev. H. C. Priest.

The convention program is so planned that the delegates will virtually receive a three-day course in practical Sunday School work. The Sunday School, like other educational enterprises, is passing through a period of transition, and pastors, superintendents and officers can ill afford to be ignorant of what is taking place.

Further information may be secured from the O.R.E.C. Office, Room 504, 299 Queen St. W., Toronto.

NOVEMBER ROD AND GUN

Every sportsman will be interested in the November issue of "Rod and Gun in Canada." The stories and articles, based on a variety of subjects, will hold the attention of all who read. Raymond Thompson has an unusually good story entitled "The Sins of the Fathers," in this number. "Some Wild Animal Trails and Some Adventures Along Them," from the pen of Bonnycastle Dale, is on a par with his previous excellent wild animal stories. Hubert J. Black has written a humorous account of an English "tenderfoot" who is duped by an unscrupulous fur buyer in the West in his story called "Foxes." These are only a few of the interesting contributions to this number, which also include an enlightening article on Moose Calling by Henry Braithwaite and "A Fishing Trip to the Island Province," by A. F. Atkinson. The stories of F. V. Williams, Martin Hunter and J. W. Wilson, who are regular contributors to the magazine, are all up to the mark and the regular departments conducted by the departmental editors are brimful of good and interesting reading.

Government Control is People's Control

THE people of Ontario—not any narrow or isolated section of them—but the people of Ontario as a whole—have certain ideals of public and private life. British tradition have given us these.

These ideals are well understood.

Lawlessness, disrespect for law, lack of self-restraint, and excesses of all kind find no approbation in Ontario.

Government Control, in the present plebiscite, is simply a mandate by the people to the Government to proceed with legislation which, while dealing with and as far as possible eliminating excesses in drinking, will restore respect for law, and recognize the right of the citizen to regulate his private life in accordance with the principles of moderation and sanity.

Prohibition is a denial of such a mandate. It consists of an absolute order of "MUST NOT".

That it undermined private and public life—that it made lawlessness profitable—that it took revenues which should be used for the public good—that it created evils harder to subdue than those it pretended to abolish—was the verdict of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba within the last year. They had tried Prohibition for seven years and found that period quite long enough.

Of course, the verdict was not rendered without a fight. Just as here, the people were told of the wonders of prohibition. They were told how rich they had become, how sober they were, how crime had vanished, how low taxes were and how happy and prosperous everybody was. "Impartial" writers wrote articles in the newspapers, "unbiased" speakers made speeches.

But the people were not moved. They knew better.

Then they acted. Just as soon as the opportunity arose they voted for Government Control. The Prohibitionists tried to prevent the people from expressing their views. Everywhere they said that a vote was unnecessary and sought to avoid one. Just as here.

But the people prevailed. They decided that, through their Governments, they would take control themselves.

Vote for Government Control as follows:

1 Are you in favour of the continuance of The Ontario Temperance Act?

2 Are you in favour of the sale as a beverage of beer and spirituous liquor in sealed packages under Government control? X
