BODY OF G. BAIN, DROWNING VICTIM, IS RECOVERED

ALSO THAT OF HIS COMPANION—BEEN MISSING SINCE 14th OF AUGUST

GEORGE WILLIAM, Aug. 28.—The bodies of Grant Baine and Hathaway Colborne, the two young men who have been missing since they put out in a canoe from Chippawa Park just before the heavy gale on Thursday evening, August 14, were found floating in the bay today.

INJURED BY EXPLOSION

About 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon last, the large range at the Erie Hotel, Port Dover, exploded and one of the doors struck the chef in the nose. It was thought at first that the nose was nearly severed, but only the end of the nose was cut and this required several stitches. It was a miracle that he was not blinded. His eyesight was not affected in the least. The four doors of the oven were thrown nearly the length of the room and a cupboard door smashed. Had he not been stooping down at the time he would have been hit by all four doors and his injuries might have been serious.

BONES OF CAMEL FOUND IN KANSAS

MIGRATORY BIRDS CONVENTION ACT

A summary of the Migratory Birds Convention Act is given below. This is the law which is based upon the treaty with the United States. Any enquiries concerning this law may be addressed to the Commissioner of the Canadian National Parks, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.

OPEN SEASONS
Both dates inclusive
Ontario—Ducks, Geese, Brant or Rails, Sept. 1 to Dec. 15.
Wilson or Jack Snipe, Black-bellied and Golden Plovers and the Greater and Lesser Yellow Legs, Sept. 1 to Dec. 15.
Woodcock, Sept. 15 to Nov. 30.

CLOSED SEASONS
There is a closed season in Ontario on swans, wood duck, eider duck (the latter may be taken during the open season for ducks on the Hudson Bay coast), cranes, curlew, willet, godwits, upland plover, avocets, dowitchers, knots, oyster-catchers, phalaropes, stilts, surf-birds, turnstones, and all the shore-birds not provided with an open season in above schedule.
There is a closed season throughout the year on the following non-game birds: Auks, auklets, bitterns, fulmars, gannets, grebes, gullinets, gulls, herons, jaegers, loons, murrelets, petrels, puffins shearwaters and terns; and there is a closed season throughout the year on the following insectivorous birds: Bobolinks, catbirds, chickadees, cuckoos, flickers, flycatchers, grosbeaks, humming-birds, kinglets, martins, meadowlarks, nighthawks or bull bats, nuthatches, orioles, robins, shrikes, swallows, swifts, tanagers, titmice, thrushes, vireos, warblers, waxwings, whip-poorwills, woodpeckers and wrens, and all other perching birds which feed chiefly on insects.

No person shall kill, capture, take or molest migratory gamebirds during the closed season. Sale of these birds is forbidden.
The killing, capturing, taking, injuring or molesting of migratory insectivorous and migratory non-game birds is prohibited.

PENALTY
Every person who violates any provision of this Act or any regulation shall, for each offence, be liable upon summary conviction to a fine of not more than three hundred dollars and not less than ten dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both fine and imprisonment.

THE REGAH THEATRE

A FAMOUS JOINT
The Scene of the Annual Dance of the Pat McGraw Pastime Club.

In the first three days of camera work on "Big Brother," Rex Beach's recent serial, now a Paramount picture, Allan Dwan crowded in some of the most dramatic action in the story. He used the old Manhattan Casino, 515th Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City, as the setting for the big dance given by Jimmy Donovan, the leader of the Pastime Club, and had 750 extra people for atmospheric background. The scenes show the workings of gang life in New York and the murder of "Big Ben" Murray by "Cokey" Miller. Tom Moore, Raymond Hatton, Joe King and little Mickey Bennett were the principals used in these scenes.

No more picturesque place in New York city than the Manhattan Casino could have been selected to film these scenes, for in the old days the Casino was one of the principal rendezvous for gangsters. Bullet holes in the doors of the building testify to the dramatic incidents that were regular occurrences whenever a dance was staged.

"Big Brother," featuring Tom Moore, Raymond Hatton and Edith Roberts, will be shown at the Regah Theatre, Hagersville, on Sept. 5th and 6th.

ZANE GREY STORY COMING

The Irvin Willat Paramount production, "The Heritage of the Desert," a picturization of the novel of the same name by Zane Grey, who personally supervised the screen version of his story, will be the feature at the Regah Theatre on Sept. 9th and 10th. Bebe Daniels, Ernest Torrence, Noah Beery and Lloyd Hughes are the featured players. James Mason, Richard R. Neill and Leonard Clapham are among the more prominent players in the support.

WESTINGHOUSE RADIOLA

SETS ARE NOW READY—LATEST STAND AND SETS

The new Radiolas are ready—the last in a radio that virtually revolutionized everything that has gone before. Come in and listen to the best entertainers from all over the continent at the Jarvis Drug Store.

O.A.C. DEPARTMENT CHEMISTRY EXHIBIT

The Department of Chemistry, Ontario Agricultural College, will have an exhibit at Cayuga Fair. This will include results from the Experimental Plots located in Welland and Norfolk Counties, and results of experimental work on potatoes, beans, beets, fall wheat and clover which is carried on in eighteen other counties, including Haldimand County.

An interesting feature will be that any farmer who wishes to have his soil tested for acidity or need of lime can have it done at booth free of charge. The sample, of which a few ounces will be sufficient, should be taken at several points of the field, thoroughly mixed, and a small amount brought to the fair.

The exhibits of results from the lime-phosphate experiments conducted in sixteen counties during the past two years, including Haldimand, are very interesting and instructive. Farmers should see photographs of crops and actual root systems showing how acid phosphate prevents winter killing of clover or alfalfa. Many other interesting features will be present, and much useful information regarding crops, liming, fertilizers, soils and kindred subjects may be had for the asking.

Full information as to the courses conducted at the Ontario Agricultural College, with photographs of the various departments of the institution will be available.

Enquire as to the cost of sending our boy to college!

NOTICE
Those who have been on a prize list for the Cayuga Fair may obtain a copy by applying at the office of G. L. Miller.

CANADIAN TEACHERS FETED AT GUIDHALL

The following clipping, which gives an account of the teacher's reception in the City of London, England, was handed to us by Miss Allen, who has just returned from this interesting trip.

"Two hundred Canadian teachers and undergraduates from the universities of the Dominion visited London's Guildhall yesterday and spent a pleasant afternoon inspecting the Corporation's treasures in the crypt, library, museum, and art gallery. They were received by Mr. Deputy Key (chairman) and the members of the Elementary Education Committee, and conducted to the Council Chamber, where an official welcome was extended to them by the Acting Lord-Mayor, Alderman Sir John Baddeley. Mr. G. W. Parmelee (Deputy Minister of Education for the Province of Quebec, returning thanks, and the teachers would go back and convey to the children under their care some idea of the qualities with which the English people impressed them; their wonderful gift of organization, love of order and respect for law; their unflinching courtesy, and, perhaps, above all, their love of country. Mayor Ferd J. Ney (Executive Secretary of the Canadian National Council of Education) also returned thanks, and Mr. Deputy Key, expressing the pleasure of his committee at being able to act as hosts, announced that several of the Corporation's officials had returned specially from their holiday in order that the arrangements for the gathering might be more complete.

Mr. Allen S. Walker addressed the visitors on the history of the Corporation and the Guildhall, and, after the inspection of the building and its contents, tea was taken at the invitation of the Lord Mayor.

LIU DSE RU IS ON WORLD TOUR

SPOKE AT LUNDY'S LANE METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY—IS DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

Mr. Liu Dse Ru, of Chungking, West China, now in this country on a tour of the world, is one of the big business men of that country. He is reputed to be one of the wealthiest men in China. While in this country he is taking a great deal of interest in the work of the Methodist church, for it was in the mission of that church in West China that he was won to Christianity. He is a thorough Christian, giving liberally of his great means for the propagation of the gospel in his country. He has erected a reading room and street chapel for the Methodist church; founded an orphanage just outside of Chungking, where 180 orphans are fed, clothed, taught and cared for at his expense. He is planning an industrial school for the near future, and it is largely through his initiative and liberality that the native Christian church has become self-supporting. While in this country he is speaking in many places.

On Sunday and Monday last he was at Niagara Falls, Ontario, where he spoke three times in Lundy's Lane Methodist church on Sunday.

On Monday a basket picnic was held in his honor in Victoria Park, and many Hamiltonians came down to the Falls to enjoy this event and meet and hear this distinguished visitor. Mr. Liu Dse Ru is a fluent speaker and is well worth hearing at any time.

Rev. H. G. Roberts, who is the pastor of Lundy's Lane Methodist church, is a former Jarvis boy.

DEATH OF THE WIDOW OF THE LATE JOHN HENNING

WEDDING BELLS

A very pleasant event took place on Saturday afternoon last, August 30th, when Miss Edna Jane Kyerse became the wife of Mr. Arthur Quamby, both of Port Dover.

The event took place in the Methodist parsonage, Jarvis, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Brand.

The happy couple left on a motor trip to Niagara Falls and points east. Returning, Mr. and Mrs. Quamby will reside near Port Dover.

Their many friends wish them a long, prosperous and happy life together.

NEW CAL. GRAPE AN EARLY ONE

Ukiah, Cal.—Promising to revolutionize grape growing in northern California, a new grape has been developed here which ripens thirty days earlier than usual, and thus solves the problem of tremendous losses caused by fall rains.

The new grape was evolved by A. Perelli-Minetti and C. D. Tribuno, officials of the California Grape Products company, after five years' research work and experimentation in vine grafting.

Their first shipment of this year's perfected crop went forward yesterday to the American Fruit Growers' headquarters in New York. The grapes had a sugar content of 24 per cent, and were said to be in every way ready for shipment.

The company is planning to set out 200,000 cuttings next year, and growers familiar with the new vine predict that it will be generally adopted throughout the northern counties as soon as the present vines can be replaced.

Two floral parades were held at the Canadian National Exhibition on Flower Day, Saturday, Aug. 30th.

DEATH OF W. J. LEE; WELL KNOWN HERE

The news of the death of W. J. Lee at St. Catharines on Tuesday of last week, caused widespread regret among his many friends in town.

He contracted an attack of pneumonia a short time ago and this was the cause of his demise. Deceased was in his 63rd year, and is survived by his wife.

The late W. J. Lee was well known throughout the Niagara district having been engaged in the wholesale confectionary business for a good number of years and also took an active interest in various sports. Before removing to St. Catharines, he resided in Hagersville for a number of years and was well known to a respect by all who knew him.

The funeral was held from the family residence, 26 Chestnut Street, to Victoria Lawn mausoleum, at 2 p.m. on Thursday afternoon.

TWO AGED WOMEN AND BABY KILLED

Two aged women and a baby met a tragic death near La Salette Junction at about 1:40 o'clock on Thursday afternoon last, when the buggy in which they were driving was struck by a fast express at a level crossing on the Michigan Central line.

Mrs. Robert Bain, aged about 80 years, was driving from her home at Brandy Creek to La Salette, and accompanying her were Mrs. Jane Phillips, also of Brandy Creek, and the seven or eight months old baby. Where the road crosses the railroad there is a clear view of the tracks for some distance in both directions, and it is thought that either the women were deep in conversation, and, being slightly hard of hearing, did not notice the approaching train, or that their horse became frightened and bolted in front of the speeding engine.

From the force of the impact the buggy was hurled some distance to the side of the road. By the time the train had passed the bodies of the aged women were dead. The horse was killed instantly and the baby smashed to splinters.

Mrs. Bain leaves two daughters living in the vicinity of Brandy Creek and Mrs. Phillips, who was about 70 years of age, is survived by one son, the father of the baby.

The train was an eastbound passenger train, No. 36, and was travelling at around 60 miles an hour.

A similar accident occurred at the same crossing a few months ago.

NO MORE HARVESTER TRAINS TO THE WEST

Montreal, Aug. 27. The C.N.C. today cancelled a harvest train which was to have taken harvesters from Western Ontario, and which was scheduled to leave Toronto on September 3. This was done following an advice from Western Canada that no further harvest labor was needed from the East. There will be no more Canadian National trains this year.

The C.P.R. also announced today that they would run no more harvest trains this year and that tentative plans to run one for Western Ontario harvesters had been abandoned.

About 20,000 harvesters from Eastern Canada, about evenly divided between the two railways, have been taken West, it is stated.
