INTERESTING LETTER —5000 MILE TRIP

MRS. WYATT PERSON GIVES
ACCOUNT OF THEIR TRIP
TO CALIFORNIA

July 20th, 1925.
We left Lundy Smacks, Jarvis, on Monday morning; arrived at Detroit 12 o'clock noon. We were detained there for one hour and a half, had papers of O.K. from American consul, but cost us $16 more to become Yankees. We left Detroit about 2 o'clock and arrived at Kalamazoo at Wyatt's sister, Mrs. Moore's, at 7:30 that evening, covering a distance of 340 miles the first day. We made this part of our trip with Wyatt's brother, Herbert (in his Cadillac coach), who was returning home to Chicago from a visit in Canada July 21st.
Here at Kalamazoo we had planned to buy our car and make our tent for our trip. The boys went down town to look at the different makes of cars and which would it be—a Chevrolet, a Dodge, Reo or Ford. Finally, after calling on all the demonstrators, they decided on a Jewett De Luxe coach. We chose this car for its noted fame in mountain climbing and also four-wheel brakes, which we thought would be beneficial in making our trip, and which proved to be true.
We made our tent and fixed the car for sleeping and spent the balance of the week visiting. Went fishing one day and took in special sights of the city. On the morning of Tuesday, the 28th, we left for Chicago at 8:30. Mrs. Moore and her son Clyde with us. After eating two good lunches along the good highway, we arrived in Chicago at 5 o'clock. Spent a week there at Wyatt's three brothers, where we were well entertained, taking in parks, zoological gardens, museums, and Riverside, the place of thrills, and many other places of interest. After taking Mrs. Moore back home to Kalamazoo we were then ready to leave Chicago for the Yellowstone National Park.
August 4th.—One of Wyatt's brothers accompanied us 50 miles out of Chicago, where we shook hands and they sent us on our way rejoicing. We passed through some beautiful farming country. Plenty of grain threshing and splendid corn crops throughout the state. After covering 150 miles we stopped at 4 o'clock to make camp on the banks of the Mississippi River at Fulton, Illinois. A free tourist camp here.
August 5th.—We broke camp at 7 o'clock in the morning and crossed the 3-quarter mile bridge over the Mississippi River into Clinton, Iowa. Traveled all day through beautiful farming country. They specialize in corn in Iowa—we never saw so much corn before—miles and miles of corn fields. We traveled 180 miles today and still nothing but corn. We had 200 miles of cement road on Lincoln highway out of Chicago. We are now on dirt roads, detours, as the main highways are under construction. Hoping it does not rain as soil is heavy clay. After driving all day we stopped at Marshalltown, Ia., to make camp. Found a splendid free tourist camp. Municipal park, free swimming pool, good fishing, good water to drink and, by the way, plenty of mosquitoes. About 30 cars parking here tonight.
August 6th.—Broke camp 8 o'clock

POPULAR COUPLE "SHOWERED"

On Tuesday evening, November 24, about 70 friends and relatives met at the home of Mr. Thomas Dunbar to shower Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Falloon. The evening was spent in music and games, after which the opening of the many beautiful and useful gifts took place, testifying to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held in the community. The groom replied in a very fitting manner. A generous luncheon was then served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in social chat.

Mr. and Mrs. Falloon will still reside in the neighborhood and their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robb, of St. George, attended the shower and returned home on Wednesday.

This morning and left Lincoln highway and took Custer Battlefield highway. Drove all day and made camp at 4 o'clock at Cherokee, Ia. Covered the distance of 200 miles today. Free tourist camp here.

August 7th.—Left Cherokee at 7 o'clock this morning and covered 200 miles today and made camp at Mitchell, South Dakota. The crups are very poor in S. D. through which we are passing all burnt up, no rain. The camp here is a pay camp but a good one—hot and cold water, shower bath and gas to cook. We stopped and ate dinner today at Sioux Falls, a beautiful park there also. We are getting broke into sleeping on slats without springs in the car. The three of us sleep on upper berth and Leg (Continued on Page 4)

KNOX T.P.A., PORT DOVER GUESTS OF JARVIS Y.P.

Knox Young People's, about 85 strong, spent a most enjoyable evening the guests of the Jarvis Presbyterian Young People on Thursday evening of last week. The program was put on by the Port Dover Society and each number was well received. The Jarvis society served a very dainty end enjoyable lunch at the close of the program. Miss Dorothy Gamble sang very acceptably "Save Your Sorrow," and the Rev. Donald MacInnes gave a most interesting account of a summer spent in the Pelee River district. Jack Cope contributed a vocal solo in his usual captivating style.
A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Jarvis Young People for their generous hospitality and the hope expressed that they might return the visit in the very near future.—Maple Leaf, Port Dover.

CLASS ENTERTAINED

Miss Ina Buckley entertained at her home on Saturday afternoon last the teacher and members of the Sunshine class. After the opening exercises, Miss Vera Schwyer gave a splendid paper on "Words of the Bible." She told of what the words had meant to us in our own country, and how our missionary carried these words to the people in foreign lands and the Mypah Benediction.

Then a splendid program was given as follows: Recitation, "Face Upon the Ballroom Floor," by Lillias Evans; reading by Vera Murphy entitled, "Country Born;" recitation by Phyllis Metcalfe entitled "Living;" reading by Violet Bassinda entitled "And If." Then a couple of character sketches were given, also special singing by the class. The meeting closed with singing "God Save the King," and the Mypah Benediction.

Then the hostess served luncheon, after which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Buckley and her daughter for the splendid way in which they were entertained.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Ethel Nis on Dec. 12th.

IS IT WIND, OR WINED

The doctor said to the poet, can you rhyme on wind;
The poet said he could, if he had never sinned.
If I was crushed beneath my load,
You would say I was pinned,
And if I was a cotton batt, you would say I was ginned;
But fill me up with good 4.4 and you would know I'm ginned.
For I would try to sing like the once famous Jennie Lind.
When you asked the question, you thought you had me skinned,
But a poet is no poet if he cannot rhyme on wind.
—The Village Poet.

THE MAGIC CARPET

Once upon a time in the mystic land of Persia, there was found among the treasures of a king, a wonderful carpet. One had only to sit on it, wish to be somewhere, and always the carpet would fly till the wished-for place was reached. For hundreds of years it carried kings and princes upon the most amazing adventures. No one knows what finally became of it, but it may be that its last threads went into the make-up of the first Youth's Companion. For, like the magic carpet, The Companion for 1926 carries you to the land of your heart's desire—up into the Maine woods with the lumbermen; out on the western plains, where the warlike Navaho Indians live; far up into the gold regions of Alaska; and away on the Southern Seas in search of treasures and lost islands. All you need for such extraordinary adventures is a young heart and a Youth's Companion. Don't lose time in getting started; subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1926, and
2. The remaining issues of 1925. All for only $2.
3. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $2.50.

CHURCH NOTES

WESLEY UNITED CHURCH

The Young People's League will meet on Friday night at 8 o'clock. We have added a new feature to the program, which is a character sketch, adding much to the interest of the meeting. This week the service will be conducted by George Haslett, topic by Homer Trossdale, and the character sketch by Wm. Macell. Everyone is welcome.

Practicing for the S. S. Xmas entertainment is going on merrily and the program promises to be the best yet. It will be held on Tuesday evening, Dec. 22nd. Please reserve the date.

The pastor's subjects for Sunday next, Dec. 6th, are:

11 a.m.—"The People Who Always Fail and Those Who Always Succeed."
7 p.m.—"A Bright Spot in Human Experience."

U are welcome.

AT REST

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Whalen occurred last Friday morning at the home of Miss Simon.

Mrs. Whalen, formerly Miss Wilkinson, was born in Woodhouse Township in 1838. After her father's and mother's demise she made her home with the late Charles and Elizabeth Simon. In 1873 she married John Walen, taking up their home in Woodhouse, where she lived until his death in 1918. One year later she left the farm to make her home with her brother William in Port Dover. She remained there until his death. Three years ago, in September, she came to Jarvis to reside with the Misses Simon.

Mrs. Whalen's kind and loving disposition won love and affection by all who knew her. Her one thought, to be cheerful, to do good, and not trouble anyone.

The funeral service held at Misses Simon's on Sunday, Nov. 29th, was largely attended. Rev. Higginson, of Hagersville, assisted by Rev. H. Brand of Jarvis, conducted the service, taking for their text the 14th Chapter of St. John and the 2nd verse. St. Paul's choir assisted by singing "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

The remains were conveyed to St. John's Church cemetery at Charles Brown's Corners, Woodhouse.

C. S. McCarter, C. Brown, Dr. Lewis, Wm. Bailey, A. Marr, and A. Ineson acted as pallbearers.

BAZAAR AND SUPPER

A bazaar and supper under the auspices of the United Church Ladies Aid will be held in the town hall, Nanticoke, on Friday, Dec. 4th. A Sale of home cooking, candy and fancy work. Lunch served from 3 to 6 p.m., 15c; supper from 6 to 8 p.m., 25c.

CARD OF THANKS

The Misses Simon wish to express their sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors for the sympathy and kindness shown during their recent bereavement.
