TAKE Your Time

A lot of Stores say — "Hurry and Rush"—"So Many Days Before Christmas"—"Get It Over With"—"Not for me," said a big fisted, red-blooded man, "I must keep up the spirit of it—I like the throngs—the contagious good humor." We agree with him.

Glorious Days in the Land of Make-Believe

—THE GREAT TOY DISPLAYS—

Everything is going beautifully. Good Old Santa Claus has never in this district had such a choice or so many dear little Children inquiring about him, and they have asked for so many things that he will be very busy from now until Christmas morn. But he just loves the work. He says the jolliest thing in life is to make other people happy, especially the Children. Bring them to see the wonderful Dolls—the things that fly and things that float — and things that run and things that "work" in the cunningest kinds of ways. Toys that teach — Toys that amuse and Toys that satisfy.

—Falls' Department Store, Simcoe.

"What a pleasure it is to shop at Falls"—so say the people

The Store of Thousands of Gifts is not to be "done" hurriedly. Come in the morning — come any time, and browse. No store within fifty miles of Simcoe has ever shown such Christmas Gift stocks.

A Gift from Falls' is worthy of your truest Friend
