Kitty Danced—And Now She Pays

She is tall and slender, with quick, blue eyes and hair that is very definitely Auburn. Bobbed up-to-date. Yet her up-to-date health, dances and parties, cold and more sick spells brought on what her mother might have foreseen had she lived.

No, you can't blame Kitty. Her youth, her precocity and her parents were false friends to her. She is only 18. Another year in the kindly case of the Muskhog Hospital for Consumptives, where expert medical attention and nursing are given, will perhaps see her restored to health and usefulness.

Contributions may be sent to Hon. W. A. Charlton, President, 222, Queen Street, Toronto 2, Ontario.

We Have a Great Deal to be Thankful For

With the kind permission of our many friends we ask for the privilege of a minute or two at the closing of 1925 for a short conversation with them.

Falls Store cannot, New Year's Eve, put on its night clothes and go to sleep without paying to the people their just due for the generous excess of confidence and support bestowed upon it in the recognition they have given our endeavours to surpass all previous efforts. WE HAVE FAITH IN NORFOLK.

It is plain to be seen that others besides ourselves have discovered there is a new scenery moving upon the stage of commercial and agricultural life in good old Norfolk.

The spectacle of trade during the Christmas month makes it clear that you have appreciated our efforts as indicated by the many, many more customers we have served, and to their entire satisfaction, we believe—owing to the absence of furies, fuss and impatience usual to over-crowded places.

It was only possible by the co-operation of each separate individual inside the store and outside of it.

Therefore everyone who helped is entitled to the grateful praise and hearty thanks these words are intended to convey to you.
