Organization Completes Co-iv (Plans For Publicity W Give Attention to Points All Towns Along Route Behind Movement — Wi Gives Striking Address.

With nearly $5,000 of the fund subscribed or pledged by every place of importance route from Windsor to Niagara enthusiastically behind the the Southern Highway Association Wednesday afternoon, Jan. officially got away on its gram of boosting the beautiful mile driveway along the north of old Lake Erie among the United States or, as Adams, president of the B Highway Association, aptly "selling the attractions of Southern Ontario to American Plans were formulated for a publicity campaign inaugurated out delay, it being general that an early start should in order to have everything in place for the opening of the traffic. C. M. McPherson of the "daddy of the organization" undertook to accompany E. M. Webb of Kingsville, to I arrange with the officials of the Motor Club for the contribution of the association and the directing of tourists to the route, while S. R. Allen of Welland and S. Colter of Cayuga, were to visit Buffalo and Niagara Y., and make similar arrangements. J. O. Lundy, past president of the Motor Club, relieved the tion of visiting the Windsor He assured them that if the Route Literature is placed in the Motor Club's office at the dock, every American motorist that office this year will a copy. To show his good the good feeling he has for new organization, Mr. Lundy ed a membership ticket as arrived. While he could not authoritatively he said he dent that a movement would ed in Windsor and a fund assist in the good work of the Essex Motor Club itself w to adopt a neutral attitude icy was to show no favoritism any particular route but motorists with the information desired, irrespective of w might take them.

Great Revenue Source
Mr. Lundy heartily endorsed work planned by the organization. The importance of the Americanist traffic had been too long in Ontario. The fact that reports showed it to be the largest industry in the Dominion should be sufficient to this on every season. A alone exceeded the tourist year and it prospects for Lundy looked for the tourists to

During the past few years of dollars have been invested by Americans, Mr. Lundy said. Every year Canada out great sums of money to people across the line on this has borrowed. The government showed that from the traffic more money was collected Canada than Canada had from the Americans. Her means of balancing accounts (Continued on Page
