Foreman—Peter Banks

The newly organized brigade was asked to size up the present equipment and to suggest what in their opinion would be needed to make same more efficient. It was decided to call a meeting of the brigade for Tuesday night and the meeting was brought to a close.

On Tuesday, July 14th, the officers and members of the brigade gathered at the fire hall, when the equipment was given the once-over. GREAT SEND-OFF MINISTER GIVEN

REV. H. L. ROBERTS LITERALLY SHOWERED WITH GIFTS—CHURCH CROWDED

Nagara Falls, Ont., June 30—Lundy's Lane United Church of Canada was filled to capacity last night with a congregation representative of several denominations who had gathered to bid farewell to Rev. H. L. Roberts, pastor of the church for the past seven years: who leaves today for Brantford, Ont., to assume charge of the Colborne street United Church in that city.

Rev. Mr. Roberts was literally showered with gifts from every department of the church as well as from individual members and the Niagara Falls Hockey Club in which he took a keen interest all of which were accompanied by the warmest tributes and expressions of good will in his new field. The various clergy on the platform were warm in their praise of Mr. Roberts, both from the standpoint as a citizen and a minister and "regret" was the keynote of every speech, in his departure from this city. Seldom has any man in the city been given such a send-off which was a manifestation of the high esteem in which he was held by all classes in the community.

The meeting last night commenced with the singing of the hymn "The Church is One Foundation," followed by prayer by Rev. D. A. Walker.

DR. SNYDER, CHAIRMAN

Dr. G. B. Snyder was chairman and referred to the rapid progress Mr. Roberts had made in the ministry since his graduation from college 11 years ago and how during the seven years he has been pastor in this city of one of the most historical churches in the Dominion he had endeared himself to many and had become so closely associated in the tender ties of religious life with the parishioners and their families. Mr. Roberts is an energetic man, and it is hard work which helps to put anyone on the map. He is a kind man and kindness is one of the greatest gems of the human characters. He has a great deal of natural intelligence; he is a great reader and a deep thinker and his good looks add materially also his charming manner. His laugh cannot be imitated.

WONDERFUL TRIBUTE

Rev. H. L. Thornlie, pastor of the Union Church said: "It is a wonderful tribute to any minister to have such a large gathering as this is tonight, following the large congregations Mr. Roberts preached to on Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Roberts can well be compared to the figure of "Great Heart" in Pilgrim's Progress. I am glad you have had such a man as Mr. Roberts in your midst for seven years, and from what I have heard and what I know of him, that seven years has not been any too long."

Rev. D. A. Walker said: "I am here to pay tribute to Mr. Roberts and to bid him farewell before leaving for another city. Mr. Roberts' pastorate has been a unique one, as under the system of Methodism, the maximum term of a pastor in any one place was four years, but Mr. Roberts has been with you for seven years. It is a great compliment to the man and to the congregation. If I was looking for a church and found that a minister had stayed seven years in one place, I would not turn down that church and if I was on the official board of a church and knew of any minister remaining seven years in one pastorate, I would not hesitate in trying to secure his services."

REV. BARBER TALKS

Rev. Dr. James Barber, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, said: "Rev. Mr. Roberts has been an all around good fellow. He has been an indefatigable worker in every good cause in the church and community and his term of seven years in this parish speaks for itself. The old system before the United Church went into effect was to change the pastors every three or four years, but now as pastor of the United Church in Brantford, Mr. Roberts will have to stand pat and it may be a good thing for him. Mr. Roberts has been an excellent citizen and one of his most outstanding features is his cheerfulness, a very valuable virtue. Whenever anyone felt downhearted, to meet Mr. Roberts and hear him laugh was like a ray of sunshine and the whole aspect would change."

REV. MR. PLANT SPEAKS

Rev. Mr. Plant of the Gospel Tabernacle said he had known Mr. Roberts for only eighteen months, as he was a comparative stranger, but found he possessed a personality of good fellowship which could not be equaled in a clergyman. "We are saying goodbye to one of the best men I have ever had the pleasure of meeting. (The late for last issue)

HOME AGAIN

I'm sorry I can't be with you, But I'm too far away To take the trip again so soon, So I'll have to answer "Nay."

But I'll be with you in spirit, And hope you'll think of me, As you gather in sports and worship, And enjoy those cups o' tea.

The weather, I trust, will be pleasant, The friendships renewed will be sweet, As you rally from East and rally from West, And schoolmates and comrades meet.

You'll talk of the old red school-house And memory will carry you back To the days when you carried your burdens In a little leather book-sack.

Since then, our ways have parted, We o'er the world have strayed; And some have crossed the Border, But memories do not fade.

We think of their kindly interest, In all things true and good, And we'll give them all the honour That a thankful people should.

But I must not detain you, You have other friends to see, Put, I hoped, that you would like A greeting sent from me.

For it surely carries with it A smile and a clasp of the hand, And also heartiest wishes That the Reunion will be just grand.

—Margaret E. (Kenney) Guild, Sovereign, Sask., June 23, 1925.
