FATAL FALL DOWN ELEVATOR SHAFT

George Desborough, of 455 West-ninth street north, Hamilton, was found lying in a semi-conscious state at the bottom of an elevator shaft in the Fowler Canadian Company's plant, of that city, at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday last. He was removed to the General hospital in the police ambulance and died a few minutes after being admitted. Desborough was an employee of the company. Another employee heard Desborough's voice on the floor below, as he started the elevator. When it arrived he fully expected the man on it, but he was no where in sight. Investigation showed that he was lying at the bottom of the shaft. It is assumed that he was attracted by something and stepped into the shaft, thinking the elevator was level with the floor.

Desborough, who was in his 48th year, came to this country from England several years ago, and was a resident of Jarvis some 19 years ago. His daughter, who is in New York with a theatrical company, was notified of the sad accident.

REMINISCENCES OF NANTICOKE SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

ADDRESS BY MR. C. E. BOURNE AT THE OLD BOYS' REUNION AT NANTICOKE

I have been requested, as one of the oldest living settlers of Nanticoke, to give some reminiscences of 75 years ago. It is a great pleasure for me to be here, and I deem it an honor to be asked to recall before this gathering some of the pioneer days of this district.

I came to Nanticoke in the beginning of 1850, and there was no road from Jarvis, except around by the then Plank Road to the "Dog's Nest," as the side road was not then open. The trees, for the width of the roadway, were cut down, but were not burned off, and there was only a sleigh road through the woods in the winter.

There were fairly good sized clearings along the Lake shore, between the centre side-road and the Woodhouse town line. Most of the farms between these points had been taken up and occupied in about the year 1830 by a number of Old Country gentlemen, numbering in all about ten or twelve families, mostly young men, well educated, and all possessing a fairly good supply of this world's goods. As at that time these parts were noted as a veritable Huntman's Paradise, these being a great number of deer, bears, wild turkeys, partridge and other game, and being only a short distance from Long Point market, where it was common to see the best wild duck shooting in the world, I think these facts were a great inducement for them to locate here. The most of these parties remained here for some years, and as most of them were not "cut out" for successful farmers, they eventually moved away and took up other occupations, and many of them afterwards became prominent business and professional men throughout the Province.

As many of these present may remember some of these families, it might be of interest to them to mention the names of some of them whom I remember.

Lot No. 1, Walpole, was owned by Capt. Wade, who was an old Sea Captain. He had several sons and daughters, and I am glad to see many of his descendants with us today.

Lot No. 2 was owned by a family named Moore, who lived there for a few years and then moved to New York, selling out to Mr. Jackson, who had a large family, many of whom are with us yet.

No. 4 was owned by the Neerer family, five or six brothers and two sisters. They built a very comfortable house and out-buildings on this farm, and also a grist mill and a saw mill in Nanticoke, which were of great benefit to the community, who before had either to carry their flour and feed, or bring it by boat from Port Dover, as the roads were at times almost impassable. This farm, No. 4, was in 1851, purchased by Col. Nathaniel Low, who was an old Army Officer, and was in the army of occupation after the battle of Waterloo. His eldest son, Hamilton Low, married a daughter of Col. Wilson, of Simcoe, who was the first Grand Master of the Masonic order in Ontario. Another son, N. E. Low, was at one time a member of the Walpole council, and was a Provincial Land Surveyor. Both he and his wife are buried in the churchyard here. Their youngest son, Arthur Low, was for a long time an active worker for the good of the community of Nanticoke, and is now living in Vancouver. (Continued on Page 5)

CORRESPONDENTS

RENTON

Miss Lola Burch is home on her holidays for two weeks.

Mr. A. Doherty was helping Mr. M. Schilt shingle a barn belonging to J. Austin. He had been carrying up shingles and just sat down to commence to shingle, when he expired in a few seconds afterwards. Heart failure was the cause. The funeral was largely attended on Wednesday last; interment took place at Oakwood.

Mr. James Osborn, of Lynaville, was helping draw wheat to the machine and was pitching on in the field when a shower came up, when the man on the load told him to get on the load and ride up. Mr. Osborn said no, that he could beat him to the barn. So he ran across the field and just got over the fence, when, as it was supposed he expired instantly. It was noticed that he wasn't in the barn. They began to search for him and found him lying with his face to the ground. Interment took place at Lynaville and was one of the largest funerals that has been held in years in that neighborhood. Mrs. Osborn is a sister to Mrs. Chas. Lemen of Rockford. Mr. Jas. Shaw and family of Buffalo, N. Y., attended the funeral. He is a cousin and formerly lived at Tyrrell.

Miss Margaret Osborn, of Toronto, is visiting at her parents for a short time.

The Chaucery Mincer corner has been excavated and fixed up so as to prevent another accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Bateson, of Detroit, are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Kitchen.

Mr. A. Steinhoff and Mr. J. C. Woodruff paid a flying visit to Hamilton on Tuesday.

Mr. Lea Zimderman has returned to help Mr. Robert Winter in his evening.

Mr. Urson Woodruff made a hurried trip to Port Dover on Monday evening.

NANTICOKE OLD BOYS' REUNION

VILAGE OF NANTICOKE ENTERTAINS OVER 2000 VISITORS EVENT GRAND SUCCESS

Long will Nanticoke's first reunion be pleasantly recalled as fond memory brings the light of those three happy, joyous days around the Old Boys and Girls—yes, and around the present residents as well. Now the greatest event in this picturesque fishing and farming village's long history is history itself, but in the years to come Nanticoke's both at home and far away will turn to this record and live over again in imagination the gladness incidents of Old Home Week, July 19, 20 and 21, 1925.

A report in last week's issue of The Record described in detail the Sunday services in the Anglican and United churches, where Rev. Chauncey Snowden, Dallas, Texas, and Rev. Charles Livingston, Los Angeles, California, were the respective preachers. Both the churches were so crowded that many were turned away. People present from large cities accustomed to good singing declared that the solo by Miss Myrtle Hare, formerly of Nanticoke and now of Toronto, was the best contralto singing they had ever heard. Miss Hare sang in the Anglican church, where there were two choirs, one a volunteer choir and the regular gowned choir. Visitors from a distance declared that they had never witnessed or heard a finer service in any metropolitan church. The special services on the United church lawn Sunday evening, which attracted the largest congregation ever assembled here, has been described in last week's issue of this paper.

So, too, have Monday's ball games for prizes aggregating $100. The concert Monday evening attracted a $190 crowd. More would have been present but the villagers had previously witnessed the presentation of the rustic comedy-drama, "Deacon Dubbs," by the Nanticoke Dramatic Company under the direction of William C. Harris. Those who saw the play were enthusiastic in their applause and praise of it, and expressed themselves as most pleasantly astonished at the clever histrionic ability displayed by the cast of local actors and actresses. Raymond Williams of Simcoe, so delighted his hearers by his singing that they demanded several encores. Miss Winters, Port Dover, granddaughter of Rev. Hiel Wood, Springfield, Ont., oldest Old Boy at the reunion, gave a recitation in a manner that caused an instant request for another. The Melody Boys' orchestra, Simcoe, provided enjoyable music. S. A. Thompson officiated as chairman.

Over 1000 people attended the final event of the reunion, a picnic held in Hickory Beach park. It was the largest and best outing ever held in the village. The program was arranged and provided by the Old Boys under the chairmanship of J. Frank Walker of Hamilton, and there was not a dull moment throughout the day. Music pleasing to the ear was rendered by the Port Dover band. Mrs. Turner's, Miss Winters' and Master Turner's recitations evoked hearty applause. Charles E. Bourne, a veteran resident of Walpole Township, read an interesting history of the village prepared by himself. It appears elsewhere in this issue. Rev. Hiel Wood in an appropriate address took his hearers back over a period of Nanticoke's early history more than 70 years ago, when he lived here.

A program of stunts and novelty contests provided much fun for the crowd gathered about the platform. These contests resulted as follows:

Shampoo Contest—1st, Mr. J. J. Parsons and Mr. Kunsse; 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker.

Horse Race—Cecil Hodge's horse.

Boys' Balloon Race—Graydon Fields.

Ladies' Soap Race—Mrs. Turner.

Boatleggers' Race—Vivian Turk.

Girls' Balloon Race—Margaret Walker.

Ladies' Nail Race—1st, Selkirk team (Mrs. Hurst, captain); 2nd, Nanticoke team (Mrs. Butcher, captain); 3rd, Hamilton team (Mrs. Stammers, captain).

Hat-Trimming Contest—1st, Mrs. Hoebel; 2nd, Mrs. Stammers.

Rain, which descended shortly after a free supper had been served to everyone on the grounds, put a damper on the evening program, although it failed to dampen the spirits of the merry-makers. During the evening E. M. Harris, Prosecuting Attorney, (Continued on Page 4)

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

KNOX CHURCH

Those who heard and enjoyed the solo work of Miss Myrtle Hare at the service in the Anglican church, Nanticoke, during the Old Boys' Reunion, will be glad of another opportunity to hear her again. Miss Hare, who is soloist at Central Baptist church, Toronto, has kindly consented to sing at the morning service at Knox church this coming Sunday. This is something no one should miss and all are cordially invited to be present.

Morning Service, 11 a.m.—Subject: "Good Citizenship."

Evening Service, 7 p.m.—Subject: "The Seven Deadly Sins—The Sin of Slothfulness."

WESLEY UNITED CHURCH

Misses Wilma MacMunnay and Ines Lundy, who represented our Young People's League and the Sunday School at the summer school held at Normandale, July 6-18, will give their report of the same at the League on Thursday night of this week at 8 o'clock. Everybody is welcome to this interesting service. Come and bring your friends.

The lawn social to be held on Tuesday night, Aug. 4th, on the lawn of Mr. Christie, by the ladies of the Garnet United church, promises to be a great event. The splendid program to be given is most attractive and the Felix orchestra, of Hagersville, will make things lively.

Sacramental services will be conducted on Sunday next, Aug. 2nd, both at Wesley United church at 11 a.m. and at Garnet 2:30 p.m. All the members are asked to be there and others are cordially welcome.

At 7 p.m. a special song service will be enjoyed by all. Come and take part in this splendid meeting.

The Official Board of the Circuit will meet on Monday night at 8 o'clock to transact important business. All the representatives are requested to be present.
