CHURCH NOTES

WESLEY METHODIST
Notwithstanding the bitterly cold day last Friday, there were about 50 women of this village, representing the three churches, gathered at the United Service of Prayer for Women. Each woman did her part well; thus adding another link to the chain of common sisterhood. The service was both interesting and inspiring.

Prof. Brown, of Victoria University, Toronto, delivered a splendid sermon on Education last Sunday night.

That up-to-date play, "Martha Made Over," that our Young Peoples League are giving on Friday night, March 20th, promises to be one of the events of the season. Get your tickets early and avoid the rush.

On Saturday afternoon last, the officials of this church met in session and transacted some important business. Among other matters the following letter was read and it was voted to be sent on to the Parliament Buildings, Toronto. It reads as follows:

"To Our Representative of Haldimand County, Dr. E. N. Berry, M.P.P., and to the Honorable Howard Ferguson, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ont.

"We, the official members of the Methodist Church, Jarvis, County of Haldimand, Ontario, assembled in session on February 28th, 1925, with a view to presenting our protest against any change made in the Ontario Temperance Act, that would weaken the Act by the use of beer containing 4.4 percent of alcohol. We are convinced that such beer is intoxicating, and demoralizing.

"Inasmuch as the Premier of Ontario pledged his honor to the temperance people in October, 1924, that if the plebiscite in favor of the O.T.A. were sustained, he would strengthen on any weak places in it, and would see that the Act was duly enforced.

"Since the Act was sustained by a majority of more than 30,000 votes, we now call upon the Premier to fulfill his pledges.

"Signed on behalf of the Methodist Church, Jarvis, Ont.

"H. Brand, Chairman,
"Henry Johnson, Secretary."

COW TESTING IN HALDIMAND

MARKED IMPROVEMENT SHOWN IN ALL BREEDS DUE TO RECORDS KEPT OF INDIVIDUAL COWS

Oxford County's fame is established as a centre of the dairy industry of Canada and the home of several of the best milk and butter producers of the North American Continent.

Haldimand County is fast going ahead as a dairy centre. With the building of larger creameries which are capable of handling twice the quantity of milk and cream, and the enlarged foreign market which has been a boon to the dairymen, all this has acted as a stimulus to the industry, with the result that the producer takes more interest in the amount of milk that his cows produce.

It has been proven by statistics issued by the O. A. C. that a cow that doesn't produce 6000 lbs. of milk a year is a boarder. This means that she must produce 20 lbs. of milk a day for 300 days of the year to pay for the feed that she consumes. All for the feed that she consumes. All for the feed that she consumes.

That a cow must produce between 9,000 and 10,000 lbs. of milk of average percent fat to be a profitable animal. These bald statements have led the farmer to look his cows over, and between the scales and the Babcock tester, lead many a fine looking animal to the slaughter.

Aided by the Government and the O. A. C., cow-testing associations have been formed whereby the farmer may have his cows tested periodically for a nominal sum and the results kept for the farmer's benefit. This work is done by a supervisor appointed.

The Ayrshire, Jersey, Holstein and Shorthorn breeders have a record of performance test where whole herds are entered. Supervisors call once a month to weigh and test samples of milk taken and thus base a yearly record on the results.

The Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada and the United States have had for some time, a short-time test called "Record of Merit," usually 7 days, 14 days or even 30 days. These tests are under a supervisor appointed by Prof. Dean, whose figures are to weigh sample and test the milk and send to the department the results, which are kept and recorded by the Holstein-Friesian Association.

Several of the biggest Jersey cow records that have stood for years, were made in Haldimand County.

The Shorthorn breed are forging ahead as a dual-purpose cow. These records have made this possible. Especially around Caledonia will be seen some of the finest specimens of this breed.

The Holstein breed is being developed as never before and the end is not yet in sight. Last year Elmerest Ormsby Payne, a mature cow, owned by W. H. Cherry, Hagersville, produced over 38 lbs. of butter in her best seven days under official test.

Last week there was concluded a seven-day also 14-day test (with H.

Howard Krouse was married to Miss Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Davidson, on February 21st. On the 27th their friends gave them a shower, and judging by the number of very valuable presents they received, they have a great many friends, as the young couple are very popular.

Billie Watson furnished the music in the usual way Billie does it. They all dispersed "early" and wished them a long and happy life together.

Miss Carrie Andrews is home with scarlet fever. She is one of the teachers at Hagersville. Miss Andrews seems very unfortunate; she was at home for two weeks with the numps just a short time ago and now she will likely be home for a month.

The earthquake is causing a lot of talk just now.

Miss Pearl Edwards is spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Fearman, Hagersville.

We were very sorry to hear of the severe accident that befell Mr. John Thompson, of Hartford, on Saturday. John used to be one of our old neighbors.

(Too late for last issue)
We have been getting plenty of rain lately; everybody's cistern ought to be full now. The water in the creek was very high, running over the road.

She twice hit 90 lbs. of milk a day and produced nearly 25 1/2 lbs. butter in seven days. Her 14-day record was equal as good as the seven, showing a persistency to respond to care and feeding. Such records as these are hard to duplicate in Ontario and not in the Niagara Peninsula.

YOUNG PEOPLES GUILD HELD SOCIAL EVENING

The Young Peoples Guild of Knox church held a social evening on Thursday last, Feb. 26th.

In spite of the inclement weather there was a very good attendance, and all present enjoyed themselves greatly. A feature of the evening was a novel guessing contest. Around the walls hung questions, the answers to which gave the names of well known Jarvis people, and much amusement was caused by the attempts to find out who they were.

A program consisting of the following items was also given: Recitation, "The Well of St. Keene," Miss Doris Ineson; duet, "Come Back to Erin," Mrs. Guiler and Miss McCarter; instrumental selections, Mr. Hoover, Miss Florence Horne and the Misses Muriel and Alberta Davidson.

Following the program and contest, supper was served, after which the meeting closed by singing the doxology.

SUDDEN DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

Word reached Jarvis of the sudden death of Mrs. (Dr.) Bennett, a former resident of this village.

Mrs. Bennett, who was making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Barber, at Brooklyn, New York, was on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Cameron, in Baltimore, Md., and while there was suddenly taken ill and died there on February 18th. The body was taken to Brooklyn for burial.

Windsor, Feb. 27.—Missing from his home at Harrow for more than two days, the body of Dr. Charles Boyd, a veterinary surgeon of that village, was discovered late last night lying in a field a short distance outside the village. Dr. Fred Park of Amherstburg, who investigated the circumstances today, decided an inquest was unnecessary. Dr. Boyd, besides his widow, leaves two sons.

Deceased, before locating in Harrow, was a resident of Jarvis and occupied part of the residence of Miss S. Hind.

February a Great Month For The Simcoe Business College

During the month this school received nine calls for office help, seven of which were filled. The other two were for thoroughly trained, experienced stenographers, none of which were available. If you are a graduate of this school and want a better position, get in touch with the Principal.

Mr. Basil Ferris, who wrote the February Examination, goes to Listowel as stenographer with the Black-wood-Hamilton Furniture Company. Monday morning four students enrolled, a record for March. This now puts the enrollments at this school well over the hundred mark. Students admitted at any time. You can pay more but you can't buy more.
