STALLWOOD-SEVENPIPER

A pretty wedding took place at 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, Nov. 4th, at Lake View Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. McCullough, Lansdowne, Ont., when Miss Freda Irene Sevenpiper was united in marriage to Mr. Wilbert James Stallwood, both of Jarvis, Ont., Rev. J. O. Baron officiating.

The bride was unattended. She wore a pretty gown or pencil-blue crepe satin and carried a bouquet of pink opelia roses and carnations. The bridal party entered the drawing room as the Bridal Chorus (Lohengrin) was played by Miss M. McCullough.

After the ceremony, the wedding party retired to the diningroom where at a very prettily decorated table, in pink and white festoons daintily arching the bride's lake, luncheon was served to twelve guests.

The bride received a number of pretty and useful gifts.

After luncheon the happy couple left for Toronto and Niagara Falls by motor. On their return they will reside at Jarvis, Ont.

DECEMBER ROD AND GUN

A wealth of good sporting and hunting reading matter leavened with a good fiction story, The Way of a White Man, is contained in the December issue of "Rod and Gun," the magazine of the Canadian Outdoors, which has just been published. In addition to regular features of the magazine being in keeping with the period of the year, the other articles are very timely and Along the Snowshoe Trail in W. C. Motley's Outdoor Talk is particularly seasonable. Another refreshingly humorous cartoon by James Frise also appears.

An interesting article in connection with the increasing interest in fur farming is Bonnycastle Dale's contribution. The Life of the Black Fox, dealing with the animal in captivity.

A significant note in the matter of the protection of game is struck in the December editorial and the publication of the syllabus of the British Columbia Game Protective Association. The development of a Dominion wide protective association seems to be becoming more concrete. Published by W. J. Taylor Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

CHURCH NOTES

KNOX CHURCH

It was a big day in church history when the Antiochan church decided to embark on a missionary campaign amongst the Jews outside their own land, but it was a bigger day still, a day fraught with momentous consequences for Christendom when Paul and Barnabas decided to devote themselves to work amongst the gentiles. "Lo, we turn to the Gentiles," said Paul; words that meant the opening of a larger work than ever before. If you want to know why this occurred, come on Sunday morning next, and hear about it in "The Sin of Unresponsiveness," another of the series of sermons on "The Acts of the Apostles."

At night time the subject will be Paul's ideas on marriage, as seen in 1st Corinthians, Chap. 6.

11 a.m. — "The Sin of Unresponsiveness."

7 p.m. — "Marriage as Paul Saw It."

ST PAUL'S CHURCH

The work on the Rectory is almost completed, and all who have seen it are pleased with it. The rear portion has all been rebuilt, the kitchen remodelled and a new bathroom installed. The cost has been considerable — more than was expected — but the church folk will see it through as they always do.

Last Friday evening a farewell was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Betts. They are leaving this week for their home in Ireland, and as they have been such faithful choir members, the least that could be done was to give them a send-off. All of the 22 members of the choir were present save two, who were hindered by sickness.

Mr. Jeff Bourne gave a short address and said, "How greatly they would be missed." Canon Piper also said a few complimentary things.

The evening was pleasantly spent in games and community singing, and was closed with the National Anthem.

WESLEY UNITED CHURCH

Lawyer Frank Reid, of Simcoe, gave an excellent address on Sunday morning last in this church.

He stressed the great United Church of Canada; with its possibilities, needs, and wonderful opportunities. He assured us that the separate individual denominations could never accomplish the task of evangelizing this land and this world. He declared all the protestant churches believed and taught the same essential truths, and the tendency of the age is for Union for in Union is strength.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Henning on Tuesday afternoon next at 3 o'clock. A good program will be given.

It has been decided to hold the Xmas entertainment for this Sunday School on Tuesday evening, December 22nd.

The pastor's subjects for Sabbath are:

11 a.m. — "Good Tidings."

7 p.m. — "A Wonderful Offering."
