THE PASSING OF ANOTHER PIONEER

One by one the pioneers of Jarvis and district are slowly passing away. The links that bind the present with the past are snapping and soon the early settlers of this district will be but a memory.

Few remain with us now of the men and women who built up the district, made homes, and settlements in this neighborhood.

These thoughts were forcibly brought to mind by the death of Mr. Robert Miller, who passed away on Monday last, the 23rd inst., after a short illness.

The late Mr. Miller was in his 90th year. He was a son of Robert Miller and Margaret Ware, and was born at Preswick, Caithness, Scotland, where he spent his boyhood years.

At an early age he was apprenticed to the shipbuilding trade; leaving it in 1854 he joined the Royal Navy and served there till 1870. Retiring from the Navy in that year, he emigrated to Canada in 1861, and for eight years he was captain on the Great Lakes.

Leaving the water in 1869, he went into partnership with his brothers on a farm, working with them until 1875, when he took up land for himself at Nanticoke, on the farm now occupied by his son Robert Miller, Jr. In 1908 he moved to Jarvis, where he spent the rest of his days, being predeceased by his wife 4 years ago, and also by one daughter.

"Uncle Bob," as Mr. Miller was familiarly known, took his share in everything that helped the district in which he lived. He was a member of the Walpole Council for a number of years, and for 15 years occupied the position of President of the Walpole Fire Insurance Company.

He was a man of the strictest probity and honor, and was respected by all. A staunch Presbyterian, he ever delighted to be present at the services of the kirk, and few Sundays saw his seat vacant. In politics a Liberal, he yet was broad minded and tolerant, and could see good in every man irrespective of creed or political affiliations.

His kindly nature and cheerful disposition created for him a host of friends, and his passing leaves a gap in the community which will not easily be filled.

He is survived by one son, Robert of Nanticoke, one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Lee of Toronto Township, Peel County, and one brother, Alec of Port Dover.

The funeral service was held at his residence on Main Street, on Wednesday, Nov. 25th, at 2 p.m., and was largely attended. Rev. W. T. Brown conducted the service and paid a tribute to his character. "He was a man who possessed noble qualities, qualities that will long be remembered. His faithfulness, simplicity, and openness of life, his trust in an all wise Providence, are things that marked him out as an example to the rest of the community. 'He being dead yet speaketh'."

The remains were interred in Knox Church cemetery, Jarvis.

The following acted as pallbearers: John McKenzie, Magnus Banks, John Thomson, A. S. Blight, R. W. Smith and R. A. McCarter.

CHEAPSIDE W I

The first regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of the president, Miss Stillwell, on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 17th, with 18 ladies present.

The Institute was re-organized with 8 members and now has 20 members on the roll.

The meeting was opened with the opening ode, after which the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were then read and adopted. The first item of business which was taken up was repairing or the sidewalk west of the village from Mr. Cronk's to Mrs. Silverthorne's. The members decided to give dinner to the men when repairing sidewalk.

Then Mrs. Geo. Pond gave us an excellent paper and talk on "How to Impress on Our Boys and Girls the Spirit of Honor and Clean Living."

She brought out some very splendid thoughts of how fathers and mothers should be very careful in all their dealings as the boy and girl were watching them.

The Program Committee for the next meeting are as follows: Mrs. Sandy Schwyer, Miss Mary Day, Miss Leitha Greenbury and Eva Loft-house.

The meeting closed with singing "God Save the King," after which the hostess served lunch.

The December meeting will be held at Mrs. S. Britton's on Dec. 15th. Topic, "Xmas Cheer."

CHURCH NOTES

KNOX CHURCH

Knox Church Christmas Tree and entertainment will be held on Friday, December 18th, 1925. All those interested are asked to make a note of the date.

What is it that best tests a man's character—Success or Failure? Some say one thing, some another. Next Sunday morning the subject for the morning service will be the story of a man who in a few short hours experienced all the range of human experience possible. In the morning worshiped as a god—in the afternoon stoned—in the evening comforted by a little company of choice souls who understood. Surely the experience can hardly be matched in history. How did he stand it? If you want to know what Paul did in those circumstances come and hear on Sunday morning.

Have Christian rights that they must not exercise? Are there certain things that they must abstain from? What law should they obey? These are all questions that are live questions today. They have always been live questions. They were discussed in the early days of Christianity and Paul paid particular attention to them. He discusses them in I Cor., Chap. 8, which will be the study for the evening service. The Rights of a Christian—are they always to be exercised?

11 a.m.—"Brave and Humble."

7 p.m.—"My Rights and the Rights of Others."

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Last Sunday at both the morning and evening services the congregation stood in silence while Miss Rogers played the "Dead March." This was done out of respect to the Queen Mother. At the evening service the hymn "For Thine are the Sea" was sung in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Regina Betts who are on the Atlantic.

St. Paul's Church bell will toll on Friday from 12:30 p.m. to 12:45 p.m.—this being the hour of the Royal Funeral at Westminster Abbey, London, England.

Next Sunday Major Piper preaches the annual sermon to the Garrison Troops of St. Catharines and vicinity. Mr. Bourne, Jr., will have charge of both services in St. Paul's Church.

BAZAAR AND SUPPER

The St. Paul's chhreh W. A. will hold their annual bazaar and supper in Peacock's Hall, on Thursday, Nov. 26th. The sale of fancy work and home cooking starts at 3 p.m.; supper will be served from 5:30 to 8 p.m. This will be an excellent opportunity to do your Xmas shopping.

UNFILED CALLS AT ROBINSON COLLEGE

During the last ten days several calls have come to the President of the Robinson Business College, Waterford, that he could not get as all graduates to date had been placed. Two of these positions were of a very high order, but while we had good material coming on, we had not the finished product.

If you want the very best in a Commercial, Stenographic or Secretarial training, arrange to enter by Dec. 1 if at all possible in order to be sure of graduating by the end of June.

Telephone 98, Waterford, or write the President, O. U. Robinson, for full information.
