The directors are busy this week preparing the grounds for the School Fair, special events and a horse judging ring.

The society have also purchased a west end entrance for stock entering from the Peacock road, which will be a great improvement and prevent congestion at the main entrance.

LIBERALS HOLD POLITICAL MEET

A meeting in the interest of Thos. Marshall, Liberal candidate for Haldimand, was held in Peacock's hall on Tuesday evening, with a fair-sized crowd in attendance.

The meeting was addressed by the candidate, also by Colonel Thompson and Wm. Hamby. Gordon Miller acting in the capacity of chairman.

All speakers touched upon the issues of the campaign. However, the main speaker of the evening was Colonel Thompson, who in a very interesting and able manner outlined the policies of the Liberal party and contrasting them with the two other political parties. In concluding his address the speaker emphasized the fact that the tariff was the main issue at stake and urged the voters to consider the issue from a business point of view. They had to choose either between a high tariff government, or a government of tariff for revenue only, and felt positive that the latter policy would appeal to the voters.

Among the many gifts received were a couple of easy chairs from the members of King Solomon Lodge, No. 329, Jarvis, in which lodge Mr. Hair has been a valued member for 50 years, and a Past Master.

The presentation address was made by T. J. Parsons, D.D.G.M., of Brant District. A suitable reply from the recipients was heartily received.

Other congratulatory addresses were made by Dr. W. M. McGuire of Simcoe, J. J. King of Port Dover, Dr. Lewis and R. A. McCarter of Jarvis.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN WALPOLE RESIDENT

WAS ACTIVE WORKER IN ALL BRANCHES OF CHURCH WORK AS WELL AS IN EVERY CAUSE FOR GOOD OF COMMUNITY. IN WHICH SHE LIVED.

One of Port Dover's noblewomen has passed to her great reward and the whole community bows its head reverently at the passing of one who was beloved and respected by all.

The late Mrs. Best was the eldest daughter of Benjamin and Esther Martin, and was born in Walpole December 7th, 1842. As a girl she attended school in that section after which she assisted with the many duties that befell the farmers family in those by-gone days.

She was married in 1864 to John Henry Best, of Walpole and they made their home on the 6th concession, Walpole, where they remained until 1906, then moving to Port Dover having purchased a residence on Chapman street.

Mr. Best died in November, 1911. A family of five sons and four daughters survive: John Henry Best, of Windsor; William B. Best, Port Dover; George A. Best, of Waterford; Charles E. Best, of Port Dover; David O. Best, of Smiley, Sask.; Mary C. Best of Port Dover; Mrs. Herbert Crowe, of Ruthven, Essex; Mrs. Burtonhouse of Selkirk; and Clara E. Best, Port Dover. There are also twenty-two grand-children and five great grand-children.

The late Mrs. Best was an ardent church worker and she loved the Church to which she belonged. She associated herself with all the various departments of church work and she set an example to all in her regular attendance at the services every Lord's Day. It is interesting, too, to note that the land for St. John's Church, at Cheapside, was deeded to the church by her grand-father, who was also an ardent church worker.

During late years ill health compelled her to remain at home, but her enthusiasm for her church never waned and she worshipped reverently in her own home.

The funeral took place on Tuesday last and was attended by many citizens who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect. Her, rector Rev. D. J. Cornish, L-Th, of St. Paul's Church, Mr. Cornish spoke very touchingly of the life and example of the deceased and his words were followed by all present.

Following the service at the house a short service was held at St. John's Church, Cheapside, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Lamb and interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. Walker, Jas. Vokes, Will Richardson, James Sloan, E. P. Bagley and A. W. Evans.—Maple Leaf, Pt. Dover.

A cordial invitation is extended to all friends in Jarvis and surrounding district to be present and enjoy this opportunity of hearing the Rev. Mr. Roberts.

CHURCH NOTES

KNOX CHURCH

Despite the threatening weather there was a very good attendance on Sunday last at both services. The Rally Day service in the morning was enjoyed by all present. The children's choir contributed special music; the sermon was specially for the young folks, and dealt with God's call to service and consecration. In the evening the opening address in a series on 1st Corinthians was given by the minister, who dealt with the founding of the church and the lessons in the opening verses. This series, it is hoped, will be very interesting and helpful, and the one way to get real benefit from it is to attend regularly and follow the great apostle in his line of thought.

Services will be as usual on Sunday next:

11 a.m.—"The New Commandment"
7 p.m.—"The Folly of Divisions in the Church, and the Preaching That Counts."

The Knox church bazaar and supper will be held on Saturday afternoon, October 31st.

WESLEY UNITED CHURCH

The Hamilton Conference of the United Church of Canada will be held in the First United church in the city, commencing Monday at 2 p.m. William Henning and the pastor are delegates for this circuit.

The anniversary services of this church will take place on October 1st at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Rev. F. W. Bready, of Hagersville, will be the special preacher for the occasion. Special music will be rendered by our own choir.

DEDICATED TO C. E. BOURNE, ESQ., JARVIS, ONT.

By his appreciative nephew, Frank Turner, Montreal, P. Q.

September 14th ninety years ago today God placed on this earth a small form of clay Not of the cold and slimy sort But a pure, clean, good, jolly sport.

And throughout all these long years There has been a laughter and tears His joys and comforts with others he shared And faced all troubles as a good man dared.

Many long years of this good useful life Were shared with an equally good loving wife. Who some years ago was laid to rest in the sod, And he bowed in submission to the will of his God.

His friends are legion and all wish him well, Congratulations and many more years to dwell.

To scatter the sunshine and goodness around, Which in his good life doth plentifully abound.

So I'll drink to your health, dear old C. E. B., If I can't get anything stronger, will do it with T. God bless you and keep you for many a day, As staunch to the end, I earnestly pray.
