HON. J. S. MARTIN VISITS JARVIS LODGE

J. J. Parsons, D.D.G.M., Presented With Regalia

The members of King Solomon Lodge, No. 329, A.F. & A.M., Jarvis, were honored at their usual monthly meeting on Friday last with the presence of the Hon. J. S. Martin, Minister of Agriculture, and Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge in Canada, in the Province of Ontario, who paid a special visit to the lodge for the purpose of investing R. W. Bro. J. J. Parsons with the regalia of District Deputy Grand Master of Brant District No. 9.

Following the usual business, Rt. Wor. Bro. Parsons was invested with the regalia of his office by the D.G.M., who in a few well chosen words expressed the pleasure it gave him to have the opportunity of performing this ceremony.

After the ceremony a luncheon was served in the banquet room, when the Hon. J. S. Martin gave a very interesting account of his recent visit to the Old Country. In an interesting and graphic way he brought before his hearers a picture of the old land; paid a splendid tribute to the stoicism of the British people in the recent great conflict. He described the changed conditions in the business and the agricultural world, and expressed the opinion that the system of "the dole" was one of the reasons of the present depression. The payment of out-of-work insurance, he felt, led to men losing a desire to work when they could get enough to live on from the government. He also touched on the problem of immigration, pointing out that Canada with her great areas of land formed an ideal place for emigrants of the right sort. He concluded by expressing the opinion that in spite of the difficulties that confronted the Mother Country, he was confident that she would find a means of solving them as she always did.

A very hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker on the motion of Mr. J. J. Parsons.

RENTON

Mr. P. Woodruff and Mr. Murdock of St. David's spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Woodruff. On their way up, just at the Duncan quarry, their motor cycle struck a hole in the road and the frame struck the edge of the hole and swerved the machine to one side and upset. The machine landed on top of Mr. Woodruff and he was pinned down until assistance came. He sustained injuries to his ankle, but was able to proceed on his way after cleaning up a little.

Mr. Ezra Burch and family are leaving for Detroit after their sale on Thursday of this week. Mr. J. C. Woodruff has leased his farm.

A number of people are patronizing the cider mill at Renton. They are getting their cider made early so as to avoid the rush.

Mr. H. Blake is the registrar for No. 3 Polling Division.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hair celebrated their golden wedding last week. They had a number of callers and quite a few nice presents.

Messrs. Bruce Hair and Wm. Watson helped to furnish the music for the fair at Simcoe. If the boys had their choice between eating dinner and having some music, I am sure they would say "music."

Mr. Thos. Pawl fell and had a rib broken. He is getting along nicely.

FIVE CALLS FOR R.R.C. GRADUATES AS TEACHERS

During the last three weeks, Mr. O. U. Robinson, President of the Robinson Business College, Limited, at Waterford, has received five calls for experienced Business graduates as teachers at salaries ranging from $300 to $1200 a month. Three of these calls came from the Shaw Schools at Toronto. Two Waterford graduates, J. Neville Jones and John E. McKelvie, have already been engaged, and two others have been recommended. The other calls came from the Niagara Falls Business College and the Ontario Ladies' College of Whitby, for immediate service, and we have been able to place Miss Mary McClellan into the latter position.

One hundred and eighty people have enrolled with the Robinson Schools at Waterford, Brantford, Dunnville, and Norwich since September 1, and new students are entering every week. We particularly desire Ex-teachers, Normal graduates, and Matriculants for the best positions, but will accept a limited number of those not so far advanced. A branch of raspberries of the ever-bearing variety were handed into us on Tuesday. The berries were grown by N. Balkwell and the branch in question was just loaded with berries (about 80 in all) and quite a number of them were ripe. It is quite unusual to have ripe raspberries so late in the season.

ROCKFORD

Ernie Richards, of Hamilton, visited at his home here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanderson, of Boston, spent Sunday at the home of their daughters, Mrs. Ralph Godling.

Our boys and girls were fortunate in getting so many prizes at the annual school fair held at Waterford recently.

The report of our school for the month of September will be published in the next issue of "The Record."

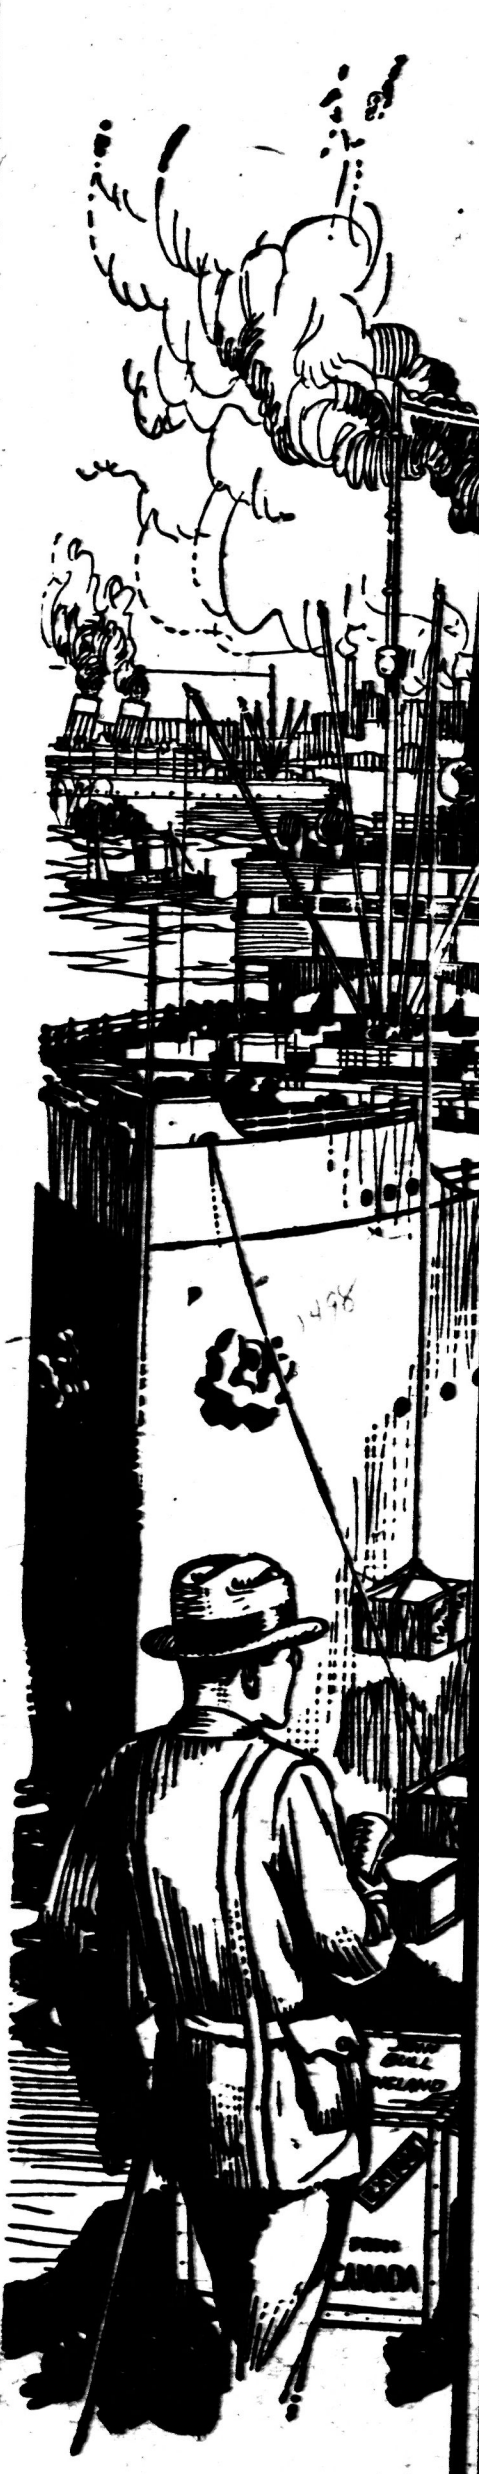

HONORABLE MENTION

The October, 1925, issue of the Gregg Writer, the most widely circulated Shorthand and Typewriting Magazine published in America, has the following to say concerning a graduate of the Simcoe Business College: "The article 'Raspberries of the Ever-Bearing Variety' in 'The Record Progress,' is a gem. It is a gem in the history of the school. If you desire the best enroll with this school. Students are admitted on any Monday morning throughout the term."

In view of the remarkable typewriting records obtained by the students of the Simcoe Business College it is no wonder that its typewriting class this term is the largest in the history of the school. If you desire the best enroll with this school. Students are admitted on any Monday morning throughout the term.

Quality

The most urgent requirement in Canada's Agricultural Products

CANADA produces every year large quantities of wheat, oats, barley, butter, cheese, bacon, beef, eggs, apples, potatoes, grass seed and clover seed that she cannot consume. Her natural outlet for these products is, of course, Great Britain—the one great consuming country of the world with an open market.

Unfortunately, nearly every other country with any surplus of food products seems to want to send its surplus to this same market.

The keenness of the competition on this, our only market, and the energy and resourcefulness of our competitors began to impress themselves upon the Department of Agriculture some time ago, but it is only within very recent years that the real and only way to grapple with this problem has been discovered, or at least put into effect. This Department now believes, as do also most of the farmers of this country, that the "grading" of our agricultural products is the point and place that is seeing us through the struggle and will assure us of our place on the British market.

"Grading" means the classifying of products, whether they be hogs, butter, cheese, eggs or anything else, into what might be called in the general way "BEST," "GOOD," "FAIR" and "POOR" classes.

These exact words are not used in describing the grades, but that is what is meant. The purpose served in grading is threefold—

(1) Educational. When the producer sees the relative quality of his product he is spurred on to maintain that quality if it is the "best" or to improve the quality where necessary.

(2) Fair Play. When products are not graded the inferior article for various reasons often brings as much as the superior article, and the credit and advantage of putting a superior product on the market is lost to the one who really deserves it.

(3) Facilitating Trade. The dealer learns to have confidence in the article he is buying and buys more freely, because it is guaranteed by grading, and grading everybody gets to know what the article really looks like or tastes like. In short, grading brings about standardization and ensures to the producer the best price.

Canada now grades her cereals, grass seeds, hay, potatoes, apples, eggs, butter, cheese, wool and bacon hogs. The results have been in every case beneficial and in some cases quite markedly so, even though the grading system has been in effect in some cases for only two or three years, thus—

Cheese—Grading began April 1st, 1923. Canadian cheese the year before had fallen into such disfavour on the British market that New Zealand cheese was quite commonly preferred. Today Canadian cheese commands cents per pound higher than New Zealand.

Butter—Grading began same time as for cheese. The reputation of our butter was then indeed at low ebb. Canadian butter today, while not the best on the market, is rapidly improving in quality and gaining in reputation.

Hogs—Over two years ago the Department of Agriculture began to grade live hogs at the packing houses and stock yards. The 10% premium paid by the packers for "select" hogs has been an incentive to "thick smooth" hogs as against departmental graders has done much to improve the quality of our hogs and develop the bacon industry.

Best Canadian bacon, which ordinarily was quoted two years ago from 10 to 18 shillings a long hundredweight below Danish, has gradually grown in the estimate of the British wholesale buyer until it is now sold at only from 10 or less to at most 5 shillings below the long hundredweight of the best Danish.

This improvement in price is, of course, due to quality and has come about very gradually, the spread narrowing down by a shilling or two a month until now it is not at all a rare occurrence to see a best Canadian selling on a par with the Danish article.

Canada was the first country to grade and standardize eggs. These grades and standards apply not only to export, but also to domestic trading.

The basis is interior quality, cleanliness and weight.

Standardizing Canadian eggs has established confidence between producer and consumer and between exporter and British importer, and has resulted in a greatly-increased demand for the Canadian egg both at home and abroad.

Other products might be mentioned where grading has worked to the great advantage of the producer and to the advancement of Canadian agriculture.

Already Great Britain recognizes our store cattle, wheat, cheese, eggs, apples and oats as the best she can buy.

It is for us to so improve our other products, particularly our butter and bacon, as to bring them also into this list of "the best on the British market" and consequently the highest priced.

Grading enabled us to do this for cheese, wheat, eggs and apples.

Grading is helping us to do it for butter and bacon.

Quality Counts

Quality is thus the first objective for the Canadian export trade, and, then steady, regular supply. It is along these lines the Department of Agriculture is working by educational methods and the result of this policy is seen in the growing volume of Canada's agricultural exports. Look at these figures—
