A DELIGHTFUL GATHERING

Those who did not care to dance amused themselves in other ways to their hearts content and what an animated scene the whole affair portrayed with the deepest interest and joviality interwoven.

This gathering was formed with a view of acquainting one with another. Only yesterday most of them were strangers, today they are next to "old pals." Congeniality is the road to true friendship and happiness and such pleasant intercourse as this is the force that binds the bonds of comradeship. During the evening a beautiful piece of Highland Scottish dance was given by the Misses Ellen Meagher and Kathleen Sullivan and elicited much applause from the crowd. They did their "bit" as perfectly as any star of the tipichorean stage could perform. Mr. Edward Sullivan was "call off" man for the square dances and made himself solid with the dancers. An impromptu programme was first mooted for the evening to come in piece by piece between the dances but this could not be arranged in time. Had this been carried out many talented singers would have enlivened the evening including the singing of Mr. William West, who recently went on an American tour with the famous Mendelssohn Choir of 250 voices that stamped it as one of the finest choral organizations in this universe.

The fun was kept up unintermittingly throughout the evening and before breaking up at a late hour a dainty lunch was served then all dispersed in happy smiles the waiting arms of Morpheus.

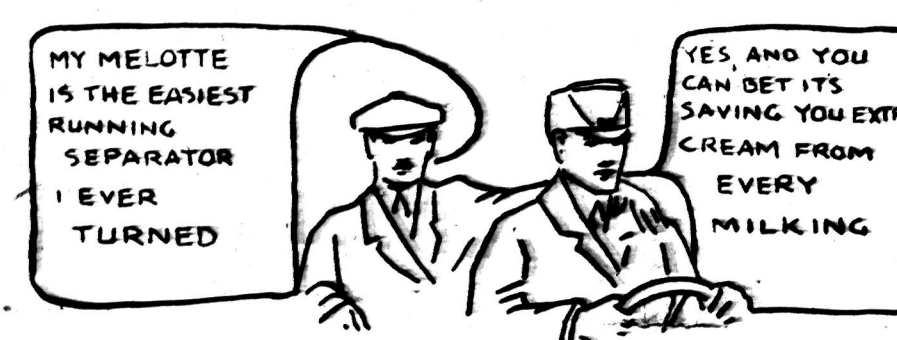

Our readers will see by the appended list below, as alphabetically arranged, many former residents of Jarvis, who were there to enjoy the "once over." Mr. Garfield Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barrett, Mr. G. Brown, Miss Kathleen Bradley, Mr. Lawrence

Barton, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Davies, Mr. Harold Davidson, Mr. R. S. Edwards, Miss Florence Ferguson, Mr. Gordon Ferguson, Miss Grace Harris, Mr. Robert Harris, Mrs. F. Lint, Mr. David Lawrence, Mr. S. #### Break Fasting Recording.

Otto Klein and Max Kramer have set a new world's record for fasting—46 days—one day more than the record of Herr Jolly, the previous record holder. But Jolly accumulated $20,000 during the fasting period, while Klein and Kramer risked ruining their health for life for almost nothing. They were in a glass case for public view in a restaurant, but after the Jolly case and two or three later fakes the public has lost interest in professional "fasters." They have both recovered to normal.
