OBITUARY

Temple-Mystic Shrine Order, and a life member of the Zenith Chapter No. 25 Order of the Eastern Star, all of Duluth.

Besides his wife, one daughter, Janet, of Carleton College, Northfield, Minn. and three sons, John C., attending University at Madison, Wis., William C., Jr., and Robert, at home, are left to mourn. There also survive two sisters, Mrs. R. E. Somers, of Simcoe, and Mrs. B. Coyne Allen, Jarvis; also three brothers, Robert, and Charles, of Jarvis, and James, of Ipswich, South Dakota.

The funeral took place from his late residence on Monday April 19, at 2 p.m., to Knox Church Cemetery, at Jarvis, where interment was made in the family plot. The large attendance of friends and relatives and the many beautiful floral tributes spoke eloquently of the esteem in which Mr. McCarter was held throughout this district. Rev. W. T. Brown, pastor of Knox Church, Jarvis officiated, assisted by Rev. (Dr.) A. L. Howard, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Simcoe. During the service Mr. Leslie Hearts sang a very fitting solo, "The City Four Square." The honorary bearers were: Dr. Jacques, William J. Falls and John J. Parsons, Jarvis, Dr. W. A. McIntosh, M. M. Smith and H. F. Innes, Simcoe.

The active bearers were: S. Craig Evans, Guelph, John McCarter, Welland, John Lindsay, Hagersville, Alexander Duncan and D. Coyne Allen, Jarvis, and Bruce Waddle, Simcoe, while the floral bearers were: H. A. Johnson, Thomas Muir, George Luscombe, Dr. George E. McGuire, and Dr. Julian S. Boyd, members of the Masonic and Rotarian organizations, Simcoe.

Those in attendance from a distance were: Judge James W. McCarter, of Ipswich, South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. S. Craig Evans, of Guelph; Mrs. D. Fraser, Tupperville, Ont.; Mr. John McCarter, Ingersoll, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Tulloch, Mr. Jarvis Roebuck and Mr. G. Tulloch, Wallaceburg; John McCarter, Welland; P. E. and Mrs. Reicheld and Chas. and Mrs. Reicheld, Fisherville.—Simcoe Reformer.

MAY ROD AND GUN

A wide variety of subjects in the field of the outdoors is covered in the May issue of "Rod and Gun" which has just been issued. In connection with the opening of the camping and fishing seasons, the current issue of the magazine contains a number of interesting articles which should prove of value to those planning to visit the woods or stream. The regular departments of Fishing Notes and Outdoor Talk carry articles particularly appropriate to the season. Bonnycastle Dale's contribution to the May issue is a novel one, giving sportmen an insight into the commercial side of fishing for mackerel. Raymond Thompson presents an interesting article on Jasper National Park and a fiction story "Never Say Die" by Harry M. Moore. "Rod and Gun" is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.
