Blunders and Blunderers.

Not all the sins of orthography can be laid to the printer. When Horace 'tis two 'tis fifty: and fifty 'tis 'tis two;" thus turning to nonsense Polonius's sage. "'Tis true 'tis pity; and pity 'tis 'tis true," he rushed to the composing room to meet an obdurate Scots printer who recommended him gathers up some of these lapses:

ing speeches, and I gave him a few of up.

the would do his utmost to keep life dog? The world was full of them. He in his body until the last, and he would not have hesitated to shoot a would fight if le bon Dieu gave him the opportunity. In this mind he lay killed his chickens.

The of thing you make the dawn so one particular life is that at which came early in the cahin and hoped for sleep.

The hoped for sleep.

The

ridge had no outlets for his spiritual There is a story of a German printnounced.

In spite of his steady nerves the forcing his eyes to look muo muse of hair at the back of his neck prickled, the dog. They did not waver—Lafor he would have sworn that some rocque imagined that the animal knew for he would have sworn that some is also the case of the index judge, Lord Eldon. The index had it, turning to the page indicated, we read

Remembered Oak O that green, enchanted hill

In old England far away. Crowned by a mighty oak tree Under which I used to play!

Played with leaf and acorn cup All alone: watched a white cloud Through my castle's leafy roof. Pray, dear oak-thoughts do not crowd!

Oak-thoughts I cannot sing them Too deep in my heart you hide Like that song of long ago I heard with heart at your side.

An anthem in an oak tree Played by zephyrs softest touch! A grateful child remembers To give homage, owing much.

Days were fair, stout-hearted friend, Where we sang, where we belong, And your blessings a glad child, With your treasures, make my song. -Ida Crocker Duncan.

His Only Chance.

"Hang it!" he said, "fve tried all my clubs on this abominable ball. What on earth can I do now?"

Sun Causes Fire.

The sun shining through a reading. sistent than before, crowing into his he struggled to gather again his glass in the shop window of Mr. mind like a snake.

ression that contributes most to the hanginess of all. The Duchess of

The Price of Life

BY WILLIAM MERRIAM ROUSE.

within reach of his hands. For, allown life with that of the dog.
though greatly weakened and unable in the depths of his mind the to stand, he believed that he could thought had turked, and it had held master his enemy if once he could back his hand from making use of the master his enemy if once he could back his hand from making use of the master heating of school rooms.

The uneven heating of school rooms lay hold upon him.

to attend night school and learn to his wound with a dampened cloth, and and closed his eyes to shut out the write. To-day the typesetter has the he had permitted himself to drink sight of Boule. convenient excuse that the machine freely because of his great thirst; but Life! How he wanted more of it! opened, and when the window is opened to cool the realized that on the next day he The final great rebellion against death ed to cool the room the resulting draft "A friend was complaining to me in spite of the hope essness of the shaken as with a chilf. the other day of his difficulties in mak, outlook, he had no thought of giving He drew his hunting-knife and con-

the examples of opening which after in his body until the last, and he would not have hesitated to shoot a the fact that Cole-

energy was altered into: 'Coleridge his pocket for a match as he moved to do what he had to do. And after had no cutlets for his spiritual energy.' to the edge of the bunk and waited, the thing was done there would be a The scraping sound became more pro- fire to make.

to make him be her (Nexr) fool. Per haps the best of all printers errors was that in which a printer had to an nounce to the world that it is struck from the gleaming the dog by the scruff of the neck.

The light struck from the gleaming the dog by the scruff of the neck. The light struck from the gleaming the dog by the scruff of the neck. The light struck from the gleaming the dog by the scruff of the neck. The light struck from the gleaming the dog by the scruff of the neck. The light struck from the gleaming the dog by the scruff of the neck. The light struck from the gleaming the dog by the scruff of the neck. Taken in the Crimes.

Co. expects to the world that the animal knew his purpose. It would have been easy builting was moving in his bed, and at his purpose. It would have been easy the place of a heavy bunting knife. Suddening the dog by the scruff of the neck. Taken in the Crimes.

Co. expects to the world that the animal knew his purpose. It would have been easy to be placed to kill him.

The reached out a hand and grasped in the great row in the dog by the scruff of the neck. Taken in the Crimes.

Co. expects to the world that the animal knew his purpose. It would have been easy the place to kill him.

The reached out a hand and grasped in the great row in the dog by the scruff of the neck. Taken in the Crimes.

Co. expects to the world that the animal knew his purpose. It would have been easy to be placed to kill him.

The reached out a hand and grasped the dog by the scruff of the neck. The reached the match. The reached out a hand and grasped the big purpose. It would have been easy to be proved the placed to kill him.

The reached out a hand and grasped the big purpose. It would have been easy to be proved to kill him.

The reached out a hand and grasped the big purpose. It would have been easy to be purpose. It would have the purpose in the great had been the purpose. It would and stabbed again before it once, and closed his eyes.

sleep until dawn awakened him.

somewhat different. Boule, hungry, The bar danced in its sockets. Hope whined and paced restlessly; pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the modern city conditions. It is not misty beauty of the dawn, amid the it carefully) for each number and grew greater, and the half dozen small across the room. The door swung of them without family association, ing night, floats this mysterious, wistdrinks which he allowed himself were inward.

ity for life. When the thought first to attack like a man. occurred to him he put it away with a Larocque knew that death was a Impossible he would have called it if did not regret his rejection of the one with flying colors, anyway." he had deigned to put his opinion into means which would have given him words.

Candid was the reply given by a cadBut before night of that third day While Larocque looked and waited, the of his clan. His master's ball was he was not so sure, for the stomach, the face of Dinelle changed. In one badly bunkered, and try as he might all-powerful organ, had compelled his on those little fragments of time he couldn't get it out again. At each attention to the idea. The longing which the senses cannot measure he foozled shot he set his teeth tighter would have given all that he owned, then sank out of sight behind the puff and grew more and more purple in the to the last cent, for a ragout made by of smoke with Boule's weight upon his face, until, after a quarter of an hour's the skillful hands of his wife. More chest. excavation, he stopped and wiped his over, he was of a mind to consider as The thud and heave of straining bo-

"Why not eat the dog?" his brain as his weakness slowly but could have come only from a human "Gle it a swat wi' yer bag," said the perceptibly grew, and as the devils throat. of hunger pinched and prodded and He tried to drag himself to the door jected the thought; and yet it came in both. Through the quiet moments back always stronger and more per- that followed the end of the battle

George Harper, optician, Woking, is By nightfall of that day he was so Then Boule backed into the cabin, believed to have been the cause of a torn between his ravening desire for dragging after him the pack of Dinbelieved to have been the cause of a food and his repugnance at the means elle as he had been taught to fetch the fire which destroyed the window dis- of obtaining it that he did not even pack of his master. His white teeth lift dis head when the last of Dinelle's worried the canvas until it ripped Health, after character, is the pos planks over the window. Ordinarily floor—bread and cold pork, a flask and he shouted defiance after each shot so a tin of molasses.

that Dine e would know he lived and But before Gedeon Laroeque laid therefore fear to force an entrance. hands upon the life-giving food he He had grown feverish, and that flung his arms about the neck of his night he did not sleep. All through dog and wept unashamed not with the hours of darkness he dreamed joy that he had escaped death, but Greedey saw that he had been made to rocque invented and rejected plans for which he had cherished, enduring cold, door air, warms it, and diffuses it quote Shakespeare to the effect that getting Dine into his clutches despite his resolution not to save his equally. It is unfortunate that this wood for heat. There remained enough Through the day Gedeon had grown to cook with-a bed of coals and a somewhat stronger. He had washed grilled bit of meat. He shuddered vites colds. The reason is a lack of

had been inflicted in his side the and he would be too weak to save his life by this method even now it He sat up. His hand reached into would take his last ounce of strength

They proved to be sound as to chink- the rasp of a tongue against his cheek. Into the far regions where his soul ing, and after a few moments La- had retired came sounds that were rocque retired for the second time—to real. They drew him back to consciousness and he turned his head toto sniff at the door or to nose his he drew himself to an elbow, believing too much to say that no great commaster's hands in sympathy.

The days of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing coursed in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing course in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing course in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing course in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing course in the veins of Gedeon, and the indeed restless, pausing course in the veins of Gedeon restless, pausing course in the veins of Gedeon restless in the veins of Gedeon res In Larocque the longing for food broke and the bar leaped half-way great numbers of young women, most down the darkening loveliness of compected moments, but without damage. swung slowly until it pointed at the creational and educational opportuniinto the triumphant eyes of his enemy. Times. It was on the third day, Wednesday, So the coward, encouraged by long the he perceived his single opportun-silence, had at last mustered courage strength to meet this, knife in hand food anything that could be eaten. dies came to Larocque. He heard the rare battle snar's of Boule, and once, That was the question that beat in just before they ended, a cry that jabbed. For a hundred reasons he re- to raise his voice to a shout, and failed

PART II.

Leblanc and Mme. Larocque both thought that he had gone into the mountains to remain until Saturday, the day of the signing of the contract. No one knew his last-moment decision to make a short prediminary trip.

Yesterday had been Monday, and it would be the following Monday before his wife even would worry, knowing as she did the unexpected delays that a man in the forest often meets.

He had, then, a half pail of water and not a morsel of food for a week. Even in the full power of his usual strength it would have been hard to exist for a week on such rations.

Of course given strength he manufel hrown head against the knee of La.

Even in the full power of his usual strength it would have been hard to exist for a week on such rations.

Of course, given strength, he would have charged out of the cabin at an opportune moment, as he had planned the night before, and it would have been strange if Albert Dinelle's finger upon the trigger had not been paralyzed with fear. The cunning devil must know that the prisoner was wounded—how else account for his found difficulty in getting upon that day Gedeon Larocque invented and rejected plans for which he had cherished, enduring cold, and the time in a room unit and the spent the spent the time in a room unit and the spent the spent

The uneven heating of school rooms depending upon window ventilation inoverheated, the children's pores are Yet even now is again recording its serted, probably bound to the end of a down with his face buried in the great solvation.

The song of this bird is a single, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches burit. Size 36 thin stick, between two logs where neck of the dog. He knew that unpoetry was emotion recollected in sustained note, beginning as a planis requires 3% yards 39-inch material. where to a life of the famous English the chinking had either fallen out or consciousness was hovering close to tranquiblity. I will not discuss how sime, swelling into full tone of deson- Width at lower edge about 76 inches. consciousness was hovering close to tranquismry. I will not usefuls how him, and yet he was at peace.

Simo, swelling into this tone of desonant power, and sweetness, and tapering into nothingess. One who is followed. So that was the cause of his mys-. Better to die thus and now than to it is true for books on leading. The secret of distinctive dress nest terious wound! As quickly as his condo the thing which he had lifted his should be the result of long observational lowing a trail through the dark-forested in good taste rather than a lavish ex-"Lord E'don said he had a great mind the bunk, and ripped away the board things as they were, while mists swept then the attorney for contempt that served as a side piece. This he before his eyes and noises that had no of calm and contemplation, and brings in regularly from different directions. that served as a side piece. This he before his eyes and noises that had no placed along the crack through which existence in fact sounded in his ears. of calm and contemplation, and brings It sounds like a vibrating bell tone and the home dressmaker will find the placed along the crack through which existence in fact sounded in his ears. It sounds like a vibrating bell tone and the home dressmaker will find the the knife had appeared, and after. After what seemed a long time, that sense of leisure and repose for ringing from the temple towers of tall designs illustrated in our new Fashion the knife had appeared, and after. After what seemed a long time, ward he lighted a candle and inspect- Boule moved, gently, and Larocque's which, in these days, we are more and firs, and drifting down the fragrant Book to be practical and simple, yet ed the walls in the neighborhood of head lay upon the bare floor. He felt more grateful.—Viscount Grey of Fal-

The Y.W.C.A.

This day was like, and yet unlike, ward the source. Hazily he saw the the preceding. It was the same in its door of the cabin shivering under the to form some other society to under visitor may need to listen long and contributing to its economic life and ful iterated music telling of remote less than enough. The tobacco in his pouch began to run low.

Dinelle fired three times, at unexportant or attack. The riffe that he held creational and educational connormation of the held creational and educational connormation. For the first time in his life Gedeon body of Larocque.

Larocque knew the suffering of hun
Gedeon looked along the barrel and matters as employment.—New York

"Oh. well." said the painter as he fell off the scaffold with a bucket of shrug, as unworthy of consideration. matter of seconds away, and yet he paint in each hand, "I'm going down

Unvarying Quality That is why people insist

Touch but with gentlest finger the crystal that circles the Mari-

To the East and the West how ! drifts, and trembles, searches on every side! But it comes to its rest, and its light lance poises only one self-same

Since ever a ship spread her marvellous sea wings, or plunged her swan-breast through the spray-For North points the needle!

Ye look not alone for the sign of the lode-star; the lode-stone, too forever, and one is compelled through the sphere. What! and ye chide not the futtering magnet that seemeth to fiv the fealty's stlent oath-As North points the needle! From "The Selected Poems of Edith

M. Thomas."

Varied Thrush.

In the Pacific Coast regions extending from Yakutut Bay, Alaska, to Humholds County, California, lives a beautiful hird known as the Varied Thrush. It is about the size of a robin, and is often called the Alaska Robin. But it is a shyer, more exquisite bird then the robin. According to leading ornithologists, it is not found in other parts of America.

It is at once distinguished by its lovely orange-brown breast, and the black stripe or necklace crossing the lower part of its throat. The upper parts are dark, bluish slate. The sides of the head are black, bordered above by a brown streak.

When the snows begin to all in the mountains, the Varied Thrushes for frock pictured here. The font opens sake the deeper woods for the lower, in a deep V and the turn-back fronts A daughter of Tear Alexander II., who more open places. They frequently form revers displaying a vestee, while served in the great war hospital at come into the outer districts of Seattle the collar may be worn buttoned at the looking for food. After a heavy storm throat as illustrated, or left open. The of snow one may see them hopping skirt is plain at the front and back der leaves, and even pecking at frost- graceful flared side-sections. The long With a cry that was half a sob, Ge they must not be descriptions written extremely shy in the solitudes of their placed a short distance above the If books about Nature are to live, bitten apples in the trees. Although dart-fitted sieeves have flared cuffs stillness of forest aisles. It is uttered maintaining the spirit of the mode of in different keys.

One who visits the northwest woods cents the copy. a good deal soon learns to listen for

A New Insect Pest.

An entirely new American insect pest, a beetle from Japan, has been reported in New York and New Jer-

Men, it will come to this Petticoats for those balloon pants.

The only flag in the British Empire that never comes down except to be replaced by a new one is that which files over the Residency at Lucknow, India, day and night. Tennyson whote a poem on the incident of which it is a reminder of the Indian Mutiny.

Particularly graceful is this moire For an instant Larocque could deen Larocque flung his knife across scarcely believe his eyes; then he the room. Weakness possessed him in the blade had been interest at the moment of rapture; they must not be descriptions written at the moment of rapture; they must not be descriptions.

the moment. Price of the book 10

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS. Write your name and address plain-by, giving number and size of such patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap address your order to Pattern Dept., Wilson Publishing Co., 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto. Patterns sent by

Minard's Liniment for Sore Back.

Pensioned Officers in Japan. There are some 330,000 superannuated officers and officials on the Japanese pension roll which amounts to about $60,000,0000 annually.

"Big Saving to You" SETS and SUPPLIES At Practically Wholesale Prices.

Mail Your Order To-day. 100 voit Storage "B" Batteries,

6 voit 100 Amp. Rex Storage Batteries $14.50 6 volt 90 Amp. Rex Storage Batteries $12.75 46 volt Vertical "B" Batteries, $3.00 45 volt Flat "B" Batteries, large, 45 voit Heavy Duty "B" Batteries, Radiotron 201A Tubes $2.15 Radiotron 200A Tubes $4.90 Radiotron WX199 Pubes $2.30 Permatron 201A Tubes $1.26 Reliable A & B Chargers ... $20.00 Write for Prices on Standard Guaranteed Radio Products not listed.

BIG FOUR RADIO CO. 2 Gould Street Toronto 2, Ont. Dept. WP

188UE No. 52-2E.

ood liver did not poultrym buying a book can to provide of cod his investmen One ha liver oil is pounds of oughly. may re in th ent, but obtain

A quart o 100 hens many pou The sca rows unde makes the fowl. W sell hens not the kin This mi another a the rooms the spread same time Individu rapidly washing t water to I Then take kerosene o up under hens for li parts of b bird may rough legs and blue o the scales prove the s short time. mixture w by the hens Young h scaly legs buyers seen hen by the although it way to judy will not give tion for se

When a the blame. crowded. manure eac pacity to ab is not chan damp, even floors. A lack of floors. Too

a sunny day Spotty

house makes

Sometimes has been ra have a light than the res spots of plas the rest and from the pa In some e tion can be p plaster with adding to 25 and three-for ed linscad-oil tine. Howev sible to seal a give or va the size, or n half pounds o water to wh fourth ounce size can be wall first, but give the pla-be enough, in trouble of put been saved. it is just as priming coat coats have porous spcts can be put or paint, and the plied to cover E. H.

Our Litt The farm v amokehouse. grocery box strip over a c vent escape of nel about 6x6 under the box feet away. The pit was

ary wash poob fire flavo $600.00 Ca ASK FOR O CONTEST

BOYCE'S DE

Jar