PRESS SHUT FROM B. OF E. PREMONITION OF DEATH DEAD MAN IS REVIVED EAT WAY INTO JAIL

Apparently dead for several minutes, Hauserman, Cleveland manufacturer, is on the road to health again because a surgeon took a chance and had the skill to carry his bold decision through. Hauserman's heart failed under the shock of operation, for appendicitis. Suspending the operation, Dr. T. M. Jackson made a large incision under the heart into which he reached and massaged that organ. Slowly heart action was restored and the surgeon finished the appendicitis operation.

Sitting in the silence of complete and permanent deafness and in the fading twilight of approaching blindness, Leonard G. Sharman, aged 30, of London, a former soldier, despairs of recovery, but is anxious to serve his fellow men. He offers to submit his body to scientific experiments in connection with the ailments which have brought about his present condition for possible benefit to others.

He who whispers down the well, About the goods he has to sell, Is not so apt to get the dollar, As the one who climbs the tree to holler.

Moral—If it is anything you want to advertise, put it in The Record.

Ontario prohibitionists, meeting 1,000 strong in Massey Hall, Toronto, last week approved an amendment calling for a committee of ten to survey the Province and take action in the matter of temperance candidates in the next election. It empowers the Ontario Prohibition Union to place a straight prohibition candidate in the field in cases where a party candidate cannot be endorsed by the union.

Fifty days at $4,000. $80 per day. Not a big price to pay for leaders, nor for executives. But a big price to pay for fiddlers. A big price to pay for fiddling when an election is needed to attempt the definite result the last election failed to give.

We nearly always have a fire of somewhat large proportions to report, and last week is no exception. A fire which broke out last Friday in the building which was the original home of the Tuckett Tobacco Co., in Hamilton, did damage estimated at $50,000. The loss is covered by insurance. A large part of the village of Windsor Mills, Que., 15 miles from Sherbrooke, was destroyed by fire last week, with a loss of $500,000. No one was injured.

The season's best cellars are those whose bins are filled with real anthracite.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the barn, stock, implements and crop of T. E. Gibson, near Listowel, with a loss of about $10,000.

Fire of unknown origin completely gutted the business and residential Noble Block, at Sault Ste. Marie last week, destroying everything, causing a loss of about $40,000.

Time flies, and barbers are chiropractors, undertakers are morticians, wiremen are electrologists, and trades are mergers.

"Here's that buck and a half I owe you, in case I never see you again." These were the words of Sgt. John Billings, provincial game warden, to a resident of Madawaska just before he set out on his journey in search of Johnny Parks, trapped in the northern woods, whom the warden suspected was breaking the game laws. It was on this trip that the warden and his guide, Joe Stringer, lost their lives when a cabin in which it is believed they were spending the night had burned, and a warrant is out for the arrest of Parks charged with the murder of the two men.

Do not forget the boy. You are dealing with soul stuff there. Destiny is looking for him, just around the corner.

A lot of loose-tongued people are forever harping that amateur hockey players do not join the pro. ranks simply because they get more money playing as amateurs. Such tommyrot! Nobody will assert that the amateur rule is not violated. The O.H.A. have had experiences of this sort, and punishments have been meted out. But a lot of hockey clubs are in financial straits right now. Not enough people turn out to support a good team. Big rinks are not built of thin air, and must be paid for. If hockey players are being paid, somebody is in for some dizzy financing.

In Calgary, when a man's out of a job and hungry, he simply goes into a restaurant, orders a meal, and after eating it tells the proprietor to call the police. He is jailed and gets fed for a month. Such is life among the unemployed in Calgary.

The provincial Hydro has inaugurated a combination bus and street car system at Peterboro in an effort to wipe out the railway deficits which have been piling up under Hydro management. With London and Hamilton in trouble, the Port Stanley line going behind, and all Hydro railways but one losing money, the street railway and radial business in Ontario is not exactly in a flourishing condition.

News of gold discoveries in the Red Lake district in Ontario has started a rush from several centres, and great activity is reported. The majority of prospectors are from the East, financed by Toronto capital. The district attracted attention some years ago.

A recently estimated report of Ontario ridings are divided between the two factions as follows: Conservatives—Prohibition, 48; Moderation, 29. United Farmers—Pro, 16; Mod., 4. Liberals—Pro, 5; Mod., 9. Prohibition Ridings, 69; moderation ridings, 42. If there is an Ontario election this year it may be fought out between a Conservative-Moderationist

WOULD $9,000 MAKE VACATIONS JOYFUL FOR 150 PERSONS

The Answer to the Question is as Simple as A B C — and So Is the Way to Get the Money.

Nine thousand dollars in cash will be given away in Ontario before you are six weeks older, to 150 men, women and children who want $9,000 and know they want it badly enough to go and get it.

And yet the fact of the matter is that hundreds and thousands of men and women and children who want or need money — who have dreamed of travel, of buying automobiles, or homes, or gay new clothes, or libraries; who have longed for a chance to complete education, or start in business for themselves; who have dependents who need greater opportunity — will not share in that great pre-Easter gift of $9,000.

The reason is a mystery old as the ages.

Mr. A., on the corner of Y Street, who needs money, sees a chance to make money, and goes and makes it. Mr. B., who lives just around the corner, who needs money twice as badly as Mr. A., sees the same chance, says, "How interesting!" — and goes to the movies.

How much would $2,000 buy for you?

Would $2,000 do anything you want to do, and can't afford? Would $2,000, handed to you in one piece, make your vacation time happy this year?

Happiness is worth working for. The Toronto Mail and Empire, knowing that, puts happiness within your grasp, in announcing a record-breaking prize game, a history-making vacation prize division, in which there is no cost to you, no investment from you required, no pledge or promise or obligation on your part.

Mr. A. and Mr. B. may miss it. Probably they will. They will notice by the paper that Douglas Fairbanks' new picture is in town, or they will have a bridge game, or some friends will drop in, or the snow outside will lure them from the fireside.

The result is that Mrs. Z., who knows what she wants and intends to get it, will get $2,000 for vacation this year. And Mr. A. and Mr. B. will say "Wasn't she lucky?" "Now, why didn't we think of that?" Or "I had the same chance. But I didn't try it."

Many people put things off and forget them. The wise ones and the successful ones are the ones who have a loudspeaker set up so they can hear Opportunity's footsteps clear down the next block.

An Opportunity this time means the Toronto Mail and Empire's "B-Word" picture contest, with a record-breaking total of $9,000 in cash offered for 150 winners.

Are you ready to enter? Watch for the announcement of The Mail and Empire "B-Word" Picture Puzzle Game in this paper next week.

party and a Liberal-United Farmers-Prohibitionist party. Such a departure, would make an interesting campaign, to say the least.

A golden butterfly with black spots on the wings which had been about in the 20 below temperature last Friday at Port Arthur, is reported by Albert Smith, of that place.

While employed at the plant of the American Cynamid Co., of Niagara Falls, Charles Dickson had his eye so seriously injured that it had to be removed.

Following an exciting battle in the kitchen of his home, in which he is alleged to have attempted to jab a hot poker into the face of Officer Pippen, Thomas Casemore of Wingham, was arrested last week by Pippen.

Inspector MacPherson is conducting an investigation at the municipal jail farm at Thornhill, following charges that special privileges have been accorded certain prisoners. Some of the men, it is charged, were allowed to go to Toronto, to attend to business details, during the daytime.

In order to relieve the coal shortage in Woodstock, six carloads of Alberta coal have been ordered, and are expected sometime this week. It is stated that it will sell for $15 a ton.

John Hulbert killed 140 human beings, his total profit on the killings being $21,000. His line is not that of the ordinary holdup man, for he is Sing Sing's public executioner, and each time he straps a man into the chair the state pays $150. It seems easy, $150 for work that lasts half an hour. But killings causes strain on the nerves, so Mr. Hulbert, retires. Someone else can have the $150 job.

W. Hington County is free from debt and has a surplus for the year of $3,900.

Brant County has a surplus of $39,000 for the past year.

FEBRUARY BOB AND GUN

Still further improvement in the appearance and contents of the magazine "Bob and Gun" is shown in the February number which has just been issued. There is a very good line-up of sporting reading material in this issue and good illustration of the number.

James Frise's cartoon in this issue is another masterpiece of humorous art with a flavor of the outdoors. Instructive, are of outstanding merit. "Bob and Gun" is published monthly by W. J. Taylor Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

Quebec Winter Sports Off to Good Start

Audette, Ottawa. (2) Isabel Cousier in action. (3) W. B. Thompson making his 35-foot jump. (4) W. B. Thompson, of McGill University, Montreal.

During jumps into space were the opening features of Quebec most brilliant winter season when the International Intercollegiate Ski Jumping teams lined up for the famous trophy on December 30, at the Ancient Capital. W. B. Thompson, of McGill University, scored the longest jump of 35 feet, but J. Beauvais, of Loyola College, Montreal, was awarded the maximum number of points because of his fine form, although he jumped only 31 feet.

Among the university teams taking part in the contest were McGill, Loyola, Ottawa, Montreal, Yale, and Laval. Although it was very cold, large crowds turned out to see the contest, three grand stands on the Dufferin Terrace being packed.

Isabel Cousier, nineteen-year-old miss who holds the world's woman championship, treated the spectators to a daring exhibition, while Ivind Nelson, Canadian Champion, set a new record for Quebec by jumping 101 feet.

The International Ski Trophy was awarded to the triumphant Loyola College team. Two nights later the Terrace was to be seen in sports and flashes, parties from the N. B. and C. and in force.

to take part in the New Year celebrations, and a fireworks exhibition was staged soon after nightfall. Numerous outings were arranged and the winter carnival was at its height and ready to go strong for the rest of the winter from the first week in January.

Another highly interesting event at Quebec, on December 30, was the International cross-country ski race, won by W. B. Thompson, of McGill University. The course is over a difficult five-mile stretch. Tache, of Laval University, Quebec, was second in the cross-country race, and J. Beaubien, of Loyola, Montreal, was third.

The Yale University contestants were left far behind, in both the ski jumps and races, by their Canadian opponents. H. Whitney and R. S. Whitney, of Yale, were seventh and eighth, respectively, in the cross-country race. They had the very same position in the jumping contest.

Heavily-laden sleighs are to be seen going slowly through the old city at all hours of the day and night. Visitors seemingly never tire of the wonders of the quaint French-Canadian capital.
