High Quality—Always

The choice teas used exclusively in Salada yield richly of their delicious goodness. Say Salada.

INTELLIGENT PARENTHOOD

in the same manner. So, unconscious- selves, in so far as they are able? when the call comes for dinner or bed- when we "label" our children? time. Surely such discipline is not | based upon reason!

When correcting a childish fault do many punishments would be avoided, if they did! When little Mary, in helping to dry the dishes, breaks a cup, is it not unwise to scold her severely? Won't she acquire a distaste for "helping?" When Dick tells a "lie," is it sensible to punish him without first trying to understand the boy's way of reasoning and making every effort to correct it?

When George, in a fit of anger, throws his toys around, is it intelligent to "throw George around?" Would it not be wiser to let him find out for himself that the only result of his ill temper is broken toys, which his parents are in no hurry to replace?

If little Alice goes traveling and, becoming restless, fingers window latches and shades and baggage, inpaper or something to occupy the litmains attention?

Solving Each Problem.

ligently? Aren't they teaching their measures to use to correct John's unyoungsters just how to break down tidiness and Mary's habit of procrasion to be jealous of every stranger!

"Too much smy gusted with himself. Surely he was not to be jealous of every stranger!"

"I haven't sm never be hasty, but should always be velop, then, the whole world will be the poorer therefore. To-day's needs

183UE No. 5-26.

Am I using all the intelligence with When a parent grabs a button hook which I am endowed in bringing up or a dust cloth or a pail and shovel my children- is a question all parents from little fingers, saying impatiently, may well ask themselves; and most "Do it like this," doing the job himof us would have to answer in the self, is he acting sensibly? Wouldn't negative. Often our entire policy is the little one learn more quickly by dictated by a prejudice instead of by experience than by just "watching," a well-thought-out plan. Take, for in- and aren't we also depriving him of stance, a mother who as a child was the joy of achieving, which is his very much spoiled. Having reaped the right? Are we ever acting wisely fruit of this upbringing, she decides when we "wait on" children, instead on no condition to rear her children of allowing them to do things for them-ly, she goes to the other extreme, mak- Again and again we hear parents, ing her youngsters "toe the mark" in in their youngsters' presence, say, a most inconsiderate and arbitrary "Dickey is obstinate, or sensitive, or manner. Whereas, in her youth, she mischievous." Aren't the parents imwas allowed to stay up half the night printing these thoughts on the little in order to finish an absorbing book, ones' minds; and won't the children her children are not even permitted be very likely to live up to their reto finish the sentence they are reading putations? Are we acting intelligently

Study the Child's Gifts.

Sometimes a mether insists upon parents always focus their entire inshe was deprived of this privilege. But if Anna cannot become interested in music, while on the other hand, she shows a marked ability to draw, would it not be more reasonable to allow her to devote her time to art? In like his child shall go to college, because her?" he asked. he has always wished that he had had this advantage in his youth. But if sent in body but not in thought.

We ought all of us to mark our own with some inner pain, Latinam real score cards, at the end of every day, judging ourselves as to whether we judging ourselves as to whole with the weight of the we have dealt with our parental problems well's chaperonage, had never spoken intelligently. During this hour of this Kent. But why should "Are you ill?" asked Latham "Sit making plans for cance trips from quires stead of scolding and punishing, events of the day. Perhaps it was too much to expect a two-year-old to sit minute in what was to them, interest sensition ing conversation. Maybe the next When parents change a hasty "No" time we have company, it would be to rid himself of travel dust and dress "I went to the bathroom and was turnto "Yes" because they can't resist the wiser to give the little girl an sarlier for dinner, Latham could not free ing on the light. Then I found myself be able to travel the routes of the eartheir little ones are they acting intel mood we can also needed not free little ones are they acting intel mood we can also need to the many their little ones, are they acting intell mood, we can also pender as to what of its very pettiness, made him dis been pounded."

Modern "Eve" Prefers Spruce but the basic thought on which For- haven't met Mr. Kent, have you?" Tree to the Ancestral Fig Tree. The word "substitute" is a refuge, lands must be maintained in produc. man who might have known hard militaken advantage of by many to salve | tive capacity. their conscience with regard to Forest

Death Ray for Germs.

Conservation. The study of the forest history, however, shows that substitution has been going on for all time. An invention of first importance in the fight against germs has been made also a chap at Manila, a surgeon in the fight against germs has been made the Fight winth who that me shout and hard—hard as nails. With the of fashionable dress, flint replaced the on X-rays.

club as a weapon, and coal replaced He has evolved apparatus by which cytes." cathode rays, formerly produced with- Latham. Forestry in Europe arose two to in glass vacuum tubes by the disthree hundred years ago through fear charge of heavy electric currents, can looking on—Mindanao, chieffy." of a timber famine and its effect on now be produced in the air in such the navy, as well as a wood famine, quantities as to kill bacteria and in- more than halfway, and he rebelled especially in the mining regions. The sects, and has described his method at his own unreadiness. He realized development of the steel ship and coal in "Science."

ed with identically that idea in mind, living things. are no less necessary to the needs of "Bacteria," he says, "have been rayed, and an exposure of a tenth of corners," remarked Mr. Stone.

crude experiments were being made in kill even highly desistant bacterial fibre silk. The new product had to be spores.

year 63,000 tons of fibre silk, requiring small fraction of a second, instantly caught it. "As I was telling you," he some 65 million board feet of timber, showed almost complete collapse, and went on to Stone, "I've bought into dizziness?"

Were produced and as a result we in a few hours were dead."

"And did

Crane & Co." were produced and as a result, we in a few hours were dead."

have our modern Eve clad in the more. This may lead to the application of clusive spun fibre of the Spruce Tree, the rays as a powerful germicide and became heavy. How far matters had and so the subject of substitution coninsecticide, but their promiscuous use gone between Marjorie and this stranLatham's face as if to catch the remore of these germs are becoming on higher forms of life would, in the ger he could not determine, but Kent's flected significance of his own words. known to us every day. There is rea-To-day when we see steel concrete present stage of the development of easy confidence and Mr. Stone's oband brick replacing wood as a build- the apparatus, be dangerous.

ing material we also observe the vast. With a potential as high as 250,000 quantity of wood required when such voits and a current of several thoussubstitutes are used and we also see, andths of an ampere, the rays travel day by day, wood entering new fields, as far as 18in. from the tube and pro-

Real High Life.

For almost a quarter of a century in Canada are amply provided for; Norman B. Sanson has been in charge of a weather bureau station on the top of Sulphur Mountain, at Banff, 7,455 feet above sea level.

Use of Gas Increases.

The manufacture of gas is increase ing in spite of the fact that gas as a means of lighting has largely given way to electricity.

The Greater Good

BY BANNISTER MERWIN.

lawns, Dr. Philip Latham pondered on the best way of asking Marjorie Stone to marry him. A crowded week had forced his personal problems into had forced his personal problems into had forced his personal problems into remaining guests, Mrs. Torrence and the background. In addition to the her daughter; and a moment late: many demands upon him as a young dinner was announced.
but brilliantly successful diagnostic latham had never seen Marjorie cian, there had been an important lec-that her friend of years was more self-effacement was based upon a rec-from the station at last swung into oughly to understand her.

"They have ached sometimes. Now, the drive and came to a stop before When they arose to go to the ver don't keep it back, Dr. Latham. What the drive and came to a stop before and for the coffee, Latham saw a is it?" the entrance to the house, he ran up the entrance to the house, he ran up the steps straight to the welcome of Marjorie and Kent; and then Marjorie and Kent; and then Marjorie and Kent; ine pieasure.

steps in that professional manner. Phil?" she said laughing. "Eagerness," he replied.

here. Fanny?" "Marjorie and her father." Mrs. Caldwell looked at him shrewdly. She had guessed his secret long before he still wrestled for inner peace. He had rapids and portages met with and the manner, many a parent decides that a man at her side. "Who is that with mystery of his experience.

"Cyril Kent," said Fanny. "Kent? I don't think I know him."

out of a college education, being pre- Marjorie and I met him in Cairo last and a man entered.

"Don't worry, Phil," said Fanny while the adults were neurons awars. Caldwell. "Cyril Kent is not Marjor the bed, "I'm pretty while the adults were usurping every ie's first globe-trotter. Marjorie is dictated by our best judgment, and proposition. It is a most important the two men who were standing before when once uttered it should stand. business, which demands constant use the fireplace abruptly stopped their seemed as if a conversation. The older of the two blowing on me." William Stone, nodded in his elderly, affable manner. estry and any Forest Service must Latham advanced, took Kent's lean lips parted. rest, is that our present timber is in hand, and looked into his strongly trust for the future, and our timber marked face. It was the face of a tary service in tropical countries. "How d'you do, Dr. Latham?" he said, in an agreeable voice. "I've heard of you, of course-from Miss Stone An invention of first importance in and Mrs. Caldwell. But there was your discoveries among the phago-

"You are an army man?" asked that Kent had the charm of one who pushed these fears forever into the The most striking effects of Dr. has wrung much from experience background. Yet, these forests, start- Coolidge's invention are obtained on though, perhaps, at the cost of inner fineness. He could not avoid making this reservation.

Forty seven years ago, the first a second has been found sufficient to is going to settle down at home."

put upon a hostile market. Yet, last "Fruit flies, upon being rayed for a most instantaneous, but Latham Myself, I thought it was the heat."

The drift of Kent's words was apvious satisfaction aroused the dread that they were perilously close to some floor?" understanding.

However, at that moment Marjorie came into the room. Only the lack of forest material will duce a purplish glowing of the air in hands and smiling radiantly. "How disturbed?" good to see you! Why didn't you "What de "Phi: " she cried, taking both his did the furniture seem to have been come down yesterday? Fanny thought She included Kent and her father in a swift, happy side glance.

"I don't like to plead work," said

Latham rather lamely; "but there was a lecture to be finished." "Something with a long Latin "Why, no, Marjorie. It deals simply with professional ethics—the so-called medical secret, to be exact." "How mysterious!" she laughed. It was Latham's habit to be reticent about his work; but he explained:

PART I. sician to respect the confidence of his All the way from town to Essex patient. It is as sacred as the consumer of Parties o ture to prepare. The mere pressure while Kent, from his place across the table, watched her with open admira-Marjorie; but now he was soon to see tion and persistently resisted her at-than friend? They had been boy and ognition of what would make him the girl together, and it is not always easy more acceptable to her. She was, in a to turn friendship into love. The very sense, flattered. For Marjorie, with nature of her candid liking for him nature of her candid liking for him for something. She would be a bit was, in its way, discouraging. It no willful, too, at times. Yes, Latham longer pleased him, as it once did, to knew her weaknesses as well as her ward?" hear her refer to him as "Dear old virtues, and he loved them scarcely When the car that brought him that Cyril Kent should appear so thor-

Fanny Caldwell, who clung to the old, jorie quietly pressed her father's hand. informal way of meeting her guests. This partly prepared him for the in-Her young face, beneath its crown of evitable. By the time Marjorie called hair prematurely white, showed genu- him from the unending chatter of Miss Torrence and led him to a shadowed "Why do you always run up the corner, he had schooled himself for knew it himself. "And two or three others who don't count," she added.

"Yes, you wrote that Mariorie was "Yes, you wrote that Marjorie was coming," remarked Latham. He gianced across the lawn. In the distance Marjorie truly loved Kent. She was the boy has no interest in scholastic pursuits and wants very much to enter the business field, will be get anything that spent most of his life in travel.

"A man you will like," she replied; in his thoughts, that, though be turned in his thoughts, that the following in the historic route is evidenced by the or silk materials. Modish fulness is brought about with inverted plaits that start at the front and back from the historic route is evidenced by the interest in his thoughts, that, though be turned in historic route is evidenced by the or silk materials. Modish fulness is brought about with inverted plaits that start at the front and back from the historic route is evidenced by the or silk materials.

When Latham entered the library, a Kent smiled wanly. "To tell the truth, breakers, is an attraction impossible "I haven't smoked since morning," the lives of Canada's original trail Child training is not a hit or miss few minutes before the dinner hour, doctor, I've had a strange, dizzy feel- to discourage. In northwestern On- iy, giving number and size of such moments before he again faced Kent are proving to the world that they are and said quietly: "I will look you over."

"What?" exclaimed Latham.

Skins replaced fig leaves as a source by Dr. W. D. Coolidge, the authority the Eighty-ninth, who told me about few minutes of rest his breathing had knee-jerk, and so on. Kent was sound and without the incentive of profit. returned to normal. So Latham, who never hurried to conclusions, was forced at last to the hypothesis which he "Oh, no; but I was there for a time with an effort of will he thrust from mouth to determine the cause of illthe grip of his work.

"Once; a year or more ago."

"I was crossing the Arabian desert by such analysis. with a caravan. One day I fell, just "Kent is done with out-of-the-way as we were making midday camp.

"And a sensation of a draft of cold

"It must have been some time. I can't say how long." "And when you came to yourself,

"What do you mean? Yes, I must trict was called one night by an old

Where were you standing when you ost consciousness? "By the light-close to the door."

Kent stared apprehensively.

"Are you conscious of having stag-gered?" Latham persisted. "No. But what is all this, anyway?"

How would she receive the avowal To Latham it seemed as if the man's what was coming.

"Phil, dear," she whispered, "I have been waiting for a chance to tell you. I know you will be so happy for me. am going to marry Cyril Kent." He choked down his pain.

Then, suddenly, there came a knock at distances by primitive methods. That his door. The sound was so unexpect- there is still a strong appeal in the old ing all day. Some of the time it has tario there are yet many lakes the patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in brows were knit, and it was several new scenes. These men and women

"What were the circumstances?"

Yes," said Kent. He flashed a talk of it. I fancy they thought I was eye complaints are often due to the speculative look at Latham; it was all in some holy trance—like a dervish absorption of germs which have affect Yes.

have knocked the chair over in fall- farmer to his first case. The patient "And in what part of the bathroom were you when you came to?"

before I went down."

"A few more questions first," said Latham impersonally. "Now please be very careful when you answer. Minard's Liniment relieves headache.

for a second or so-perhaps when you rere talking with some one?

"Why, yes"—Kent spoke hesitantly
"during the last few years."
"And has any one ever remarked your turning suddenly pale?"

"Yes. But it didn't seem to amount to anything. Is it—is it my heart?" Latham shook his head. "You have feit a little dizzy after-"Mhy, yes."
"And perhaps your neck muscle have been somewhat stiff?"

(To be concluded.)

Travelling Historic Trails. When Sir Alexander Mackenzie wrote his "General History of the Fur Frade" in 1801, he gave a vivid description of the route followed by the fur traders from Montreal to the then great unknown northwest. Particularly did he describe that portion from Rainy Lake to the mouth of the Saskatchewan river, giving a most in-The time dragged on, and Latham teresting running account of the many Alexander MacKenzie made this trip through almost unknown waters, but the district has not yet lost its fas- and inverted plaits, is this frock, built dom of the unconventional and long brown charmelaine, a light wool ma-He heard the big hall clock chime 1. to face and overcome difficulties and ings for something new. The Depart-It was Kent. He had on a long ment of the Interior reports the re-With some inner pain, Latham realized that Marjorie, who had made the if he were very tired.

With some inner pain, Latham realized that Marjorie, who had made the if he were very tired.

Two letclosing, and a new idea in sleeves is United States, the writers of which are and 50 inches bust. Size 44 bust re-Winnipeg river, Lake Winnipeg and He let himself sink down on the the Nelson river, and, to show the couch before Latham got to him. He spirit of the age, one of the enquirers The standian history is in ly explorers, to see in reality the many the moment. Price of the book 10 "Too much smoking, perhaps?" sug- points that made their impress upon the historian, and to live over again waters of which have never felt the stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap dip of the white man's paddle, and it carefully) for each number, and "Hello, Phil!" he exclaimed. "You fear to leap into Kent's eyes. He part—coming season see many an advenue willow Publishing Co., 73 West Advanced took Kent's lean by raised himself on his elbow, and his turer paddling his canoe into the white water and packing his outfit over return mail. But Latham had turned away. His portages in quest of new thrills and the equal of those who opened Can-He made a careful, methodical ex- ada's original trade routes, and are He made a careful, methodical ex-amination—pulse, heart, respiration, doing so for pleasure and experience, on top of a passing taxi, and jump

Blood Tests for Health.

The doctor who used to feel his pasixin floor, drag her to the parapet, hoped would prove unnecessary. And tient's pulse or gaze into a gaping and, bracing yourself against a chimhis mind all thoughts and emotions ex- ness nowadays takes a drop of blood catches a window-ledge in her fall, cept professional interest. He was in to analyse. The gullt for much of and human suffering has been traced to "Spose I drop her?" hazarded the "Have you ever fainted before?" he the germs, tiny but deadly, which actor. force their entrance into the human body, and which can only be detected begin all over again."

"Blood tests provide us with the clues to an ever-growing number of "How long were you unconscious?" atiments," said a doctor to the writer. Teache "I don't know. My Arabs wouldn't "It is being found, for instance, that Wille?" "And did you have any pre iminary ed other parts of the body, such as the tonsil's. We can often detect them by testing the blood. "Many cases of illness are due to "And to-night," said Latham. "Do son to believe that the origins of other you know how long you lay on the diseases which are still unknown may be found in the same cause."

A Rural Diagnosis.

A young doctor in a country diswas the farmer's son, who was lying on the bed in much pain.

The young doctor threw out his chest and said: "This should cause you no alarm. It is nothing but a corrustified exegosis antispas modically ema-"At the farther side," he said. "I nating from the physical refrigerator. seem to have staggered several steps producing a prolific source of irritability in the pericranial epidermis."

The father looked at him and reer thought it was a stomach ache."

It is a long stretch of time since Sir INVERTED PLAITS SPELL CHIC.

Illustrating the chic of the onepiece tailleur achieved with seaming on the new princess lines from woodterial that is making some of the most successful costumes. Black satin is in good taste rather than a lavish expenditure of many should want to make her own clothen and the home dressmaker will find the designs illustrated in our new Fashion Book to be practical and simple, yet cents the copy.

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS.

Just More Work.

"All you have to do," said the film producer to the cinema star. "Is to from there to the fire-escape of the building in the corner." He paused for breath.

"Then you must climb up to the "Well, you'll have to pick her up and

Not Gullty.

Teacher "Where is the big dipper,

"I dunno; I use the fountain."

BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

Just Dip to Tint or Boil

to Dye

Each 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can tint soft. delicate shades or dye rich, permanent colors in lingerie. silks, ribbons, skirts, waiste, dresses. eoats, stockings, sweaters, draperies, coverings, hangings

Buy Diamond Dyes no other kindplied: "Just what I said, but his moth- and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is sol or silk, or whether it is linen, discourse mixed For M binatic arv Sa Comb Februa $5.50. Shirt $4.50. Won tions,

the Fel

Finer Februar used fo

A Feb

Februar

shade.

Februar

400 S and goo yard. F.

Made Flannele cut. Sa

A Table

They

over and wool and for ....

Men's H BIG serviceal price eac

Heavy S Unusua derskirt

Satin l'ine

Less tha

Corset

narked re ARD and