CORRESPONDENTS

been employed in this section for the past three years, left on Friday for a trip to London, England, which was his home until he was 14 years of age. He also intends to visit France. During his stay here, Jack was a faithful scholar in our S.S. and a willing helper in our Four Square Club. His many friends wish him a safe voyage. Before his departure the young people presented him with a handsome fountain pen and the following address:
Rockford, Jan. 22, 1926.
Dear Fellow Club Member:—
We, the Four Square Club of Rockford, do not feel that we can let you leave our midst without letting you know the goodwill we bear towards you.

You have lived in our community some three years, and we hope you can leave it feeling that you have made many friends. You have been that you will look back gratefully to your Sunday mornings that you have spent here, and that you will deem them profitably spent.
You have been a willing worker here, in our club. We know that you have the talent of ready speech, and the club members must remember you as one who always gave responsible help when asked. In Rockford you have lived to the fullest extent these lines:

"Be useful where thou livest, that they may, both want and wish thy pleasing presence still."
We feel that you have your own way to make in this world, and it may not always be along the easiest path. We wish you every success. Life, itself, is an opportunity, and opportunities of becoming and doing good are always before us. Remember, us on to braver hope and strivings.
We, your Rockford friends, ask you to accept this fountain pen from us. Keep it as a remembrance from us, and may this verse be a torch to light you on your way across land and sea:
"Do what conscience says is right, Do what reason says is best, Do with all your mind and might, Do your duty, and be blest."
Signed on behalf of the Club.

Feb. 2, 1926.
We are sorry to state that Mrs. Henry Lemon had to be taken to the hospital again on Sunday last; the condition of her health being much worse.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wallace and little girl spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. W. E. Hamby's.

Mr. and Mrs. David Phillips and family and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Phillips and family visited on Sunday at Mr. Geo. Edwards.

Several of the neighbors were calling on Mrs. Henry Lemon on Sunday. The Rockford school report will appear in the next issue of this paper.

SANDUSK

Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Toronto, will speak at the Epworth League of Chapside on Wednesday evening, February 10th.

Sorry to report that Mrs. H. Deal is under the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pond were in London last week attending the funeral of a relative.

Harold Pond, of Hamilton, spent the week-end at home.

La grippe is prevalent in our neighborhood.

Mr. Samuel McKay, who visited in Hamilton and Toronto lately, apparently was a favorite with the fair sex.

Mr. Nicols motored to Simcoe lately, which tells us that the roads are in a fair condition now.

Mrs. M. Hare and son Donald spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pond.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of our Father
Mr. Richard Roberts, who ceased his life's journey on
Feb. 2nd, 1926.
Today the face comes back to us
Of one now gone away,
The smiling, honest, loving face
In its old fashioned way.
We seem to see it as of old,
The face once brave and bright
Of Father, who would join with us
In sorrow and delight.
Who stood by us in thick and thin,
Who'd never chide or blame,
And would not knock or envy those
Who rode the crest of Fame.
How sadly sat we by his side
With eyes betraying tears,
While slowly ebb'd his earthly life
Of nearly four score years.
Fate, in its ever onward march
Denied, as it would seem,
Life's twilight peace and happiness
Of which most of us dream.
In days gone by we can recall
His eyes, now sealed and dulled
Of which his heart was filled.

And yet we still remember
In times of sad dismay
He spoke in love and often cheered
His children on their way.
Back in the days when we were young
And life was bright and clear
He was our constant help and love
And drove away our fear.
But all these happy times have gone
And in passing leave behind,
Some with success and happiness
And some a fate unkind.
And as we journey on to age
Time's bitter toll we trace
In hardship that reflects itself
On every careworn face.
And though these days are over now
We still have him at heart
Despite the range of vision
That sunders us apart.

And in the album of our hearts,
His features we cherish,
For it was he who led us on,
To love and happiness.
But now you're in that happy sphere,
Of song and love divine,
And there behold in glory grand,
The joys we've never seen.

On behalf of the Family,
Herbert W. Roberts,
