MAIL AND EMPIRE'S $9,000 PICTURE PUZZLE WINS WIDE ATTENTION AS ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE

Wise Ones Ready to Start—Delay May Lose $2,000 to One Person —B-Word Picture. Full Announcement Appears Today for First Time.

Wise men and women and children were ready today.

Less wise ones were not. Less wise ones will wait.

And when the greatest puzzle contest in all the history of the Province of Ontario is over, and The Toronto Mail and Empire has given $9,000 in prizes to 150 men and women and children—and $2,000 to one in the record-breaking vacation treasure division—the less wise ones will wish they had started.

It is no puzzle, this statement. It is sober fact.

The first starter, in a foot race or any other contest, is the first finisher. The man who sits down tonight with a copy of this paper in front of him, and works the B-Word picture puzzle; then goes out without delay and mails his solution to The Mail and Empire at $5 each, so that his entry is qualified, will be the man most likely to win $2,000, when the record-breaking contest is over.

The strange fact is that many will not bother.

That strange fact increases the chances of victory for the wide-awake entrant. And put down alongside the first credit these further assets which are the property of the one who is awake to opportunity.

The B-Word picture puzzle is easy to work. You may prove it by asking your son or daughter to start the puzzle. The list of words resulting will show you how easy it is.

There are 150 prizes—50 more than ever before—which means that even the 150 entry, if his entry is properly and fully qualified, accompanied by three subscriptions of $5 each, will get back $15.

The puzzle is the simplest and easiest ever used by The Mail and Empire.

The Mail and Empire is a morning newspaper of 54 years' standing, with full news services, with best in features, with sound and definite editorial policy, with all the things that go to make a first-class newspaper—so that obtaining three subscriptions is easy.

With the publishing of the puzzle picture today, accompanied by the full list of rules, the full list of prizes—all the way from $2,000, through the second prize of $1,400, the third of $1,000, the fourth of $600, and so on down to the 150th of $15—the full details of just what is to be done, and how, start at once.

You have 150 opportunities to share in $9,000. You may win $2,000, simply by working the puzzle successfully and fully qualifying your answer with three subscriptions.

Turn to The Mail and Empire's puzzle announcement in this paper today. Read it carefully. Begin work. And your chances are great. And your reward may be $2,000—in time for the happiest Summer of your life.

With the virtual establishing of an alibi by John Parks, charged with the murder of Game Warden Billings and Joe Stringer, the mystery surrounding the death of the two men remains as great an enigma as ever. Inspector Stringer is making full investigations around Whitney and Madawaska. The case is progressing.

"WHICH DO YOU WANT — A CHECK FOR $100,000 OR $800 IN CASH?"

When Max decided to marry Rachel he reminded her father of his promise—$100,000 when the event took place, and the old man said: "All right. I'll tell you what I'll do with you. 'Til give you a check for $100,000, or $800 in cash. Which do you want?"

So Max took the cash!

And so it is with some overcoat bargains—they are only paper promises that dwindle when it comes to a show-down.

But you can take a FALLS promise at its face value, even in the papers, for our advertising man draws on the merchandise for his facts, and not on his imagination.

Here are Overcoats that were made to sell for $25, $30 and a few at $35. And they are going in the February Sale at $19—and they are going. Overcoats, the like of which have been unknown since 1914.
