SWEET AND SENSIBLE

Here is a sweetly solemn thought for the honey eater, the honey maker and the enter and maker of other things during the post-yuletide period. From this let us extract a grain of wisdom even as the little bee, er, er, has extracted the nectar from the flower by the river's brink:

Instead of indulging in profit cutting competition against each other, Ontario bee keepers are now acting as wisely as their bees and are co-operating.

Two years ago the bee keepers of this big Canadian province found themselves facing bankruptcy with a million and a half pounds of honey in the warehouses, clogging the market and bearing down prices as a result of competitive dumping. Three hundred and fifty honey producers met early in the spring of 1923 to see if there weren't some better way of doing business than the old cut-throat method of flooding the market with their product in the late summer at low prices, only to see the speculators and wholesalers shove the price up to outrageous levels during the winter and spring months. Accordingly the Ontario Honey Producers' Co-operative was formed to rationalize marketing processes.

This year 85 per cent of the great province's honey crop is being handled by the co-op. Eight million pounds will be sent to the United States and European countries by one thousand co-operating producers at a marketing expense of 1 cent a pound. An agent tours the European market yearly, disposing of the larger part of the Ontario yield. Not only does this establish a direct shipping point, the co-operative purchasing of containers, and a co-operative honey-canning plant have saved the farmers thousands of dollars.

Thanks to co-operation, next summer bids fair to be a prosperous season for the busy Ontario bees as well as for their keepers.

NEWSPAPER RIGHTS

There are some men who have peculiar ideas about a newspaper. They regard it, not as a business, but as a convenience. If the paper reaches them late, or fails to give every item of news or its conduct toward them is in a manner they do not like, they then very promptly make a business matter of it, because they have bargained for something they are not getting. They make these issues every day in the year, except the first day, when the business idea is forgotten, and the only thing uppermost is a plea to get out of paying what they honestly owe the paper.

These same men will meet the newspaper man with a smile, offer him a cigar, and then ask him to say in his paper that they are the most enterprising and progressive citizens in the town. That's their idea of business.

Now, the newspaper is a business. It is not a glory machine. It can no more live on sentiment, than can its employees. It may surprise you, but type setters don't work for nothing and no amount of persuasion will make them do it. It's true you may only owe us $1.50 for a year's back subscription, yet if three or four hundred subscribers reason like you, that we collect the news for the fun of it, printers work all week just to print it out for you, the paper mills give us our paper just because they want to see us do well, the machinery men give us machinery for the same reason, then it becomes a different matter, instead of $5 worth of glory it is $50 cash each week for help and supplies.

The newspaper business is made up of small things, and it is such items which, if collected, enable the proprietors to improve the service and pay off all obligations promptly, but which, if deprived of the direct return, makes the cash account short and the shareholders' pockets empty along under a weight of debt sixty pounds to the square inch.

THE HOME TOWN PAPER

When the evening meal is over and the dishes put away, An' you settle down to store your mind with happenin's of the day, Comes a peaceful feelin' o'er you, brushin' from your face a frown, As you scan the weekly paper from your ol' home town.

It tells you all about who's sick an' those who come an' go, Likewise the buyin' and sellin' of stock by the famous "Gus" and "Joe." The burnin' of the barn on the farm of "Big" John Brown, Get's a write-up in the paper from your ol' home town.

There ain't an entertainment or a meetin' where they pray, But what I know about it though I'm livin' far away. If the chicken-pox is ragin' or the mumps is goin' roun', I persue it in the paper from my ol' home town.

I read the mornin' papers, and the evenin' papers, too, I sometimes pick a novel up an' sort of skip it through; But when I want some pabulum, which nowhere else is foun', I unwrap the little paper from my ol' home town.

They say our good and bad deeds are recorded upon high, So that God can classify us when it comes our time to die. If that be true, I know a man who's going to wear a crown. He's the gent who runs the paper in my ol' home town.

Here and There

William Valgardson, a farmer at Taber, Alberta, is glad he went into sugar beet raising. He secured a $350 return from three and one-half acres of land.

Winter sport activities at old Quebec are in full swing. This is considered the most brilliant season of entertainment for years past. Hundreds of sport enthusiasts and tourists from the New England states, Canada, and other parts of the continent are turning up in force at the Ancient Capital.

Miss Isabel Coursier, only nineteen years of age, is the world's woman champion ski jumper. She created a world record at Revelstoke, B.C. at the age of sixteen in 1922. This winter, taking part in the winter sports at Quebec, Miss Coursier made a jump of 83 feet in the International-Intercollegiate Ski contest.

A report from Smiths Falls, Ontario, is to the effect that a train was stopped in order to avoid a collision with an automobile making for the tracks over a crossing. The train was stationary when the automobile struck one of the cars. The occupants of the automobile escaped uninjured.

Tourists on the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Scotland were at the famous King Solomon quarries beneath the walls of Jerusalem, on Christmas night. Many of them according to a cable received a C.P.R. head office, bought jewels made from the stone of the quarries, with olive wood handles.

According to information at the headquarters of the Canadian Pacific Railway, holiday passenger traffic this year from points west was the heaviest since 1920 in the past few weeks and represented a fifty per cent increase over the amount handled over Canadian Pacific Railway lines last year. Special arrangements made to take care of the Christmas and New Year rush worked efficiently.

Canadian Pacific Railway earnings for the month of November were $19,294,184.37, an increase of $1,193,239.12 over the same period for 1924. Net profits for November show an increase of $218,153.84 over the month of November of 1924. Net profits for the eleven months ending November were $3,327,983.83, an increase of $1,330,043.32 over the corresponding period for 1924.

According to Johannes Borg, journalist, of Bergen, Norway, who is visiting the Dominion to record his impressions of Canada since his farming has become a very important industry in parts of Norway. There are now about 150 silver fish farms in the Sander district of Norway. Last autumn, about 100 silver fish, estimated to be worth $100,000 each, were shipped from the island of Norway.

Jack Frost Brings King Sport to Chateau Frontenac Dog Team with toboggan. Chateau Frontenac & Toboggan Slide. (Upper right) Toboggan Races—Quebec.

What is expected to be the most brilliant winter season in the history of Quebec was launched in that city recently with the formation of the Winter Sports Club which is under the patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Quebec, Hon. Narcisse Proulx, Hon. L. A. Taschereau, Premier of the Province, and Mayor Jos. Samson of Quebec.

The Club has undertaken to arrange the International College Ski Competition, the International Snow Shoe Convention, the World Championship Snowshoe races, and the famous Quebec Dog Derby. The Ski competition will include a five-mile cross-country race, a ski-jumping contest, and tests in efficiency including Christians turns. Sight-seeing tours and sporting events will follow in harmonious succession right through the season in addition to the major events. In the Quebec Open Amateur Ski meeting in February, clubs from Montreal, Ottawa, Berlin, N.H., and others will compete. Ivid Nelson, amateur ski champion, and Oliver Kaldahl will be the ski instructors. A lady instructor is to be appointed and visitors to Quebec will be carefully instructed and taken out in parties.

As usual, skating will form one of the attractions. Lars Grafstrom and Mrs. Allan Kerr will act as instructors. Towards the end of January, arrangements have been made for a skating masquerade on the brilliantly illuminated open rink outside the Chateau Frontenac, while another masquerade may be held in February. The rink will also be available for smaller masquerade skating affairs.

Moonlight ski-runs and sleighing parties, the brightly lighted toboggan slide, music from dancing rooms in the Chateau, all will add to the gaiety and charm of the carnival. The Dufferin Terrace Toboggan Slide runs well over a quarter of a mile. A long climb back, but what a soothing sensation to come flying down a long, smooth stretch of ice as if the toboggan would never stop. Five Swiss bob-sleighs have been acquired and competitions will be arranged some time in February. Besides the regular hockey league games, negotiations are in progress to arrange an exhibition game between Sons of Ireland and a Princeton University team, while there is also every possibility of having a few ladies hockey teams. Trips will be made periodically to the Shrine at St. Anne de Beaupre, Chateau Richer, Montmorency Falls and other beautiful sites about the city. A number of excursions will be made to the Island of Orleans via the ice bridge with skiing on the return journey. This novelty is expected to make a decided hit with tourists. Fast horses have been trained for ski-joring and will also compete on a track of beaten snow in trotting races.

DECEMBER ROD AND GUN

The Christmas number of "Rod and Gun" just issued seems to be just the thing for the rest periods of the male members of the family during the Christmas holidays. A wealth of good reading for the healthy man loving the outdoors is to be found in this issue.

The stories and articles this month are not merely seasonal but cover all sporting activities and seasons. There are good hunting stories that are always good reading, while trout fishing in Nova Scotia is Bonnycastle Dale's theme and other fishing of all kinds is touched on in G. P. Sladen's Fishing Notes. A good article in the Guns and Ammunition Department this month is Sighting the Hunting Rifle by Major Townsend Whelan.

The series of articles in the Big Woods of Canada and Breccas from the West, are retaining their very fine quality and Frise has another winner in the January cartoon.
