The last description of the ship of fair weather seems to be in the immortal words of King Lear: "How we know how the other half lives without working."

Captain Arthur Decorey Bower, at one time an enormously rich Britisher, is found dead in a small furnished room, no longer rich. He once broke the bank at Monte Carlo, and that tells the story. You are told that gamblers win, not how they end.

In the action brought by J. B. Fraser against A. Clements and F. F. Payne, at Hamilton, for the recovery of $10,000 damages for injuries sustained in an auto accident, the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,000 against Clements, and held that Payne was not guilty. Fraser was a passenger in Payne's taxi when it was struck last June, by a car driven by Clements.

Police Chief Birrell, of London, believes that a reward should be offered for the capture of Edward Harston, alleged slayer of County Constable Waddell, of London, on Sept. 12th last. With a lapse of over four months since the escape of the accused from the scene of the shooting, the chief believes that some incentive to the apprehension of the alleged slayer should be offered.

The new R. C. Seminary being erected in London, will be ready for occupancy in June.

A team of heavy draft horses, pulling a heavy sleigh, ran amuck on Dundas St., Woodstock, last week.

Mrs. Lilly Moleski, of Timmins, was sentenced last week to 9 months in the Reformatory for ill-treating a 7-year-old girl, her ward.

Stratford Gas Co. will not lease its plant to the city under any consideration, and as the matter stands at present, the plant will be closed down on February 8th.

Land speculation of the Florida kind is like buying stocks on a bucket shop margin—the bucket shop usually gets your money and you retain the experience. Naturally there is a large quantity of "stage money" figuring in these Florida land deals. A lot of the stuff is bought on what might be termed a "shoe string" with the idea of making a quick turnover. The "boom" from first to last is unsound fundamentally, and as such is bound to collapse. The boom will end when new money ceases to flow into Florida. In other words, the bubble will burst when the northern people awake to the fact that Florida is no more valuable than other sand.
