YOUNG LAD DROWNS AT MORTLACH, SASK.

MORTLACH, May 17.—Lloyd Hodgins, 13, eldest son of a family of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Hodgins (nee Hettie Ward), of Mortlach, drowned in Mortlach Creek Saturday shortly after noon in a deep hole, while his younger brother and two other young boys were unable to help him. The alarm was given immediately at a neighboring house and within 37 minutes the body was recovered. All attempts of resuscitation failed.

The boy had gone out with his younger companions for a swim in the creek, which is very shallow. There is one deep hole in a stretch of a mile, and it was at this spot that the boy disappeared under the water. No inquest was considered necessary.

The boy's mother, who was returning from Rochester, Minn., where she recently underwent a serious operation, received the news of her son's death while at a sister's home in Winnipeg. The father was away from home at the time of the accident, and did not hear of his boy's death for two hours after it had occurred.

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the home to Emmanuel Anglican church, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Berry, Mortlach, and Rev. Mr. Scott, Caron. Mr. Berry preached to the overflow in the parish hall, while Mr. Scott gave the funeral oration in the church. Forty cars carrying over 200 people followed the remains to Mortlach cemetery, where interment took place. The floral offerings covered the casket.

KNOX CHURCH

How much do we really know about the actual Jesus of history? We know a lot about what the church has said about Him, but what do we know about the Man Himself? Today there is a renewed interest being taken in His life as it is recorded in the Gospels, and one of the best things the Christian Church can do is to try and present that life to the world of today. For the next few months the morning services at Knox Church will be devoted to studies in the life of Jesus. Such subjects as "The Man of Nazareth," "The Great Teacher," "Jesus, the Moral Radical," "Jesus' Conception of God," "The Master Motive," "The Gospel of the Kingdom," and other related topics will be dealt with. They will all be founded on the actual principles of Jesus and will endeavor to present Him as He was and is. These sermons are open to all, and a hearty invitation to be present is extended to the general public.

What has modern scholarship done for the Bible? Has it strengthened its influence or weakened it? Can we have as firm a faith in the Bible as our fathers had? That question troubles many people today. The 4th sermon of the series on "The Bible," which is "The Bible and Modern Research," will deal with this question. It will be delivered at the evening service on Sunday next.

11 a.m.—"The Man of Nazareth"
7 p.m.—"The Bible and Modern Research"

TRUE CANADIAN CLUB

The meeting opened by singing "The Maple Leaf Forever," after which the secretary introduced the speaker of the evening, the Hon. J. S. Martin. Mr. Martin spoke of his trip through Denmark, contrasting Ontario with that country. He believes that with a little time and co-operation Ontario will have to take no second place. He stressed the importance of winter schools for rural young people and also township school boards. Mr. Martin closed by saying that farming today was a science and the next generation must be educated to get the best out of their life work.

Misses Cora Henning and Mable Kindree then gave an instrumental duet, after which the "Eye-opener" was read by Russel Hare. In their usual able manner the Nanticoke Quartette then favored the club. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

There will be no meeting June 4.
